UPHEAVES SOCIETY.

Banker Beats Wife Unmercifully.

She Sues for Divorce, Causing a Sensation in Exclusive Clubdom.

Shows Her Bruises to Judge and Wants Redress from Sister-in-Law.

Husband Slaps Her Whenever They Disagree and She Is no Boxer.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, April 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Following the arrest of Augustus T. Post, a member of the banking firm of E. D. Sheppard & Co., No. 41 Nassau street, and secretary of the Aero Club of America, on charges brought by his wife that he had beaten her unmercifully on Sunday night in their apartments in the Holland House, Mrs. Post tonight made the announcement that she intended to bring suit for divorce.

She will name as co-respondent a woman, who, for years, was the toast of a famous old New England college. Mrs. Post also declared she intends bringing suit for $100,000 against Mrs. E. Mortimer Ward, sister of Mr. Post, for alienating his affections. This action has startled society.

Post was arraigned today in the Yorkville Police Court, following his arrest in the Holland House. The case was continued until May 1, at the request of the gray-haired wife, who said her attorney, George Gordon Battle, was unable to be in court.

WIFE SHOWS BRUISES.

To Magistrate Baker, Mrs. Post showed bruises and scratches on her arms, inflicted, she said, by her husband. Mrs. Post has a matronly air and confesses to 46 years. Her husband, she says, is 35. Before her marriage to the banker she had been divorced from Judge J. S. Kaye of Orange, Tex., to whom she was married when 17 years old. Her daughter, Miss Sibyl Kaye, was recently married in London to Arthur Kemp.

After the affair in the Holland House last Sunday, Mrs. Post took up her residence in the Buckingham Hotel, Fifth avenue and Fiftieth street. There tonight she told of her life since her marriage eight years ago to Mr. Post.

BLAMES SISTER-IN-LAW.

"My sister-in-law, Mrs. Ward, is the cause of our troubles," Mrs. Post said. "From the time of my marriage to Mr. Post, eight years ago, until his sister, recently divorced from Herbert Clapp of Philadelphia, came to live in New York, three years ago, we were happy. She has taken him away from me. I shall sue for $100,000 for alienating his affections.

"She has encouraged his attentions to other women, especially to an old sweetheart of his who is now married and lives here in New York.

"Mr. Post has been devoted to this woman. He took her out in his automobile and only last week when I was walking in Fifth avenue he came along with her and nearly ran over me. I shall name this woman as co-respondent in proceedings for divorce.

"It has been through his latest fad for grand opera that my husband has again become enamored of this woman. He has been studying for the grand operatic stage and she studied for it in the same studio.

TIFFS BROUGHT SLAPS.

"Whenever she could, Mrs. Ward kept my husband away from me. Once when I went to her house in a cab at 3 o'clock in the morning she put her head out of the window and laughed at me.

"Recently my husband's treatment of me has been getting worse. He slapped me every time I disagreed with him. I had not been taught boxing and I could not cope with him. Sometimes he knocked me senseless. Once when we lived in the Manhattan Hotel he kicked me so severely that I had to have the services of the hotel physician.

"The altercation last Sunday was about this woman to whom he has been paying attention. He announced that he intended taking her out in his auto. He hadn't taken me anywhere in three years. His sister explained it on the grounds of our difference in age."

"TIMES" CUP FOR GRAPES.

Gen. Otis Offers Trophy to Be Competed for by Sacramento Exhibitors.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SACRAMENTO, April 23.—National Irrigation Congress officials announce that Gen. Harrison Gray Otis of Los Angeles, editor of the Los Angeles Times, has offered a silver loving cup to be competed for by exhibitors at the Interstate Exposition of Irrigated Lands' Products, which will be held in this city next September, simultaneously with the National Irrigation Congress. The Times cup will be awarded to the best State exhibit of grapes grown by irrigation.

DEPEW CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY.

NEW YORK, April 23.—Senator Chauncey M. Depew celebrated his 73rd birthday today by lunching at Delmonicos with the Women's Republican Association of the State of New York, which he helped to organize nine years ago.

CALLS POLICE TO STOP HUG.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, April 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Under the influence of her dentist's laughing gas, Miss Agnes Loven of the Bronx hugged the dentist until the police interfered. The girl, who is 22 and pretty, has been undergoing a series of dental operations at the office of Dr. John Taylor. Finally it was necessary to administer laughing gas. The moment the gas took effect Miss Loven leaped from the chair and clasped Dr. Taylor about the neck with a hug that would do credit to a polar bear. The girl when finally torn from the dentist, was carried to a hospital.

GIVES MILLION TO AID BLACKS.

WOMAN MAKES DONATION FOR NEGRO SCHOOL.

Large Sum Is Presented to Booker Washington and Hollis Burke Frisell to Be Used in Assisting Africans in South to Obtain Rudimentary Education.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PHILADELPHIA, April 23.—A gift of $1,000,000 for the establishment of rudimentary schools for southern negroes was announced here today. The donor is Miss Anna T. Jeanes, a Quaker of this city.

Booker T. Washington, head of Tuskegee Institute, and Hollis Burke Frisell, president of the Hampton Normal and Industrial Institute, are named as trustees of the fund, but neither of the institutions they represent will share the gift.

The income of the million dollars is to be used for the sole purpose of assisting in the "Southern United States community, country and rural schools for the great class of negroes, to whom the small rural and community schools are alone available."

Washington and Frisell are empowered to appoint a board of trustees in connection with the fund. The Pennsylvania company for insurance and annuities of this city will act as financial agent of the trustees.

Miss Jeanes, the donor, is 80 years old, and a member of an old and wealthy family that has been prominent for more than a century in the Society of Friends. She has long been interested in the welfare of the negro, and has been a contributor to the institutions for his education.

FREE VICTIM OF WOMAN'S SPITE.

CONVICT IS PARDONED AFTER SHE CONFESSES.

Boasts of Girl That She "Railroaded" Man to Penitentiary Leads to His Release—Had Been Sentenced to Prison for Thirteen Years on Criminal Assault Charge.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

HELENA (Mont.) April 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The State Board of Pardons today approved the action of Gov. Toole in extending clemency to James I. Graves, convicted in Ravalli county in May, 1901, and sentenced to the penitentiary for thirteen years on the charge of criminal assault.

According to the letter of Gov. Toole to the board, which was based on innumerable commissions and petitions bearing the signatures of practically all the court officers and residents of that county, Graves has been the victim of a girl's spite, the statement being made by the clerk of the State Board of Pardons, that these documents show the woman had confessed to "railroading" Graves to the penitentiary.

He will be released immediately and return to Ravalli county and endeavor to live down the stigma which has been placed on his name.

ANOTHER BIG SURPLUS.

Forthcoming Dividend on "Steel Common" Shows Twelve Per Cent. in Six Years.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, April 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The statement of the United States Steel Corporation for the quarter ending March 31, which will be issued after the meeting of the directors next Tuesday, will reveal a surplus of more than $100,000,000.

This figure includes the surplus of subsidiary companies, which, on December 31, last, amounted to $18,164,000. The total surplus December 31, last, was $97,920,714. Therefore, it will require an increase of less than $2,500,000 in surplus in the first quarter of this year to bring the total above $100,000,000.

Including the forthcoming dividend on the common stock, provided it is at the rate of one-half of 1 per cent., this will make a total of 12 per cent. paid to common shareholders in the full six years of the steel corporation's operations. This is at the rate of 2 per cent. a year.

NATIONS IN DEADLOCK.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—The Central American controversy is no nearer settlement today than it was yesterday, according to a dispatch received today at the State Department from Philip Brown, the American charge at Guatemala, cabling from La Union, Salvador. Mr. Brown stated that the deadlock was still on. He held out no hope of an early agreement.

ARE BAD CITIZENS.

Moyer and Haywood Denounced.

President Answers Protests by Scathing These Habitual Incendiaries.

Jeopardy of Trial Does Not Blot Out Life Records of Turmoil.

Executive Proves Unionists Are Opponents of Fair, Square Deal.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 23.—In a letter addressed to Honore Jackson of Chicago, chairman of the Cook county Moyer-Haywood conference, made public today, President Roosevelt replies to the criticisms of his recent letter, in which he referred to Moyer and Haywood, officials of the Western Federation of Miners, charged with implication in the murder of former Gov. Steunenberg of Idaho, as "undesirable citizens."

The President says he regrets that any body of men should so far forget their duty to their country as to, by formation of societies or in other ways, endeavor to influence justice and coerce court or jury; that they, not he, are trying to influence justice, and he condemns what he calls their flagrant impropriety in the matter. He says that he indicated no opinion, as to their guilt of the Steunenberg murder, but that it was simple absurdity to supose that because a man is on trial, he is free from criticism as to his manner of life.

ARE HABITUAL DISTURBERS.

He said that Moyer and Haywood stand as representatives of those who habitually appear as guilty of incitement to or apology for bloodshed and violence. He added that he was profoundly indifferent to the condemnation of him for his criticism of the undesirable types of citizens, regardless of either labor or capital. The President's letter to Jackson follows:

"April 22, 1907.—Dear Sir: I have received your letter of the 19th inst., in which you inclose the draft of formal letter which is to follow. I have been notified that several delegations bearing similar requests are on the way hither.

"In the letter you, on behalf of the Cook county Moyer-Haywood conference, protest against certain language I used in a recent letter, which you assert to be designed to influence the course of justice in the case of the trial for murder of Messrs. Moyer and Haywood.

"I entirely agree with you that it is improper to endeavor to influence the course of justice. For this reason I have regretted most deeply the action of such organizations as your own in undertaking to accomplish this very result in the very case of which you speak.

EXPOSES HYPOCRASY.

"For instance, your letter is headed 'Cook County Moyer-Haywood-Pettibone Conference,' with the headlines: 'Death cannot, will not, and shall not claim our brothers.' This shows that you and your assistants are not demanding a fair trial or working for a fair trial, but are announcing in advance that the verdict shall only be one way, and that you will not tolerate any other verdict. Such action is flagrant in its impropriety, and I join heartily in condemnig it.

"But it is a simple absurdity to show that because any man is on trial for a given offense he is therefore to be freed from all criticisms upon his general conduct and manner of life. In my letter to which you object, I referred to a certain prominent financier, Mr. Harriman, on the one hand, and to Messrs. Moyer, Haywood and Debs on the other, as being equally undesirable citizens.

DERIDES FALSE STATEMENTS.

"It is as foolish to assert that this was designed to influence the trial of Moyer and Haywood as to assert that it was designed to influence the suits that have been brought against Mr. Harriman. I neither expressed nor intended any opinion as to whether Messrs. Moyer and Haywood were guilty of the murder of Gov. Steunenberg. If they are guilty they certainly ought to be punished. If they are not guilty they certainly ought not to be punished.

"But no possible outcome either of the trial or the suits can affect my judgment as to the undesirability of the type of citizenship of those whom I mentioned. Messrs. Moyer and Haywood and Debs stand as representatives of those men who have done as much to discredit the labor movement as the worst speculative financiers or most unscrupulous employers of labor and debauchers of legislatures have done to discredit honest capitalists and fair-dealing business men.

ALWAYS INCITING BLOODSHED.

"They stand as the representatives of these men who by their public utterances and manifestoes, by the utterances of the papers they control and inspire, both by the words and the editorials of those associated with them, habitually are guilty of incitement to or apology for bloodshed and violence. If this does not constitute undesirable citizenship, then there can never be undesirable citizens. The men whom I denounced represent the men who have abandoned that legitimate movement for the uplifting of labor, with which I have the most hearty sympathy; they have adopted practices which cut them off from those who lead this legitimate movement. In every way I shall support the law-abiding and upright representatives of labor, and in no way can I better support them than by drawing the sharpest possible line between them on the one hand and on the other hand the preachers of violence who are themselves the worst foes of the honest laboring men.

SCORES UNPATRIOTIC CONDUCT.

"Let me repeat my deep regret that any body of men should so far forget their duty to their country as to endeavor by the formation of societies and in other ways to influence the course of justice in this matter. I have received many such letters as yours. Accompanying them were newspaper clippings announcing demonstrations, parades and mass meetings designed to show that the representatives of labor, without regard to the facts, demand the acquittal of Messrs. Haywood and Moyer. Such meetings, of course, can be designed only to coerce court and jury in rendering a verdict, and they therefore deserve all the condemnation of those whom you say in your letter endeavor to influence the course of justice.

"You would, of course, be entirely within your rights if you merely announced that you thought Messrs. Moyer and Haywood were 'desirable citizens,' though in such case I should take frank issue with you and should say that, wholly without regard to whether or not they are guilty of the crime for which they are now being tried, they represent as thoroughly an undesirable type of citizenship as can be found in this country; a type which, in the letter to which you so unreasonably take exceptions I showed not to be confined to any one class, but to exist among some representatives of great capitalists as well as among some representatives of wage workers.

CONDEMNS BOTH TYPES.

"In that letter I condemned both types. Certain representatives of the great capitalists in turn condemned me for including Mr. Harriman in my condemnation of Messrs. Moyer and Haywood. Certain of the representatives of labor in their turn condemned me because I included Messrs. Moyer and Haywood as undesirable citizens together with Mr. Harriman. I am as profoundly indifferent to the condemnation in one case as the other. I challenge as of right the support of all good Americans, whether wage earners or capitalists, whatever their occupation or creed, or in whatever portion of the country they live, when I condemn both the types of bad citizenship which I have held up to reprobation. It seems to me a mark of utter insincerity to fail thus to condemn both and to apologize for either robs the man thus apologizing of all right to condemn any wrongdoing in any man, rich or poor, in public or in private life.

URGES SQUARE DEAL.

"You say you ask for a 'square deal' for Messrs. Moyer and Haywood. So do I. When I say 'square deal' I say a square deal to every one; it is equally a violation of the policy of the square deal for a capitalist to protest against a denunciation of a capitalist who is guilty of wrongdoing and for a labor leader to protest against the denunciation of a labor leader who has been guilty of wrongdoing.

"I stand for equal justice to both and so far as in my power lies I shall uphold justice whether the man accused of guilt has behind him the wealthiest corporations, the greatest aggregation of riches in the country; or whether he has behind him the most influential labor organization in the country.

"Very truly yours,
"THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

"Honore Jackson, Chicago, No. 667 West Lake street."

TELLS WHY THIS CITY IS GREAT.

GEN. MANDERSON COMPARES IT WITH SAN FRANCISCO.

Latter Struggles Under Union Labor Thraldom Which Does More Damage Than Fire or Earthquake. In Southern Metropolis Men Own Themselves and Are Prosperous.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

OMAHA, April 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Former Senator Chas. F. Manderson, general solicitor for the Burlington railroad, and formerly president pro tem. of the United States Senate, who, with Mrs. Manderson, has been in California for the last three months, returned Tuesday. He said his visit was of a quiet fashion, more for rest and recuperation, and that he did not blame people for wanting to go to California, for there is no prettier spot on earth, "especially after the rainy season," as Gen. Manderson put it.

"The thing which impressed me most strongly in California," said Gen. Manderson, "was the damage sustained by San Francisco from the drastic and outrageous demands of trades unions. And I have talked with Californians interested in the rebuilding of San Francisco who say the demands and threats of trades unionists bid fair to be more injurious to the future of San Francisco than either the earthquake or fire.

"A most interesting contrast is that which exists between San Francisco and Los Angeles. The Los Angeles Times, under the control of its owner, Gen. Harrison Gray Otis, has made a vigorous fight against the unfair demands of trades unionism, and no city in the United States presents a more thrifty and prosperous condition than Los Angeles does today. It has probably a population of 250,000, and the extent of building and improvement is really wonderful, and everything moves on without disturbance or conflict.

"It presents today a living instance of the importance of every man owning himself. The position of Gen. Otis is one that will commend itself to all thinking men. He does not oppose affiliation when it is properly controlled, but he does bitterly oppose the tyranny that manifests itself in San Francisco and other places where a man is not permitted to own himself and control his own contracts, and is subject to the dictation either of a walking delegate or else to the action of a verbal vote taken after inflammatory speeches made by those who live on the work of others and do not work themselves."

SIR CHENG IS TRANSFERRED.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—While no official advices upon the subject have been received here, it was stated at the Chinese Legation today that the transfer of Sir Chen Tung Liang Cheng to Peking, where, as was reported, he was to become junior vice-president of the Board of Foreign Affairs, had not been expected. The change is likely to take place within the next month. Sir Chen Tung Liang Cheng is succeeded by Lang Tung Yiang, who is at present Chinese customs taotai at Tien Tsin. He speaks English perfectly, is a graduate of Yale and a man of advanced ideas.

LEGISLATURE ASKS CONVICT'S FREEDOM.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

KANSAS CITY (Mo.) April 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In adopting, by vote of sixty-four to thirty, a resolution petitioning the pardon of an escaped prisoner who last Saturday was arrested and returned to the Federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, the Missouri Legislature did something unprecedented in the history of the State.

Last Friday a man who has been known as Charles Anderson, and considered an exemplary citizen of Kansas City for nlen years, was arrested on information furnished by Benjamin T. Barnes, an ex-convict, charged with being an escaped prisoner from the Federal prison at Leavenworth, Kan.

He admitted his name is Charles January and that he was serving a five-year sentence when he escaped nine years ago. He immediately came here, adopted the name of Anderson, saved money, went into business, married and commanded the respect of every one with whom he came in contact. He has a daughter three years old. His wife knew nothing of the prison episode until his arrest.

Immediately following Anderson's arrest petitions were started asking the President to pardon him. Already more than twenty-five thousand have signed. Sympathy for the unfortunate man seems to be the principal talk of the town.

At a meeting to organize efforts to secure a pardon, more than seven hundred people were present. Rev. J. T. Cromer, a prominent minister, arose and denounced this betrayer of Anderson in most bitter terms. Barnes, who runs a small harness shop, is being given police protection, so indignant are the people against him, that for $60 reward he should cause the arrest of such a good citizen as Anderson.

Undoubtedly it will be made so disagreeable for him that he will be obliged to leave town.

CARMEN WANT.

Eight-hour day.
Everybody 37½c an hour—$3.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Ignoring the recent arbitration, the street-car men will present their new agreement today to the United Railroads, and will ask for an early reply from the company. That was decided by the Carmen's Union at the meeting held last evening.

The union would have preferred to wait until the Labor Council passed upon the terms of the agreement, but it anticipated the approval of the council, upon the recommendation of the executive board.

Whether the union will call a strike at once, in case the United Railroads refuses to accept the new agreement, or will permit its members to continue working while negotiations are pending, so as not to subject the community to needless hardship, will be determined at a special meeting to be held later. The time and place for that meeting will be determined by the Managing Committee of the union on Saturday evening, as will the manner of voting upon a strike, whether by secret ballot or by viva voce vote.

COMPANY IS PREPARED.

Members reported that the company has placed upon its lines a large number of new men designated as students, presumably to teach them the business in order that they may be capable of taking the places of the older employés in case of a strike.

The proposition was advanced that the members be instructed to refuse breaking in the students until the question of the new agreement shall be settled. It was decided that the men continue breaking in the students in order to avoid a breach with the company, lest the men be discharged for disobeying orders before the main issue of wages and hours is reached.

ARE BENT ON STRIKE.

The men appear to be determined not to recede from their demands for wages and hours, and the sentiment favoring a strike in case the company refuses to accept the agreement, appeared to predominate in the meeting. Speeches in favor of insisting upon the terms of the demand were applauded to the echo.

The committee which investigated the causes that led up to the last strike submitted its report last evening, in which all concerned were fully exonerated, and the union approved their report.

OUTLINE THEIR DEMANDS.

The principal feature in the new agreement are a flat rate of $3 a day and eight hours work; all overtime to be paid at one and one-half of the regular rate; full recognition of the union and its authorized agent; employés to be discharged for cause only, and when a discharged employé feels aggrieved at having been discharged unjustly, or without cause, that the union shall intercede in his behalf and shall be granted a hearing by the company.

Other matters refer to penalties for neglect of duty, tardiness and other shortcomings, which the union desires regulated by fixed rules. The men, however, will insist upon the $3 for an eight-hour work day. In case the company declines to grant the terms, or delays its reply beyond May 1, a strike seems almost unavoidable.

DETROIT, April 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mark Twain's "Double-barreled Detective Story" is "literary junk," says Controller Joy. Mr. Joy scores the City Library Commission for spending money on books, 75 per cent. of their purchases being "literary junk," according to him. He instances Mark Twain's work among "love-sick novels, poems, boy-hero stories and other works of the same class." He advises the commission to "cut out the worthless literary scrap pile now housed in the public library."

POLITICAL.

TAFT WILL GO TO PHILIPPINES.

Politics Do Not Upset Plans of War Secretary.

His Reply to Direct Inquiry Held Significant.

Is Two Hours in Conference With President.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Secretary Taft today resumed his routine duties at the War Department. The fact that it was Cabinet day made it necessary for him to cut short the time allowed to callers and to postpone until a more convenient moment the consultations he desired to have with Gen. Bell, chief of staff, and the other officials.

It is doubtful if in his Washington experience the Secretary has had to deal with more newspaper men than he saw today. They were mainly desirous to learn just what the Secretary intended to do in answer to the challenge which Senator Foraker had issued in regard to the contest in Ohio. Mr. Taft frankly told his newspaper callers that he was under the disadvantage of a considerable absence in a country where only scanty news of political events were obtained. He did not feel, under the circumstances, that it was proper for him to make any kind of statement as to his political opinions and plans.

One point developed in the course of the talk with the newspaper men that might be regarded as significant, in view of the fact that it has been reported that he intends to cancel his proposed Philippine trip in order to go on the stump in Ohio. Replying to a direct inquiry, the Secretary stated his intention to sail for the Philippines about September 1 next.

The statement was made, too, after the Secretary had spent nearly two hours in close conference with the President. Secretary Taft was invited by the President to remain for luncheon and that time was spent very profitably in a free discussion, not only of the Secretary's observations in his Southern trip, but also of the political developments here in his absence, and of the policies to be pursued in the future.

What the plans are was not disclosed; but, after the luncheon, the Secretary reiterated his statement of last night, that he intended to go to Ohio next Friday and would make three speeches while away—one at Cincinnati, on the occasion of the meeting of the Western Federation of Yale Clubs; one at Dayton, at the corner-stone laying of the Young Men's Christian Association, and another at Cincinnati, before the Business Men's Club. But the Secretary added, with a smile, that none of these speeches would be in any sense political.

Later in the summer, Mr. Taft expects to go to Iowa, and to Minnesota, to address the State universities in each case, but the Secretary did not say that these addresses would be non-political. He was wanted in Oklahoma, and he said he would go if he could. He had been told that a bitter political fight was to be waged there, and if he went into the new State he would have to enter that fight. He also was requested to go to South Dakota on a purely political tour, and possibly he would make one speech, at Fort Meade. Nothing, however, would prevent him from going to the Philippines in September.

The Secretary was willing to talk freely on the Isthmus situation, but most of his statements had been included in the resume of his trip given to the newspapers last night.

One new point of interest was that Chief Engineer Goethals had suggested that the concrete work on the canal construction should be done by contract, although that method was not feasible just now for the excavation.

SPEAKS UP FOR THE PRESIDENT.

BOURNE URGES RENOMINATION OF ROOSEVELT.

Oregon Senator Advocates Making Chief Executive Run Whether He Wants to or Not—Says He Talked "Third Term" at White House and Was Attentively Listened To.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, April 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Senator Jonathan Bourne of Oregon gave out a hot interview last night in which he advocated the renomination of President Roosevelt whether the President wants it or not. It will be remembered that it was at Senator Bourne's dinner that Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania is alleged to have divulged the details of the rich men's $5,000,000 conspiracy against the President.

Bourne told a friend the other day that when he arrived in Washington, he heard that Roosevelt had told his friends that if they wanted to do him a good turn they would not discuss a third term or agitate it, and that he would not listen to any talk on the subject.

Nevertheless, Bourne went to the White House and talked third term straight from the shoulder. He said Roosevelt listened intently without saying a word, and did not reprove him when he had finished. Bourne says, in his interview, that when he ran for Senator in the primary campaign eighteen months ago he declared for Roosevelt for a "second elective term" and that it was approved by the people.

He says he feels sure that the Pacific Coast will demand Roosevelt again. He declares that the President is only the servant of the people, and that if they command him to serve again he cannot refuse.

He says: "The mission providence put into his hands and the unfinished business that he has inaugurated can be better advanced and its fruits made more certain only by continuing him in office of chief magistrate until 1912 and I do and shall favor such crystallization of public opinion as shall force him to waive his personal preference and yield to the public demand that he become a candidate for a second elective term."

It is a significant fact that Senator Bourne has become a very close friend of the President during the past few months. He has accompanied the President on long walks and is consulted on many important subjects. Bourne backs up his interview by stating that he gives it without the knowledge of any person.

LUNGS BLACK FROM SMOKE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LONDON, April 23.—Dr. Sir Frederick Treves, lecturing for the movement for the abatement of the coal smoke nuisance, said that he had seen the lungs of many persons who had died in London, which were black from the surface to their innermost recesses. This not only made it more difficult to resist disease but started disease. These conditions were entirely due to dirt and soot inhaled.

CANNON LEADS BOOMERS.

WILL GO TO JAMESTOWN.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

INDIANAPOLIS (Ind.) April 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Speaker Joseph G. Cannon left Indianapolis today with a party of Fairbanks Presidential boomers for Washington.

Accompanying the Speaker were Senator Hemingway, State Chairman Goodrich, Congressman Watson, "Whip" of the House; Dist.-Atty. Joe Kealing, who is the Fairbanks generalissimo, and a number of lesser political lights. From Washington the party will accompany the President to the Jamestown Exposition Friday.

It is asserted that Speaker Cannon will openly espouse Mr. Fairbanks's candidacy.

STILL PROBING POLICE GRAFT.

JURY GOES AFTER CROOKED PATROLMEN.

Capt. Mooney Testifies That Scores of Disorderly Houses and Saloons Flourish in Formerly Respectable Portion of City Under Paid-for Protection of Officials.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—Captain of Police Mooney, commanding the Bush-street station, was the principal witness today before the grand jury, whose session was devoted to investigation of alleged grafting by officers and men of the department, especially among the saloons, gambling places and disreputable houses that have been conducted since the fire in what was previously a residence section of the city.

It is charged by Capt. Mooney that scores of such places have flourished under the paid-for protection of his superior officers, particularly Chief Dinan, and that malefactors arrested by Mooney's men have been treated with open favor by certain of the police judges.

Other witnesses examined today were the following plain-clothes men from the Bush-street district: J. J. Walsh, Charles Wood, Charles Uht, P. J. Mitchell, Leo Bunner and Louis Cornelius.

"Mr. and Mrs. Emil, proprietors of a lodging-house in Golden Gate avenue, testified to a petty extortion from them of $5 by Patrolman Kerrigan," said Dist.-Atty. Heney, who refused to make any further statement regarding the day's proceedings.

Capt. Mooney said: "The grand jury has undertaken a thorough investigation of the police department from bottom to top. I am merely furnishing some of the necessary information. You will know about some things in a few days."

Replying to a direct question, he said:

"The grand jury can't get what it's after without investigating 'those higher up.' That's as much as I am at liberty to say at this time."

The grand jury adjourned until Friday afternoon.

No progress was made in the Ruef trial today. But one venireman remained to be examined, and he quickly disqualified himself by his answers. A fresh venire of seventy-five names was drawn from the regular jury box, and made returnable Friday morning, to which time adjournment was taken.

It now appears that the greater part of next week will be consumed in getting the eight men necessary to complete the jury. Dist.-Atty. Langdon today said that the prosecution will require five or six days to present its evidence.

"I think," he said, "that the case will go to the jury within two weeks after we have finally filled the panel."

It is now said that any officials of the United Railroads who may be placed on trial on charges of alleged bribery in connection with the granting of the trolley franchise will plead that they were blackmailed and that the party or parties to whom any money was paid had no legal or official connection with the city government.

It has been announced that the United Railroads hearing will not go on until the police investigation has been cleared up.

SWEPT OVER THE FALLS.

Death Prevents a Marriage That Was to Have Taken Place Next Sunday.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

RALEIGH (N. C.) April 23.—Four men were drowned in Cape Fear River today at Buckhorn Falls, thirty miles from Raleigh. The dead are Hans Thorson of St. Paul, general foreman of a construction company erecting a power plant, E. B. Brady, of Moncure, assistant foreman, and two negro laborers.

The men were coming down the river in a launch which was caught in the current and carried over the falls. Thorson was to have been married here Sunday, and his fiancée, Miss Thelma Lindgren, was to have left St. Paul today to join him here.

Scene of Mongolia's Accident Recalls Famous Bombardment of Japanese Battery.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

VICTORIA (B. C.) April 23.—The scene of the Mongolia wreck, not far from the entrance to the Straits of Shimonoseki, is where the Daimyo of Chōsu had his chief battery at the time eighteen foreign men-of-war, including the United State vessels, bombarded Shomonoseki in 1864, failing to secure satisfaction from the central government because the forts of the Daimyo fired on some American vessels entering the straits. The currents are very swift there and many collisions have occurred as a result. The scene is close to several large dock yards and salvage plants.

RAILROAD RECORD.

PARTY RATES OPEN TO ALL.

Commission Makes Decision Important to Public.

Says Section Two Lays Down Rigid Rule of Action.

If Not Accepted by Roads, Will Go Into Court.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 23.—A far-reaching decision was rendered by the Interstate Commerce Commission respecting "party rate tickets." Various railroads of the country have been proceeding on the theory that such tickets applied only to theatrical or amusement companies. The commission holds, however, that the transportation of such amusement companies on party rate tickets would be similar to transportation where the same number of persons not belonging to such companies offered to travel, and that therefore the tickets must be opened to the use of the general public. The majority opinion of the commission was rendered by Commissioner Prouty, Chairman Knapp and Commissioner Harlan dissenting.

A large number of carriers have filed tariffs confining the use of these tickets to amusement companies, and the commission was informed that there is an impression, arising out of the silence of the commission on this subject, that the commission had finally concluded such tickets might thus be limited.

Before taking steps to bring the matter before the courts, the commission sees proper to state the contrary view and to indicate in this decision the reason upon which it bases its conclusions.

After citing several court decisions it was found that the circumstances and conditions mentioned in the second section of the act to regulate commerce, refer to the carriage itself and that the transportation of such amusement companies, on party rate tickets, would be similar to transportation where the same number of persons not belonging to such companies offered to travel.

"It will be seen," says the commission, "that under the holding of both our own and the English courts, Section two prescribes a rigid rule of action. If the circumstances and conditions of the carriage itself are the same, the charge must be the same. We are unable to see how the carriage of ten persons belonging to an amusement company as a party, differs from the carriage of ten other persons, as a party, in the same train, at the same time and between the same points, and we are therefore of the opinion that the party rate ticket must be open to the general public.

"This is not a case in which an order can be made. We simply state, in answer to very many inquiries from interested carriers, what our interpretation of the law will be. If that interpretation is not accepted by the railways we shall at once proceed to bring the question before the courts, where alone it can be authoritatively settled."

CHEAP TICKETS WITHDRAWN.

MINNEAPOLIS, April 23.—The Interstate Commerce Commission has stopped the issuance of cheap tickets to Chicago by the "Block system" on the Minneapolis and St. Louis railroad. All of the cheap tickets will be withdrawn and if the rate war continues, it will be by other means. The St. Louis road has accepted the situation. The ruling of the commission will have a far-reaching effect on the passenger rate situation.

SUPREME COURT TO DECIDE.

SERVICE LAW SUBMITTED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

HELENA (Mont.) April 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The State Railroad Commissioners were advised today by the Northern Pacific Railway Company, that its suggestion for the submission to the Supreme Court of the question of the constitutionality of the so-called sixteen-hour service law for trainmen on an agreed statement of fact, was most agreeable and it will doubtless be determined in this manner.

The railway company, through its counsel, notified the commission that it regarded the law as unconstitutional and it also stated that it proposed ignoring the statute. The commission referred the matter to the Attorney-General and the latter in an opinion took a contrary view of the alleged unconstitutionality of the enactment. The opinion is further suggested, however, that so long as the question has arisen, it might be advisable for the Supreme Court to determine it.

RAILROAD MEN MEET.

Nearly All the Locomotives in Canada as Well as This Country Have Air Brakes.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO, April 23.—Representatives of every important railway system in the United States and Canada met here today to attend the semi-annual convention of the American Railway Association. The day was occupied by committee meetings, the reports from which will be submitted to the general body tomorrow night. The Committee on Safety Appliances, which has under consideration the compilation of a standard code of air brake and train air signal rules, reported that it would not complete its work for six months.

It was announced by the committee that there are but twenty-seven locomotives in the United States and Canada which are not supplied with air brakes.

"PASSED THE TIME OF DAY."

NO CONFERENCE ARRANGED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, April 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Statements were made today by both James J. Hill and Edward H. Harriman about the reported "conference" between the two, at J. P. Morgan and Co.'s office yesterday afternoon, at which Wall street heard that they had "smoked the pipe of peace" and "everything had been fixed up."

This is what they said: Mr. Hill: Yes, I met Mr. Harriman at Mr. Morgan's office and we shook hands and passed the time of day. I don't see, however, that there is anything very calamitous in that. It is nonsense to say that we met by prearrangement. The meeting was an accident, pure and simple.

Mr. Harriman: Ah, yes, I met Mr. Hill in Mr. Morgan's office. I don't know that there is anything very startling about that. We shook hands, passed the time of day and I went on my way. There is no reason why any affairs of business should enter into personal meetings.

LUMBER MEN COMPLAIN.

SAY THAT RATE IS RUINOUS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SALEM (Or.) April 23.—The State Railroad Commission will sit today for the hearing of the complaint of the Willamette Valley lumber men against the Southern Pacific increase in the rate upon rough lumber from valley points to San Francisco of from $3.10 to $5 per thousand.

If the railroad company cannot be induced to recede from its purpose in putting the new rate into effect, which is regarded as prohibitive and ruinous to the valley mill men, the latter will ask the railroad to fix a flat rate of $1 a thousand into Portland, in order that they can secure an outlet for their product by water shipment.

Prohibiting All Free Passes.

ST. PAUL (Minn.) April 23.—The joint legislative Committee on Free Passes this afternoon agreed to recommend a bill providing that all free privileges on railroads, telegraph and telephone lines be prohibited after December 31 next.

FIGHT FIRES FIVE HOURS.

MEN AND HORSES BURNED TO DEATH, AND LOSS IS HEAVY.

New York Firemen Have a Strenuous Time—Two Engines Collide With Street Cars and Drivers Seriously Injured—Whole Families Are Rescued from the Flames.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, April 23.—Four men were burned to death, 250 horses were killed, twelve firemen injured, two of them seriously, two engines overturned and wrecked by collisions with cars, several thrilling rescues from burning buildings and a property loss of $300,000. That is the story of the fire department for the five hours following last midnight.

Six different fires on the East Side, one on Broadway in the middle East Side, and a big stable fire at Christopher and Barrow streets, kept the firemen constantly at work. The dead are four Italians whose bodies, burned beyond recognition, were found in the ruins of the burned stables.

The fire was in the Dispatch stable, in the block between Christopher, Barrow, West and Washington streets. Three alarms called out a great battery of fire apparatus, including two big fireboats, but it was only after a hard fight that the firemen saved the big adjoining tenements and the Palace and Knickerbocker hotels. Two hundred and fifty horses which were quartered in the building perished. The bodies of the four Italians were found in the ruins an hour after the fire had been extinguished. The money loss in the stable fire is placed at $100,000.

Another serious fire started in the Madison laundry in East Fifty-third street and swept through the five stories of the building, several of the upper floors of which were occupied by tenements. It was while on the way to this fire that the two fire engines were wrecked. The drivers of both engines were injured, but it is not believed that either of them is fatally hurt. The firemen had a hard fight before the laundry and the tenement-house fires were subdued because of the lack of water pressure. The families in the upper part of the building were cut off from escape by the stairways, but were rescued by the firemen. This fire caused a loss of $20,000.

It was in a high building on Wooster street that most of the firemen were injured. Fire had been discovered on the top floor and the firemen had drawn their hose up to the stairs to fight a stubborn blaze in the factory of the R. R. Frome Manufacturing Company. The full company had reached the scene when there came the back draught, and the flames and smoke swept over them. A dozen men were blown down a flight of stairs. Several of them were severely burned and bruised.

The other fires were in widely-separated districts of the city.

PITH OF NEWS FROM THE MIDDLE WEST.

CHICAGO, April 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The weather man forgot his spring resolutions today and permitted the mercury to strike the back train. The high point was 58 deg. soon after midnight, but by noon the mark stood at 44 deg., and there was only a slight recovery. The wind get back in the northwest again, and apparently will be nailed there for several days at least. Middle West temperatures:

FREE LOVERS ARRESTED.

A blow was struck at Zion City's free love colony tonight when Fannie Crosby, leader of the cult and Harry Bales were arrested and taken to Kaukegan where they were locked up in jail. Bales formerly was a divinity student at Northwestern University.

The two created a sensation several months ago when they informed Zion that they had been married by God. Miss Crosby insisted she had had a vision in which God had informed her of her spiritual marriage, while Bales said the same vision had come over him. The two then organized the free love cult.

CABBIES WANT MORE PAY.

Chicago is threatened with a cabdrivers strike similar to that of three years ago, when funeral corteges and carriages en route to theaters and social functions were halted by the striking drivers. Unless a demand for $2 a week increase is granted the union threatens to call a strike to take effect Friday.

PARTY BAN REMOVED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SPRINGFIELD (Ill.) April 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Chicago charter legislation is drawing to a focus. By a vote of 12 to 5 the House Committee on charter struck out the ban on the party circle and within a few days it is expected the Republican and Democratic leaders of Chicago will have agreed on an apportionment of the city into fifty or fifty-one wards.

MINERS' TREASURER MISING.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

DUQUESNE (Ill.) April 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] P. H. Strauhun, treasurer of the district miners organization, who took a part in the fight against Joseph Leiter at Zeigler, has disappeared. It has developed that Strauhun drew $1500 of miners' union funds before leaving, and that he participated in a gambling game at Cairo in which he is said to have lost heavily.

ASSEMBLY FAILS TO AGREE.

Rhode Island Legislature Adjourns Without Electing a Senator Deadlock Unchanged.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PROVIDENCE (R. I.) April 23.—Until January next, Rhode Island will have but one United States Senator as a result of the failure of the Republicans in the Legislature to agree on a candidate. The joint assembly adjourned tonight at the end of the eighty-first ballot, which showed that the deadlock was as complete as before. The final ballot stood as follows: Col. Goddard (Dem.) Providence, 40; Col. Samuel Colt, (Rep.,) Bristol, 36; George Peabody Wetmore (Rep.,) Newport, 30.

The contest was the most protracted and stubbornly fought in the political history of the State. Twenty-five ballots were taken at today's sitting, none showing any particular change in the line-up.

SUED FOR TALKING BILL.

Hearst's Independence League Owes for Transmission of Political Speeches.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, April 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] John P. Owens wants his pay for the talking machines which he sold to the Independence League last fall. The talking machines were of the tin-horn sort, into which Hearst poured out his heart.

After the outpouring the talking machines were sent up-state to such places as Hearst could not visit in person. There were six of these "canned speech" machines and Owens said the bill for $290.60 was sent to the Independence League.

After repeated efforts to collect the amount, Owens turned the bill over to his lawyer who has brought suit against the Independence League.

SLOPE BRIEFS.

Will Not Probe Insurance.

SPOKANE (Wash.) April 23.—There will be no Federal investigation of the fire insurance affair. The Spokane Chamber of Commerce, which petitioned the President to take up such an investigation, has received a reply from Commissioner Herbert Smith of the Department of Commerce, stating that "certainly under the present condition of Federal statutes and judicial interpretations, the government would have no jurisdiction either through this department, or any other, to exercise compulsory power in making such an investigation."

Another Seriously Ill.

SAN JOSE, April 23.—Carrie Stevens Walter, one of the best known of California writers, has been unconscious for two days at her residence at No. 600 North Third street, and today her physicians say her recovery is impossible.

Jack London Sails.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—Jack London's sailboat, the Snark, started today for Honolulu, the first port to be touched on "a six-years' cruise around the world. The vessel is 45 feet long, ketch-rigged, and its occupants, besides London and his wife, are Herbert Stoltz, Stanford graduate and athlete, Roscoe Eames, captain, Martin Johnson, cook, and Hideshisa Tochigi, cabin boy.

Homicide Is Justified.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—A coroner's jury today decided that the slaying of James Cosgrove by John Ferra, a watchman in the employ of the Hammond Lumber Company, on April 4, was justifiable homicide. Ferra claimed that he was on duty when the stevedore came creeping through the lumber yard toward the door of the office. Believing him to be a burglar, he fired and Cosgrove fell dead.

Palace Gets Fairmont.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 22.—For the next ten years the Palace Hotel people will control the Fairmont Hotel by lease, with the possibility that by the time the lease is up the Palace owners will also own the Fairmont. Details of the lease were completed yesterday, the Palace people being given the right to purchase or renew the lease for ten years. Papers will be signed today or tomorrow. The monthly rental for the Fairmont is stated to be between $11,000 and $12,000.

Railroad Him to Prison.

STOCKTON, April 23.—The trial record was broken here this morning in the case of John Taylor, charged with assault to rob. A jury was secured, the evidence put in, the case argued, a verdict of guilty brought in and the prisoner sentenced to twenty years in State prison, in one hour and forty-five minutes. There was a prior conviction against the accused.

Offers Reduced Rates.

OAKLAND, April 22.—Water rates to consumers to be reduced 10 per cent. the coming fiscal year and a further reduction the next year, a cut from $5 to $3 a month on the fire hydrant charge, and a cut of 20 per cent. in the charge on water used by the city. This proposition was submitted last night to Louis Titus, general manager of the Peoples' Water Company, by P. H. Pendleton, chairman of the Finance Committee of the City Council, accepted by Titus and recommended by the committee of the whole of the Council. It is expected that this agreement may end the fight that has been in progress in the courts for the past seven years over water rates.

Found Dead in Ruins.

SONORA (Cal.) April 23.—The charred remains of John Sargent, a rancher, aged 73 years, were found in the ashes of his home, near Groveland, this morning. It was supposed at first that Sargent, who had been drinking, had accidentally upset a lamp, but knife wounds in his neck and throat showed the manner of his death and the Coroner's jury pronounced it suicide, being led to this decision by the fact that the deceased had quarreled with relative and then with his aged wife, threatening her life and frightening her so she had left and spent the night with neighbors.

HE CONCLUDES TO APOLOGIZE.

REVOLUTIONIST DRAWS A GUN ON NAVAL OFFICER.

Col. Isaulla of Honduras Threatens to Kill Ensign McNair of the American Gunboat Marietto, but Finally Writes a Note of Apology and Promises to Be Good.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PUERTO CORTEZ, April 17.—[Via New Orleans, April 23.] An amusing instance of the armed resistance to American marines by Honduran revolutionists came to light yesterday in the official correspondence of the American gunboat Marietta.

Col. Louis Isaulla, a revolutionist in command of the Port of Tela, Honduras, drew a revolver on Ensign McNair of the Marietta when the latter was sent ashore to say that the American marines would protect foreign property. Col. Isaulla threatened to kill the ensign if he did not desist in his purpose of landing marines.

Commander Fullam of the Marietta sent a body of marines ashore to demand an apology from Isaulla. The marines found the colonel with eight men drawn in skirmish line, and were told that Col. Isaulla demanded an apology of the Americans. When, however, the Americans advanced and said they intended to have an apology, Isaulla backed down and wrote one.

Among the acts for which an apology was asked was the cutting down of a British flag at Salido. Isaulla's soldiers threatened the life of William Collins, a British subject who had reached his flag for protection. Commander Fullam informed the colonel that the American marines would not allow insults to the British flag.

SALVADOR MUST BOW DOWN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN SALVADOR, April 23.—The government of Nicaragua has demanded satisfaction from the government of Salvador for its part in the recent war between Nicaragua and Honduras as well as the free interchange between the two countries of their respective products.

Salvador, though rejecting the demands is ready to make with Nicaragua a treaty of peace and friendship that does not wound the dignity or injure the interests of either party. There is a possibility that open war may result from Salvador's refusal, or that the President of Nicaragua will lend his aid to the numerous enemies of the President of Salvador.

Man Hunt for Murderers Is Begun on Desert.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SALT LAKE (Utah) April 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A duel between two bad men of the wild country around the border, the line between Colorado and Utah, yesterday ended in murder, and a man hunt over the long waste of desert land is on, with the only hope of the pursuers that they can capture the two murderers before they reach the uninhabited mountain range. "Bill" Young, a bad man, and his son, Clare, met Charles Wilkinson, a bitter enemy, on a lonely road near Paradox, Colo., a border town. Two years ago Wilkinson, in a duel with the elder Young, broke his left arm with a bullet. All three drew guns when they met yesterday, Wilkinson seeing he was beaten, surrendered his revolver under orders, and as he did so the other two men riddled him with bullets. The farmers and ranchmen organized a posse, but they expect the murderers to die with their boots on.

CROOKS MUST WORK.

ADOPT NEW PUNISHMENT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, April 23.—Confidence men, pickpockets, and other crooks who heretofore have managed to escape punishment by paying fines, will be required to work on a municipal stone pile under the vagrancy bill if it is enacted by the present Legislature.

Chief of Police Shippy and Chief Justice Harry Olson of the Municipal Court agreed yesterday that the most effective way of ridding Chicago of criminals who care nothing for fines of from $50 to $100 for each offense, is to put them to work.

The stone pile will be located on the grounds of the House of Correction, and will be operated in conjunction with the quarry of that institution.

The proposed new vagrancy law provided that Judges of the Municipal Court, instead of fining the crooks may send them to the Bridwell for ten, fifteen, or thirty days, and the new superintendent, John L. Whitman, will put them to work breaking stone.

ARREST BROKER.

RECEIVED STOLEN BONDS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, April 23.—Another step intended to explain the disappearance of bonds valued at about $140,000 from the Trust Company of America was taken by the police tonight when they formally placed in custody Oliver M. Dennett, a broker of No. 42 Wall street, who was formerly prominent in Boston financial circles. William O. Douglas, an assistant loan clerk at the trust company, is also under arrest charged with the theft, and the warrant upon which Dennett was detained by detectives alleges the receiving of stolen bonds.

It is charged that he received sixty-one bonds of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway Company, each valued at $1000, and of the issue of May 1, 1902. It is complained also that Dennett knew that the bonds were stolen when he accepted them.

The arrest of the broker had been forecasted because of charges preferred to the police by officers of the trust company, after their investigation of the larceny, and because of the alleged recovery of $30,000 worth of the missing securities in Dennett's room at the Manhattan Club yesterday. After being examined at the detective bureau, Dennett was placed in a cell for the night.

IS STRANGE PRISONER.

WOMAN RESERVES MYSTERY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, April 23.—Late today a jury was empaneled for the trial for murder of Anisia Louise de Massy, a widow, and in many respects the most remarkable prisoner who has occupied a cell in the Tombs. The woman is charged with having fatally shot Gustav Simon, a shirt-waist manufacturer in his Broadway office on November 18 of last year. The State alleges that the prisoner had quarreled with Simon over compensation due her for designing done for the shirt-waist firm.

During the five months spent in the Tombs the prisoner has refused to discuss herself or her case, except to assert her innocence. It is reported that she is a descendant of a noble family in France, which was impoverished by the revolution, but even this subject has failed to elicit any explanation regarding herself or her friends.

When she entered court today her only concern appeared to be lest the newspaper men should make her ridiculous by an imperfect description of her dress. She gave them a minute description.

The motive advanced by the assistant attorney for the killing of Simon was that he failed to pay the woman a small sum of money for working one week in his employ as a designer of lingerie blouses.

CRIME BRIEFS.

Say She Slew Parents.

CHICAGO, April 23.—A warrant charging Mrs. Sladek with the murder of her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mette, was taken out today. Mrs. Mette was proven to have been poisoned by arsenic and it is believed that her husband's death was similarly caused. Three brothers of Mrs. Sladek are critically ill and it is suspected that she tried to poison them.

Execute Dark Threat.

NEW YORK, April 23.—Another of the many attempts to murder by blackmailers masquerading under the sign of the "Black Hand" was discovered today when Valgo Mardone, a prosperous Italian merchant, was found fatally wounded in his apartment in Brooklyn. Last week Mardone received four letters demanding $1000 or his life. He disregarded the warnings and each night barricaded himself in his room by placing heavy furniture before the door and windows. Early today he awoke to find two men in his room. When he attempted to arise they shot him, inflicting a dangerous wound in the lungs. The assailants escaped through the window by which they had gained admission.

Arrest Bank Head.

CHICAGO, April 23.—Charles C. King, president of the First National Bank of Scotland, S. D., was arrested here today by Deputy United States Marshals Griffith and Donovan. The arrest was made on information received by the office of the United States District Attorney in this city from William G. Porter, the District Attorney at Sioux Falls, S. D. The charges against King are misapplication of the funds of the bank in the sum of $21,277 and of issuing to himself nine certificates of deposit of $5000 each, and then converting them to his own use.

Exposed, Shoots Self.

RIDGEWOOD (N. H.) April 23.—Frederick W. Gardner, justice of the peace, and a wealthy resident of this place, killed himself with a pistol last night. Mrs. Gardner followed her husband to the door of an apartment occupied by a young woman. When Gardner saw his wife he drew a revolver and shot himself in the head.

Broker Is Arrested.

NEW YORK, April 23.—R. M. Dennett, a broker, was arrested tonight at his office at No. 42 Wall street, charged with receiving stolen property, and, according to the police, his detention was in connection with the arrest of William O. Douglass, assistant loan clerk of the Trust Company of North America, who is accused of the theft of about $50,000 worth of bonds. Dennett was taken to police headquarters.

Jury Indicts Eytinge.

PHOENIX (Ariz.) April 22.—The grand jury today returned two indictments against Louis V. Eytinge, two counts in each. One charged him with plain forgery and uttering forged checks. The other charged him with murder, describing the crime, and the second count was made more general charging the same offense, the purpose being to withstand possible demurrers of defense.

LIQUOR MEN MUST GO.

Kansas Courts and Officials Determine to Enforce Prohibitory Laws, by Force If Needed.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

TOPEKA (Kan.) April 23.—Atty.-Gen. F. S. Jackson, by securing an injunction against nine foreign brewing companies to prevent their owning property and operating saloons, and in obtaining an order for the appointment of receivers for the brewers' property, has taken the most effective measure that has ever been invoked to enforce the prohibitory law in Kansas.

He intends to push his crusade to an active conclusion, and today in an interview said: "When the receiver is named, he will proceed to locate and take under his control all property of the defendants found in the State and will thus be able to state the place ... the defendants are in any way carrying on business in Kansas. Any attempt to conceal the sale of liquors will place the defendants and all other participating agents in the State in contempt of the Supreme Court.

"The property will be sold and out of the proceeds the court will pay all costs and damages due the State. If it is necessary to send the militia to enforce the order, the defendants will pay the bill. It will not be necessary to do this, however."

The brewers' property in Kansas consists of warehouses and saloon fixtures and is valued at many thousands of dollars.

TREASON NOT TO BE PERMITTED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

KANSAS CITY (Kan.) April 23.—Representatives of foreign liquor concerns who solicit business in Kansas are to be driven from the State on the strength of the recent decision of the United States Supreme Court, which held to be constitutional the law making it a misdemeanor, punishable by fine and imprisonment, to solicit orders for intoxicating liquors within the State.

"Kansas is determined," said C. W. Trickett, Assistant Attorney-General, in an interview here today, "to enforce the laws upon its books and to demonstrate to the country that it is a sovereign State in fact as well as in name. Treason and nullification will not be permitted within its borders."

WASHINGTON.

CALIFORNIA'S PLEA ARGUED.

State's Envoys Present the Lieu Land Case.

Government Refuses to Give a Clear Title.

Claims That Commonwealth Grabbed Domain.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, April 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Surveyor-General Kingsbury and Asst. Atty.-Gen. Sturtevant of California appeared before the Secretary of the Interior this afternoon and made an argument in behalf of the State in what is known as the school land case.

It appears that under the law the State of California was entitled to sections 16 and 32 in each township of the public domain for school lands. In many cases these sections were undesirable. In return for such land the government turned over to the State what are known as "lieu" lands.

In the readjustment of the matter the government claims that the State of California took possession of 4000 acres more of such lands than the amount to which it was entitled and afterwards sold the same to private parties.

This the State denies, but the government will not issue title to these lands, claiming that they were wrongfully secured, inasmuch as the State had no legal right to dispose of them.

It is this question of title which was argued before Secretary Garfield today and a decision in the matter is expected within a few days.

WASHINGTON BRIEFS.

Work Swamps Them.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Representatives of the several express companies of the country had a conference today with members of the Interstate Commerce Commission respecting the filing of their tariffs with the commission, which is required under the new law. They explained that owing to the work of the undertaking of preparing the millions of tariffs it has been impossible for them to file them with the commission. They asked, therefore, for an extension of time in which to complete the work. It was indicated by the commissioners that the companies will be given until July 1 to finish the work.

MET DEATH ON DUTY.

Montana Deputy Sheriff Freezes to Death on Prairies While Trying to Serve Subpoena.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

HELENA (Mont.) April 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Coroner Gray and Under Sheriff Western returned to Miles City today having in their care the body of George Graham, deputy sheriff, who met a singular death in that he was frozen to death on the prairie while essaying to serve papers in an action pending in the District Court of Anaconda county.

The body was positively identified through the finding of the subpoena which Graham was attempting to serve near Jordan, Custer county, and which had been transmitted to his superior from Lewiston county for service. No trace was to be found of Graham's horse or saddle, although his blanket was lying on the ground nearby. Money in his pockets was untouched.

HON. MAUD WILL WRITE.

Daughter of Sir Julian Pauncefote Begins Literary Work With American Material.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, April 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Hon. Maud Pauncefote, daughter of the late Sir Julian Pauncefote, has been royally feted during her long visit in Washington and has also picked up a lot of valuable material for literary work.

Miss Pauncefote joined the army of smart English writers a little more than three years ago when she appeared in the magazines as the author of interesting historical sketches of certain sections of America.

The Pauncefotes were the most popular incumbents of the British embassy at Washington. Never before nor since has a British Ambassador's family gathered about them the many real friends the Pauncefotes counted. Upon her return home, Miss Pauncefote plans to begin her literary work immediately.

Captain Mooney Gives Minute Description of Amounts Extorted by San Francisco Police Officials from New Tenderloin.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO April 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] One of the greatest triumphs of the graft prosecution is the complete exposure of graft in the police department.

Asst. Dist.-Atty. Francis J. Heney made public yesterday statistics showing the enormous sums of money that have been paid to members of the police department for the protection of vice in the new tenderloin, and the privilege of breaking the laws. The details of this shocking revelation are now printed for the first time.

It is impossible to make even an approximate estimate of the total amount of money which the police have extorted from keepers of houses of ill-fame, gambling houses and other dens of vice.

After the great disaster of last April, or as soon as the new tenderloin began to build up and the Barbary Coast district began to establish itself, a schedule of prices for protected vice was formulated. This schedule has been rigidly adhered to.

In the case of houses of ill-fame, the proprietors were required to pay the patrolmen on the beat the sum of $5, the sergeants $15, the captains $25 and the chief of police $75 to $100 every week for the privilege of conducting their nefarious business.

The gambling houses were assessed according to their ability to pay, but the average price for police protection, according to Heney, was about the same as the houses of prostitution.

The dives along Pacific street and in the Barbary Coast district were required to pay $50 every week to the police captain and the chief, those two functionaries presumably dividing the money. The sporting saloons where women of the night life congregate were taxed a similar amount.

This amazing condition of affairs has existed ever since the establishment of the new tenderloin and the upbuilding of the Chinatown and Barbary Coast districts.

Asst. Dist.-Atty. Heney and William J. Burns long suspected the state of affairs and some evidence was gathered by them, but the complete revelation did not come until Captain of Police John Mooney enlightened them.

Mooney has kept nothing back and has not hesitated to expose his corrupt brother officers, involving the lowest and highest in rank. He has even told Heney and the grand jury how the toll on the underworld was collected, and has given an account of the methods pursued by Chief of Police Dinan, the names of his collectors, the names of the police captains, who, not daring to trust others to collect their graft, went in person to the landladies of the houses of ill-fame and received their blackmail in cash every week.

According to the story Mooney has told the grand jury, the patrolmen collected their regular $5 graft from the houses on their beat in person. The sergeants followed the same course, going in person to the houses of their district.

Some of them collected for their captains, but most of the captains preferred to collect themselves.

The notorious "Kid" Sullivan was one of Dinan's collection agents, but the graft is so large that he had to employ others to help out.

"Do the members of the police commission share in this graft?" Heney was asked.

"No," replied the prosecutor, "they get theirs in other ways."

Capt. Mooney has not unfolded all his tale to the grand jury yet. He was on the stand yesterday afternoon and will be called again before he will be able to complete the story, but he has told enough to show that the police department of San Francisco is corrupt beyond the wildest imaginings of its accusers.

It is not reasonable to suppose that before the April disaster the police grafters were any better than they now are. The prosperity of the Tenderloin and Barbary Coast, during the last year has made the graft big and alluring. Keeping a careful account of the profits of various dens of vice scattered throughout the city, has enabled Dinan and his crew to exact just as large an amount from each place as the proprietors would stand. There have been few protests against these extortions.

It is difficult even for the prosecution, to make the victims of the grafters turn State's evidence, but once assured that they will be immune from persecution by Dinan because of informing, they will flock to the grand jury room in droves to give their testimony.

Asst. Dist.-Atty. Heney does not think that all the money which the high officials of the police department managed to get their hands on was retained by them. He thinks that much of it had to be passed on to those higher up and he is confident that Schmitz and Ruef received a large share of the graft.

As a result of these revelations the grafting members of the police department will be relentlessly prosecuted by the District Attorney. In many instances the rank and file are held far less culpable than their superiors. Had discipline been conserved and had their superiors set an example of probity, it is believed by the graft prosecutor that the patrolmen would have remained honest.

Under the existing circumstances, many excuses are found for them, but the actions of Dinan and many of his captains and sergeants cannot be condoned. Dinan is supposed to be a rich man as the result of the graft from protected vice and some of the captains are nearly as well off.

It has been impossible to ascertain to what extent other officers of the municipal government shared in the graft. Whether the police judges have received a portion of the money extorted from the under world is another point which remains to be seen.

The work of the grand jury for the next week will largely be devoted to probing into this hideous scandal and following wherever it leads.

PLAN STEAMSHIP MERGER.

Southern Lines That Control More Than a Hundred Vessels Will Unite Forces.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, April 23.—Details became known tonight of the terms and scope of the connection between the O. W. Morse Steamship Company, the Clyde and Mallory lines and a holding company, which is known as the Consolidated Steamship Company.

The new company will, it is stated, issue $124,000,000 of securities when the merger details are completed. Half of this amount will be in one class of stock and the balance $62,000,000 will be a collateral trust of 4 per cent. bonds. More than 100 sea-going steamships will be owned by this company.

The criminal action which was brought against Princess Camilla von Wrede, because of the theft of silver from Berlin hotels, is to be abandoned. Medical experts have pronounced her insane. The Princess is now in a sanitarium.

American Fleet Presents a Grand Spectacle.

Foreign Vessels Arrive to Join Exposition.

President Will Review the Assembled Navies.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NORFOLK (Va.) April 23.—The greatest fleet of American vessels ever assembled in the historic waters of Hampton Roads—300,000 tons of floating steel—was made ready today to receive the first of the visiting foreign battleships and cruisers which are from time to time to take part in the celebrations which will mark the progress of the Jamestown Tercentennial Exposition.

At the opening of the exposition, next Friday, the war vessels of Great Britain, Germany and Austria are expected. One of the visiting Germans, the dark-hulled cruiser Bremen, commanded by Lieut.-Commander Alberts, is already in the Roads, awaiting the arrival of the Roon, a big armored cruiser, typical of the modern fighting craft of Emperor William's navy.

The Roon will be officially welcomed by a boom of cannon from the Connecticut, the flagship of Rear-Admiral Evans, commander of the Atlantic fleet.

All the American vessels now at anchor belong to the Atlantic fleet. There are probably twenty-five battleships and cruisers in the line which is headed by the Connecticut, just off the government pier at Fortress Monroe and which extends almost to hte point up the broad channel-way leading to Norfolk.

SHOWS FIGHTING STRENGTH.

The fleet has been arranged so as to give the visitors to the exposition the best possible opportunity for reviewing the fighting strength of the American navy.

Practically every type of fighting craft in the American navy is represented. The battleships range from 16,000-ton monsters of the Connecticut and Louisiana class—the forerunners of the Dreadnought, about to be added to the navy—down to the all but abandoned Texas, the oldest American battleship, and sister of the Maine, which was wrecked in Havana Harbor.

The Texas was built at Norfolk Navy Yard many years ago, and, being a local product, is to remain at the exposition as a permanent feature of the naval exhibit. With her eight guns and paltry 6345 tons of weight, the Texas ranged alongside the mammoth Connecticut, which mounts twenty-four guns and displaces 16,000 tons of water, offers a striking example of the progress of the American navy since the days when the Texas and Maine were first authorized by Congress.

The cruisers of the fleet are all modern craft, though the variance in size between the largest and smallest is as great as that which marks the heavier sizes of the battleship class. The armored cruisers Tennessee and Washington, each of 14,500 tons and mounting twenty guns each, are the heaviest of the cruisers.

FLEET AND POWERFUL.

They can hurl a weight of metal almost equal to the first-class battleships, while they possess the fleetness of the ocean greyhound. The smallest cruisers are the Denver and the Cleveland, of 3100 tons each—the third class of the protected vessels of the navy. In the cruiser class, the most interesting vessel is perhaps the Brooklyn, the flagship of Rear-Admiral Schley in the battle of Santiago.

The English naval squadron, under command of Rear-Admiral Neville, is expected in Hampton Roads either tomorrow or Thursday. There will be four armored cruisers in the squadron, a homeogencous set of grey-coated fighters built along the fleet lines of all the modern English vessels. The flagship will be the Good Hope, and the companion ships will be the Argyll, Hampshire and Roxburgh.

The Austrian vessels, the armored cruiser Sankt George and the protected cruiser Aspewall will arrive either Thursday evening or Friday morning. It is hoped they will be here in time for the opening ceremonies. The vessels of the other navies of the world will arrive on dates yet to be fixed. The Japanese squadron is expected May 8.

The President will review the American fleet and the visiting foreigners from the deck of the Mayflower on Friday morning before he lands on the exposition grounds. The foreign vessels will be given positions of honor inside the long sweeping circle of American ships during their stay.

Fifteen hundred bluejackets will be landed from the American vessels to take part in the military and naval parade Friday afternoon, which will be reviewed by the President from the stand erected on the exposition plaza known as Lee's parade. The foreign vessels in port at that time will be invited to land parties, and if they consent to do so their forces will be given the right of line.

PRESIDENT PLANS TRIP.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—The President will leave the navy yard here at 2:30 o'clock Thursday morning on the yacht Mayflower for the Jamestown Exposition. Accompanying him will be Secretary Loeb, several of the President's children and perhaps some other guests. The review of the American and foreign ships now in Chesapeake Bay will occupy an hour on Friday morning, and the reception on board the Mayflower by the President and Mrs. Roosevelt to the officers of the foreign men-of-war will begin at 10:30 o'clock on that day.

HELD COURT ON SIDEWALK.

Inventor J. B. Hammond of Typewriter Fame Would Not Leave Carriage. Committed to Bellevue.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, April 23.—James Bartlett Hammond, aged 68, inventor of the typewriter bearing his name, was committed to Bellevue Hospital for observation today on complaint of his brother, Thomas F. Hammond.

The hearing resulting in the commitment was held in the street in front of the west side of the court building. Hammond was driven to the court in a cab, the only other occupant of which was a private detective, who had taken him into custody. In another cab was Thomas F. Hammond, and Albert Bruce, manager for the Hammond Typewriter Company. Word was sent to Magistrate Walsh that it would be impossible to get Hammond out of the carriage.

Then the magistrate, accompanied by the clerk of the court and stenographer and several court officials, went to the sidewalk. Standing alongside the carriage in which the inventor was sitting, the magistrate heard the testimony of Dr. Carlos F. McDonald and Dr. Coley, alienists; the brother, Thomas F. Hammond, and Manager Bryce. All of the witnesses testified that Mr. Hammond was mentally irresponsible from the effects of drugs and liquors, and Magistrate Walsh at once made out the papers committing him to Bellevue.

Mr. Hammond's arrest followed a scene at the Hotel Cumberland, where, according to the testimony, he startled the other guests of the house by shouting and declaring that he had given all his money to his employés.

NAB SUSPECTED KIDNAPER.

Detectives Capture Man Whom They Think Can Explain Marvin Mystery.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PHILADELPHIA, April 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Suspected of knowing the whereabouts of Horace Marvin, the missing boy of Kitts Hummock, Del., Frank H. Butter was arrested shortly before midnight tonight just as the river steamer, John P. Wilson, on which he worked, swung into waters in the jurisdiction of Delaware.

The State detectives and three Pinkerton detectives were stowed away on the Wilson when the boat left its dock in this city bound for Lebanon, a town near the Marvin farm. Before coming to this city today, Detective Lore procured a warrant from Justice Weed of Dover, calling for the arrest of Butter.

Detective Lore has asserted his belief that Butter, who was one of the two men that last saw Horace Marvin, knows more than he has told. He gave out for publication today a story that the boy may have fallen from the wagon driven by Butter, and that the man, frightened by the accident, hid the body. Whether or not that is a statement of his real belief is a question on which other detectives differ. Dr. Marvin, the boy's father, believes that Lore's theory is correct.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SALT LAKE (Utah) April 23.—The street car situation here following several days of negotiations between the Utah Electric Light and Railway Com pany (a Harriman corporation,) and its employés, has reached an acute stage. The men ask for an increase in wages and recognition of their union. The company declares that its earn ings are not great enough to permit payment of the wage scale de manded by the men—23 cents per hour for the first year, and 30 cents per hour for the first year. This is 15 per cent. more than the men now receive.

The men have placed their case in the hands of C. O. Pratt, chairman of the Executive Committee of the Amal gamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employés of Amer ica. Pratt has asked for a conference with the officials of the company, upon the result of this conference will depend a strike or an amicable settlement of differences.

This afternoon the men sent a letter to President Bancroft of the company, stating that they were willing to leave the company half way on the matter, submit all differences to ar bitration. No move toward a strike will be made till an answer is received, and in case of a strike about 450 men will be affected.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

DENVER (Colo.) April 23.—The United States government will be asked to mediate between the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad and its shopmen in an effort to bring about a settlement of the differences existing over the wage scale question.

E. E. Sheppard, assistant grand master of the Order of Railway Con ductors, and W. T. Newman, third vice president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, held a final con ference with the officials of the Rio Grande road today and notified them that the trainmen had rejected almost unanimously the offer of the com pany's management of an increase of 3.63 per cent. and that noth ing less than the Chicago scale, agreed upon recently at a meeting of gen eral managers of western railroads and representatives of the railroads, would be acceptable to the Rio Grande men. They were told that this could not be done and were also notified that a railway would appeal to Washing ton.

LABOR BRIEFS.

Will Threaten Strike.

TACOMA, April 23.—Unless demands for eight-hour day and a minimum wage scale of $3.75 a day are granted by July 1, a strike of all iron-molders on the Pacific Coast is threatened. Twenty-five hundred men will be affected. No action will be taken by local unions until the arrival of P. J. Valentine, president of the Molders of North America, who is on his way to Puget Sound cities. Employers are said to have offered $4 for an eight-hour day, but the men are demanding $4.50 on an eight-hour day.

Strike Imminent.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—The Executive Committee of the Labor Council last night decided to recommend the indorsement of the wage demands of the Street Carmen's Union, which calls for an eight-hour day and a minimum wage of $3 a day. EL PASO (Tex.) April 23.—Creditors of the estate of the late Lord J. B. Beresford, who was killed in a train wreck in North Dakota, December 24, 1906, leaving a very large estate, have filed an application in the District Court here for the appointment of an administrator.

Among the plaintiffs is Flora Wolff, the negress who claimed to have been the common law wife of Beresford, and to whom he willed $10,000. The others are persons whom Beresford was indebted to, and whose claims a New York lawyer, representing the Beresfords, attempted to discount.

The estate is valued at over $1,000,000 and consists of lands and cattle in Mexico and Canada. After bequeathing $10,000 to Flora Wolff, the will left the remainder of the property to Beresford's two brothers. The Wolff woman declined to accept the amount left her, claiming a wife's share under the laws of Mexico.

Admiral Lord Beresford, when here some weeks ago, failed to reach a compromise with Flora Wolff, and left the other claims to be adjusted by his attorney in New York.

LUMBER MILLS BURN.

SEATTLE, April 23.—Fire which broke out at 10:45 last night in the planer room of the Port Blakeley Mill Company's lumber mill at Port Blakeley, wiped out the entire plant, the largest lumber manufacturing establishment on the Coast, and one of the largest in the world, entailing a loss of between $300,000 and $500,000. Of this 70 per cent. is covered by insurance. The management of the mill announce they will rebuild at once. The fire orignated in a hot box, and when discovered was beyond control, and the 300 men were compelled to flee for their lives.

I.W.W. RINGLEADERS INDICTED BY GRAND JURY.

Totemites Prominent in Jawsmith Circles Are Captured and Hustled Out of Goldfield by Officers—Reign of Lawlessness and Intimidation Is Now Nearing End.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

GOLDFIELD, April 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Unless the statements of business men and mine operators of the Goldfield district are erroneous, the ringleaders of the Industrial Workers of the World, the men who were responsible for most of the lawlessness and intimidation in this section for several weeks past, are now in custody.

The grand jury is in session at Hawthorne, north of here. Yesterday it returned several indictments against Goldfield people and this evening the following were placed under arrest and hustled out of town: Jerry Sexton, Vincent St. John, Ben Donnelly, R. Elmer Rice, A. E. Johnson, Walter Campbell, Harry Rodgers and L. D. Jardine.

Sexton is vice-president of the remnant of the I.W.W. here. St. John, said to be one of the most persistent and dangerous agitators in mining camps known in this country, is a delegate. Donnelly ran for delegate, but was defeated. Rice is recording secretary of the I.W.W. The other four held no official positions, but are said to be within the counsels of the inner circle of the organization.

M. R. Preston and Joseph Smith, the latter a walking delegate of the I.W.W., are on trial at Hawthorne for their lives. They are accused of the murder of John Silva, a restaurant proprietor, several weeks ago.

Silva's place was under a boycott and during a row with a walking delegate he was shot and killed.

DISLIKES HER UNDRESS.

Former Duke Wants Divorce Because Wife Insists on Living in Caves in Nature's Garb.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

GENEVA, April 23.—Herr Woelfling, who at one time was Archduke Leopold of Austria, and his wife from whom he is seeking a divorce, appeared in court here for the usual attempt at reconciliation prior to granting the decree.

Both parties declined to resume conjugal relations, the former Archduke declaring he was tired of vegetarianism, the fantastic undress and other fads of his wife. The case consequently will take its ordinary course.

Herr Woelfling gave up his position, expectations and honors as an Austrian Archduke some four years ago in order to marry Wilhelmina Adamovich, an actress in Vienna from whom he now would be divorced. After leaving Austria he and his wife resided in Switzerland, where the former Archduke became a citizen and served his time in the Swiss army. The present divorce proceedings were brought on the ground of eccentricity.

For some time past Frau Woelfling has been a vegetarian. She recently joined a colony of "nature people" who live in caves, subsist on uncooked vegetables, go practically without clothes and abstain from all civilized customs. She attempted to convert her husband to this manner of life.

WRECK VICTIMS DIE.

SALT LAKE (Utah) April 23.—James Rowland and George Barnes, both San Pedro, Los Angeles and Salt Lake Railroad engineers, died in a local hospital today from injuries sustained in the collision of two light engines near Milford, Utah, yesterday.

For Cooking, Use

PURITAS!

YOU, with every intelligent housewife, recognize the absolute necessity of a PURE water for drinking purposes. You know that PURITAS, a twice disitlled water scientifically sterilized and duly protected from infection at every step from the deep wells to your home, is the only safe drinking water obtainable in Los Angeles; that more than 200 physicians and dentists, three score and ten druggists and ten hospitals use PURITAS and recommend it in preference to city wafer.

But Do You Realize that PURITAS is equally essential for COOKING purposes.

In the preparation of foods, a pure water MUST be used if HEALTH is desired—not only in the cooking but IN PREPARING AND WASHING VEGETABLES for cooking.

Its cost is a trifle; a telephone message will bring it to your household without delay. Note the coupon rates.

MRS. EDDY IS MADE AMERICAN FOUNDER.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, April 23.—With Mrs Mary B. Eddy as its American founder and Andrew Carnegie, Seth Low, Nicholas Murray Butler and other American publicists identified with the movement, an American branch of the "Association for International Conciliation" was organized today.

Offices for the American department of the association have been opened at No. 542 Fifth avenue, and from there a pan-American peace propaganda will be circulated.

With international peace as its subject, the association aims to secure workers in every national hall of legislation in the cause of peace. The suggestion that Mrs. Eddy become the founder of the American branch was made after a meeting held in the First Church of Christian Science, Boston, last week.

Baron D'Estournelles de Constant, member of the French Senate, the founder and world's president of the association, was present at today's meeting. He said the purpose of the organization is to fight for a perfect system of international arbitration. Andrew Carnegie and Andrew D. White are the honorary presidents of the association; Nicholas Murray Butler is president, Congressman Richard Bartholdt vice-president, and Robert H. Franks treasurer.

A letter from Mrs. Eddy accepting her appointment as founder says: "My beloved brethren: Your appointment of me as founder of the Association for International Conciliation is most gracious. To aid in this holy purpose is the leading impetus of my life. Many years have I prayed and labored for the consummation of 'On earth, peace; good will toward men.' May the fruits of your grand association, pregnant with peace, find their birthright in divine science.

"Right thought and deeds are the sovereign remedies of all earth's woe. Sin is its own enemy. Right is its recompense, even though it be betrayed. Wrong may be man's highest idea of right until his grasp in goodness grows stronger. It is always safe to be just.

"When pride, self and human reason reign, justice is rampant. Individuals unite harmoniously on the basis of justice, and this is accomplished when self is lost in love—in God's own plan of salvation. 'To do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly' is the standard of Christian Science.

"Human law is right only as it patterns the divine. Consolation and peace are based on the enlightened sense of God's government.

"Lured by fame, pride of gold, success is dangerous, but the choice of folly never fastens on the good or the great.

"Because of my rediscovery of Christian Science, and honest effort (however meager) to help human purpose and peoples, you may have accorded me more than is deserved, but 'tis sweet to be remembered.'

"Lovingly yours,

"MARY BAKER G. EDDY."

It was voted to name a committee of three, consisting of President Butler, Congressman Bartholdt and Hayne Davis, to prepare for the establishment of new branches of the association in each of the South American republics.

Charles A. Peabody was reelected president of the New York Mutual Life Insurance Company at the meeting of the new board of trustees yesterday. E. W. McClintock was reelected vice-president.

TELLS OF KILLING.

Ex-Judge Says He Slew Young Man After Careful Consideration, for Betraying His Daughter.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LYNCHBURG (Va.) April 23.—Ex-Judge F. W. Loving, who yesterday shot and killed Theodore Estes at Oak Ridge, the country estate of Thomas F. Ryan, was today admitted to $5000 bail.

Charging Estes with drugging and attacking his daughter, Elizabeth, aged 18, Judge Loving drove some eight or ten miles before locating the young man and shot him down without waiting for the victim to explain himself.

Judge Loving formerly represented Amherst county in the Legislature and served as county judge. For three years he has been in charge of the Ryan estate as superintendent. Judge Loving said:

"When I heard the awful story from the lips of my daughter I was insane. I wanted to learn all the facts and then nothing in God's or man's power could have stopped me from taking his life. I did it after careful consideration."

FREMONT DEFENDS HIMSELF.

NEW YORK, April 23.—Maj. Francis P. Fremont testified in his own defense today in his trial by court-martial on charges of conduct unbecoming a gentleman and an offier. Maj. Fremont denied portions of the charges alleging misrepresentation in obtaining loans. He said it was true he had borrowed money in various sums from several banks, and that in some cases these loans have not been repaid. His sister had told him, he said, that when she sold certain lots in San Francisco she would give him sufficient money to cancel his debts. He believed her when she told him that, and he still believes that she will do so, he said. Fremont said the San Francisco property in 1905 was worth between $30,000 and $40,000.

MIKE SULLIVAN NEW CHAMPION.

Defeats Honey Mellody in Twenty Rounds.

Twin Proves the Cleverer and Deals Punishment.

Menney Outpoints Murray in Fierce Fight.

Mike (Twin) Sullivan is the new welterweight champion, if Honey Mellody formerly had the right to the title, for he outpointed the latter in twenty rounds of fierce fighting at the Naud Junction Pavilion last night, and inflicted great punishment.

Mellody's face was battered to a pulp, but he made a game fight and forced the issue to the last. He was unable to get through Sullivan's defense with his hard right and left swings, except on few occasions. Meanwhile Sullivan jabbed and uppercut to advantage and took the strength out of his opponent.

The battle again showed the superiority of headwork and of taking advantage of every opportunity, not only of dealing punishment, but of avoiding it. Mellody was willing throughout to mix it, but he could neither draw Sullivan to an opening nor prevent Mike from getting to him, for the Twin guarded at every point and was always ready to slip in his right or left at close quarters.

Sullivan had the advantage in nearly all the rounds in the latter part of the fight. Mellody earned two rounds by hard fighting and by getting his right over to the jaw with telling effect. In the first few rounds he held Sullivan even, but weakened perceptibly under the hard left jabs and ripping uppercuts.

Although it was almost imperceptible to the audience in general, Sullivan's best blow was a tearing uppercut to the chin and mouth. In the nineteenth round one of these drove Mellody's teeth through his under lip. Earlier in the bout Mellody cut the inside of his mouth and bled profusely thereafter. After the fight Mellody was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where he had his injuries dressed, seven stitches being used to sew up the wound.

MELLODY LOOKED THIN.

Mellody appeared to be drawn. Sullivan seemed pounds heavier and towered away above his opponent. Mike was leggy, however, and probably weighed little more. Mellody did not seem acclimated and though he was strong through the greater part of the fight, at times he wabbled perceptibly.

Mellody drew first blood with a long left to the nose in the first round, but thereafter Sullivan did not bear a mark except a slight abrasion on the right side of his forehead. Sullivan had the better of the first round and in the second puffed Mellody's right eye with a hard jab. The third and fourth rounds were even, but in the fifth Mellody got a right to the jaw and body, and with a hard left to the jaw knocked Sullivan down. Then he poked a hard right to the solar plexus and Mike held on to avoid further punishment.

The sixth witnessed a great rally by Sullivan. He landed a left to the face and a right to the jaw and Mellody gave ground for the first time in the fight. The gong rang as the men were in a fierce mix-up, but they did not hear it and Referee Eyton had to part them.

In the seventh and eighth Mellody sent two right swings to the jaw and two hard rights to the stomach, but otherwise did little damage, while Sullivan began to work on Honey's face with his left jab and right uppercut. In the ninth Mellody began to look somewhat weakened and in the tenth Sullivan crossed his right to the jaw and had Mellody staggering and wobbly. He followed it up with a left to the jaw and a hard right uppercut to the same place. Sullivan showed decided advantage and at this point it looked as though he would win.

HIS LAST RALLY.

Thereafter Mellody received the worst of it in every round but the fourteenth, when he caught Sullivan a hard right swing to the jaw and had him groggy. He swung a left to the jaw, but was unable to reach a vital spot during the remainder of the round, and in the fifteenth Sullivan was fresh again. The latter then chopped Mellody's face to pieces with little return, except an occasional long-range right swing to the head and a right or left to the body.

In the seventeenth Sullivan poked a hard right to the jaw and then sent Mellody to the ropes with two stiff lefts to the chin. Mellody responded by a great rally, but was unable to do any damage, and Sullivan blocked all his swings.

Thereafter Mellody tried to land a haymaker, but was unable to connect, while Sullivan chopped away and reduced his face to a pulp. It was easily Sullivan's fight and the decision was cheered.

Mellody has a hard, swinging delivery with either hand, but with a man as clever as Sullivan he was unable to land it. He used little headwork and failed to follow closely his seconds' advice. He swung hard many times, but over-reached and then Sullivan was able to counter with telling effect.

MENNEY BEATS MURRAY.

Eddie Menney received the decision over Dick Murray at the end of ten rounds in the preliminary. It was the old story of clevernes against stamina and courage. Murray had no defense at all and Menney hit him when and where he pleased.

Murray absorbed all sorts of punishment, but kept after Menney so persistently that he tired out the latter and came near reaching him on several occasions with hard right swings. Menney skipped out of danger, however, and kept away from his opponent.

Menney sprained both hands by poking them to his opponent's head, and after the fourth round could do little execution. Murray resembled Jimmy Erwin in style of fighting and ruggedness, and like the latter took a heavy beating at Menney's hands. Menney was not in the best of shape, having trained but three days.

BURNS AND O'BRIEN.

Tommy Burns and Jack O'Brien received tremendous applause. O'Brien was cheered when he announced that the fight with Burns surely would take place.

Upon the advice of the club physician the bout between Jim McDonald and Jake Arnold did not take place. McDonald broke a bone in his arm while training with Mike Sullivan.

Honey Mellody -- Mike (Twin) Sullivan.

EASY MONEY IN SIGHT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, April 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Jack Curley, matchmaker for the Casino Athletic Club of Tonopah, Nev., has offered a purse of $7500 for a fight between Mike Schreck and Bill Squires for Decoration Day at Tonopah. The offer has been accepted by Billy Hogan, manager of Schreck. A telegram has been sent to Squires, making the offer and asking for a reply, which has not been received.

BOSTON'S NEW SCHEME.

HOW TO SECURE FIGHTS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BOSTON, April 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A boxing club, to run strictly for members, is to be opened soon in the vicinity of Copley Square. A building admirably adapted for such a club has been leased and the promoters are to start at once to fit up. Such a club is needed badly in this city and there will be no trouble getting desirable members. Only first-class bouts will be put on.

Ward Quits Baseball.

SPOKANE (Wash.) April 23.—Umpire "Piggy" Ward, the veteran of the Northwestern Baseball League, has started to his home at Scranton, Pa., and is supposed to have quit baseball for good. Ward received a bad shock of 500 volts of electricity last year which shattered his nerves. Ralph Dodd has been chosen in his place as umpire.

WARN BALLOONISTS.

Sky Pilot Hawley Says That Upper Air Currents on Atlantic Coast Are Dangerous.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, April 23.—Allan R. Hawley of New York, who, with Arthur T. Atherholt of Philadelphia, made an eighty-five mile balloon trip from Philadelphia to Matteawan, N. J., yesterday, has issued a warning to aëronauts that they must be careful in making balloon trips near the coast or the ocean will get them. He has observed, he says, that all the upper currents near the coast tend to carry the balloon out to sea. He thinks that the balloonists who are to make ascensions at the Jamestown Exposition should be warned.

Hawley is qualifying for the international balloon races to be held at St. Louis next October. In order to do this he has to make ten ascensions, of which the one of yesterday was the sixth.

ALBANY ROAD RACE.

Supervisors Grant Permission to Have State Highways Closed One Day in September.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ALBANY (N. Y.) April 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Albany Board of Supervisors today granted an application of the Albany Automobile Club to close the State roads extending in a circuit south of this city, a distance of nineteen miles, on the afternoon of September 14, when the club will hold an amateur automobile cup tournament. The route will be traversed five times, making ninety-five miles. Only automobiles from Albany, Troy, Saratoga and Schnectady can enter. Manufacturers and cars having a pressure of over forty-five horse power will be barred.

ATHLETIC EXHIBITION.

Students of Pomona College Will Make an Effort to Wipe Out Debt of Their Association.

CLAREMONT, April 23.—Director A. Claude Braden of Renwick Gymnasium has arranged an evening of athletics and gymnastics on May 4, for the benefit of the Pomona College Associated Student debt.

Among the features of the evening will be a fencing match between Harry W. Maloney, champion fencer of the Pacific Coast and H. C. Berk, ex-amateur champion of New York, and bag punching by Coast champion Harry Gammon.

The Pasadena Y.M.C.A. Gymnastic team, State champions, will give an exhibition of their work, as will also the Loftus Brothers, the midget tumblers from Pasadena.

Among the other events programmed are a broadsword match between Maloney and Berk, a wrestling contest between George and Claude Braden; electrical illuminated club swinging by Claude Braden and music by the Pomona College Glee Club.

The college baseball team will play their first intercollegiate game of the season on the Occidental campus, on April 29.

Bad for Redlands.

SAN BERNARDINO, April 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Citrus Belt League of High School athletics at Pomona has passed resolutions prohibiting league teams playing with Redlands. This takes away the trophies Redlands won and changes the May meeting place from Redlands to Ontario.

ABE ATTELL IS CHESTY.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. LOUIS, April 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Star-Chronicle this evening prints the following communication, received today from Abe Attell:

"I understand Robson has made nearly $6000 since he has been in this country. To show that I am confident that I am his master, you can say that I will wager $5000 of my own money that I can stop him inside of twenty rounds. If I do, let him hand me over $5000, if he thinks so highly of his ability. That will leave him $1000 as a nest to start a roadhouse on the other side. Mark me, Robson does not like body punching, and that is where I will reach him hard and often."

MANY TENNIS PLAYERS ENTER.

OJAI TOURNEY PROMISES SOME VERY GOOD SPORT.

Bell, Sinsabaugh and Miss Florence Sutton Are Among the Experts That Will Compete—Contest for Girls of Preparatory Schools Will Be Minus Local Women.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

VENTURA, April 23.—The High School tennis cracks of Southern California will this year have a free and open field in the big fight for the Farnum cup, which is a feature trophy each year at the Nordhoff tennis tournament. Hal Gorham of Los Angeles, who has won the cup twice in succession for the Los Angeles High, will not this year be in the playing. As Gorham is a most dangerous man in a tennis fight, the other interscholastic players will not be sorry that he is out.

The tournament, which begins on Thursday morning, April 25, and continues until and including Saturday, will show the following entries for the High School cup: Lantz and Champion of Colton; Mallory and Argabrite of Ventura; Canterbury and Sanborn of Redlands; Cobbe and Roehr of Pasadena; Mace and Lowery of the Occidental school; Butcher and Edwards of Santa Barbara; Dows and Clayton of Long Beach; Gardner and Crane of Santa Paula; Rogers and Dawson of Los Angeles; Hill of Thatcher; Cearne and Dole of Riverside; Nebycher and Cawston of Harvard School; Keyes and Morgan of San Diego; Pratt of Ontario; Lawrence and Roberts of San Fernando; H. Barker and Horrel of Throop; D. Shutt and Fogel of Santa Monica; Ferguson and Blackwood of Hollywood and Haley of the Polytechnic.

In the all-comers men's singles there is expected some fine sport this year, as there will be good players present from the North, as well as from the south end of the State. In this class last year Carl Gardner of San Francisco came down and captured the cup and championship, and will again be on hand this week to defend his honors. That Southern California will make a strong effort to defeat him goes without saying. Those who will participate in the games for this trophy this year are Stringham, Edwards, Barker, Keeney, Greene, Variel, Dana, Haley, Colton, Taylor, Simons, Fink, Gay, Blackwood, S. McAndrew, Scott, Bell, Dawson, Sinsabaugh, McDuffie, Gardner, Morgan, Lacey, Horrel, Fogel, Daniels, Shutt, Keyes, Bacon, Crane and S. McAndrew. In the list will be noticed many notable players in this end of the State, and it is evident that if Gardner takes the prize this year he will have to play for it. Last year he beat such cracks as Sinsabaugh, Wayland, Griffin of San Francisco and others.

A larger crowd than ever is expected to attend the tournament this year, which is the twelfth in the history of tennis at Nordhoff.

LOCAL PLAYERS GOING.

The local players who will take in the Ojai tournament will leave this afternoon for Nordhoff, the real good ones who will represent this part of Southern California being Bell, Sinsabaugh, Detrich, Lacey and Florence Sutton. Bell and Sinsabaugh will play together in the doubles for men, and Keeney will be in the mixed doubles with Florence Sutton. The features of the tourney will be the singles and doubles for men and women and the mixed doubles. There will be a singles and doubles tourney for girls of preparatory schools, which will not include High School. This cuts out Miss Hutton of the Los Angeles High School and Miss Brown of Polytechnic.

NEW BOWLING RECORD.

New Jersey Star Does Wonderful Work in Competition in New York Tournament.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, April 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Lee R. John, the Newark star in the Greater New York individual tournament, made a world's record average of 240 pins for eight games in a series against Otto Helitas at the Oxford alleys, Newark, last night. His score was: 173, 241, 265, 211, 268, 244, 245, 275.

JOCKEY REINSTATED.

J. Martin Restored to Judges' Favor After Being Denied a License Ten Days Ago.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, April 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Jockey Jack Martin, who was denied a license to ride by the stewards of the Jockey Club ten days ago, was restored to favor today, and was granted permission to ride. Henceforth he will guide the horses owned by Timothy Sullivan, Frank Farrell and D. C. Johnson.

NOLAN JOINS WITH O'BRIEN.

Billie Nolan closed a deal yesterday whereby he becomes manager for Jack O'Brien, and hereafter he will handle his affairs. He also has become business manager for Bowker, the English featherweight, and probably will manage him in the proposed English carnival to be held the last week of August.

Nolan expects to leave San Francisco today for Los Angeles to take charge of O'Brien's interests in the latter's fight with Burns.

TWO DAYS OF AUTO RACING.

GOOD PROGRAMME OFFERED AT SAN BERNARDINO.

Barney Oldfield Will Appear Both Saturday and Sunday in Trials for World's Records—Cupid Event at Four Miles Should Furnish Very Interesting Sport.

Local automobile men are looking forward with a great deal of interest to the races that are set for San Bernardino on Saturday and Sunday, and well they may, for in all probability there will be several records broken. The track of the railroad town is a very fast one, and it will be put in the best possible condition for the coming events. It is understood that a number of machines will be sent down from this city for the races, and a big crowd of auto enthusiasts will attend from Los Angeles and vicinity.

The entrance fee will be $10 for each event, and the entry list will close on Friday with Robert Curtis, No. 223 Orange street, Redlands. All entrants who start will have $9 of their entrance money returned to them.

The programme is as follows:

Saturday, April 27: One-mile race for runabouts costing $1000 or less; valuable cup to winner. Four-mile race—Oldfield and Seibel, best two out of three. Three-mile race for touring cars costing $1400 or under; valuable cup to winner. One mile exhibition races, Oldfield and Seibel will each try to break the world's record of 51 4-5 sec., made by Oldfield at Lakeside, April 21. Twenty-five-mile race for stock cars carrying four passengers, weighing at least 600 pounds, fully equipped; valuable trophy presented by A. C. Denman.

Sunday, April 28: Five-mile race for stock cars costing $3000 or over, carrying four passengers, weighing at least 600 pounds. Cars fully equipped; valuable cup to winner. One-mile exhibition, Oldfield and Seibel will attempt to break the world's record of 51 4-5 sec., established by Oldfield at Lakeside, April 21. Cupid race, open to any stock car, distance four miles, contestant to pick up a lady passenger at completion of every mile. Handsome trophy to winner. Four-mile race, Barney Oldfield and Bruno Seibel. Ten-mile exhibition, Barney Oldfield will go after every record from one to ten miles.

RACING AT OAKLAND.

Long Shot Romps in Easily Ahead of Favorite Reservation and Skins Form Players.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—Dolinda, a 15 to 1 chance, proved the surprise at Oakland today when he beat a fair field in the fourth. Reservation was a heavily-played favorite, but was badly ridden by Buchanan and failed to get in the money. Well-played horses won the other events. In the second, May Amelia, when leading, ran out, carrying La Rosa with her. Miss Officious got through on the rail and won. Results:

Three and a half furlongs: Baboo, 110 (Fischer,) 3 to 2, won; Marinna, 106 (W. Kelley,) 15 to 1, second; Charay, 105 (Goodchild,) 10 to 1, third; time, 0:42 4-5. Herives, Vanna, Last Go, Lillia, Sadie H., Bavieca, Janet L., Rio Vista and Mein Liebling also ran.

Six furlongs: Miss Officious, 110 (W. Kelly,) 12 to 5, won; La Rose, 110 (Sandy,) 4 to 1, second; May Amelia, 110 (Graham,) 5 to 2, third; time, 1:15 1-5. Golden, Sentiment, Winsome Waya, Poinsetta, Eulalie B., Azusa, Viola B., Sinaloa II, Miss Turtle, and Christmastide also ran.

INSANE FROM LOVE.

Gardner, Strapped to Cot in City Jail, Raves Plaintively in His Delirium.

Love for a woman whose name, he says, is Marguerite Maloney, has driven Alexander Abbott insane. Raving in delirium, he was taken yesterday to Central Station and will be kept in jail until he becomes more rational. According to the story related by Abbott during lucid intervals, he worked as a gardener for Miss Maloney, who, he says, is the owner of the Hotel Washington at Parkville, N. Y. Abbott came to Los Angeles recently and has worked here as a gardener. He lived for a time in Brooklyn.

While walking along South Broadway yesterday morning, Abbott espied the object of his affection. At least, he saw a woman who so closely resembled his ideal that he at once approached and spoke to the lady. She became alarmed and fled. Abbott pursued her and ran into the arms of a policeman.

Thwarted in his desire to capture the woman, Abbott breathed out his wrath and declared the police are keeping him from his sweetheart. He refused to be comforted and it was necessary to strap him to a cot.

"That was Marguerite!" he wailed. "She always was too proud to speak to me and now she has turned me down and I'm here in prison."

Physicians say the attack of dementia which has seized Abbott is only temporary and that he can be released in a few days.

GIRLS RESENT MIRROR ORDER.

SILENTLY REVOLT AT PUBLIC PRINTER'S MANIFESTO.

Four Hundred Young Women Swallow Pride and Breathe Anathemas Against Horrid Boss Who Ordered Their Dainty Ornaments on Ugly Print Shop Walls Removed.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, April 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The 400 young women employed in the government printing office left that building this afternoon in the midst of a miserable rain swallowing their pride in great distasteful gulps, and breathing deep-chested anathemas against Public Printer Stillings, who has had the temerity to order all the mirrors in the big print-shop removed.

The silent revolt of these young women has grown in volume until it has reached a point where feminine patience has ceased to be a virtue and some sort of a campaign is to be inaugurated to force the "pp" as he is called, and always with the use of small letters, to rescind his attack on woman's vanity. There was talk today of appealing to members of Congress.

The fad among the employés for decorating the particular portions of the building they happen to occupy had grown to such proportions that all sorts of fancy pictures, calendars, flags, looking glasses and other little tid-bits were found everywhere until some parts of the building had the appearance of an impromptu boudoir. An order was issued that from the walls everything must be removed save such matters only as pertained to the public business.

DOUBTS AUTHENTICITY.

Archeologists Say Fragments of Marble May Not Belong to Forum Julian.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ROME, April 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Prof. Boni, archaeologist, doubts whether fragments of marble presented by J. P. Morgan to the New York Metropolitan Museum of Art belong to the Forum Julian. He admits, however, that possibly they do, as the site was excavated clandestinely in the last century. The correspondent is informed that the fine arts department has requested the New York Museum to furnish casts of the marbles, with a view to ascertaining by means of comparisons whether they are genuine or forgeries.

HEAVY SNOW IN MONTANA.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

MISSOULA (Mont.) April 23.—Western Montana is experiencing a severe blizzard tonight and snow is falling rapidly. On the Flathead Indian reservation the snow is already six inches deep, but the precipitation has not been so great in the vicinity of Missoula. Unless the temperature should fall considerably there will be no damage to the fruit trees in western Montana.

IN BRAVE MAN'S MEMORY.

HAVANA, April 23.—Many Spaniards here, including members of the Spanish Club, have obtained Gov. Magoon's permission to erect at El Caney a monument to Gen. Vara del Rey, who defended that place against the Americans. Gen. Vara del Rey was wounded several times and forced to leave the field, but directed the movement of his troops from a stretcher which was placed almost upright by his orders. He died on the battlefield.

STILL WRANGLING.

U.S.C.-ST. VINCENT SQUABBLE.

The Saints will cross bats with the Los Angeles High School team Wednesday afternoon. This will be St. Vincent's first game since the return from the North.

On account of the sudden change of climate, which affected the pitchers, and the strenuous work, which the Saints were not used to, the local collegians did not make the showing against the northern teams that they expected. Nevertheless, they have returned with the determination to try and wrest the southern championship from Occidental. Last year the Highlanders were the only team in the South which defeated the Saints, and from the looks of the Occidental lineup this year it seems that they have practically the same team. This is the team that is worrying the Saints the most.

There seems to be a disagreement between St. Vincent's and U.S.C. in regard to the game which was to be played next Saturday. In an interview with Coach Haggerty Tuesday he said that in regard to the game with U.S.C., Manager Garcia of the University team expressed the wish of holding out two dates, April 27 and May 18, for the annual games between the two teams. Manager Garcia further stated that he would make these two dates final, providing that St. Vincent held them out. This happened at least two months ago, and as yet the university manager has not shown up; furthermore, in a talk with Manager Garcia, he said that the U.S.C. team did not wish to meet St. Vincent.

In the past three years U.S.C. has defeated St. Vincent in track events and lost in both baseball and basketball, and the only football game played resulted in a tie.

"St. Vincent's is anxious to meet all comers in baseball," says Coach Haggerty. "U.S.C. is one of the big four in the South, and, therefore, the Saints would like to meet them, as long as we have played every college of any standing in California, especially since we have held the dates open and since they have offered no excuse whatsoever for the postponement of the games. Furthermore, in order that there will be no hitch in the schedule as arranged between Occidental, Pomona, U.S.C. and ourselves, I certainly hope the game will come off Saturday, as expected."

Capt. McCann of the Saints declares that as the boys have put in such hard practice, and have been looking forward to the game with U.S.C., he would like to see the game played.

So it is up to U.S.C. whether the games will be played or not. As the situation now stands the intercollegiate game for next Saturday is very doubtful.

WHITTIER BASEBALL.

The Whittier College baseball team will meet the crack team of the Whittier Athletic Association this afternoon ina practice game on Hadley field at Whittier. The Quakers have been practicing hard since the game with the U.S.C. Medics and hope to land another victory today.

Another shake up has been made in the college team, Holton being placed on third base and Thomas in right field. Holton showed up fairly well in practice, but if he does not make good in the game this afternoon Coach Thompson will remove him and give Mills a chance at third. Mills has never played the infield but should make good.

Captain Perry probably will pitch only part of the game, today, as Coach Thompson wants to save him for the contest with Occidental next Saturday.

The line-up will be:

Athletic Association: Perry, catcher; Nnunmaker, pitcher; Wilson, short stop; Weed, first base; Woodard, second base; Smith, third base; Castor, left field; Cole, center field; Johnson, right field.

U.S.C. Victorious.

The U.S.C. ball team beat the Los Angeles High School team yesterday on Bovard field by a score of 6 to 2 in what was said to be the best amateur game played here this season. The batteries were McKnight and Burek for U.S.C. and Reynolds and Mitchell for Los Angeles High.

Henderson Relents.

Pitcher Henderson, formerly of the Portland team, who refused to sign with the Portlands and jumped with Catcher Donahue to the Stockton State League team, will join the Portland aggregation in San Francisco on Monday. Donahue is back with the team and Henderson and big Mac have come to terms

Ridgewood Park

A HANDSOME, SPACIOUS PRIVATE RESIDENCE PARK BEAUTIFULLY LOCATED IN THE

WILSHIRE BOULEVARD DISTRICT

On elevated ground, with a most pleasing view of the mountains and the city. The smallest residence site in Ridgewood Park is 60x170, many range from 70x170 to 200x170, and twelve sites contain two and one-half acres each.

The protection to home builders is carefully arranged, so that in different sections of the Park houses will cost at least $4000, $5000, and, on the two-acre lots, at least $15,000. All streets will have petrolithic pavement, most satisfactory known for residence districts.

Several prominent citizens have already secured residence sites in Ridgewood Park, on which homes costing from $10,000 to $25,000 will soon be erected.

The West Sixth street car line, now finished and in operation to the southeast corner of Ridgewood Park, will run along the entire south line of the Park, on West Fourth street.

At present we are authorized to offer only a few building sites, but these are in one of the finest parts of Ridgewood Park, and can be had at prices below those of surrounding property.

The location, natural advantages, and expensive improvements are such that home-builders looking for sites in the Wilshire district, and investors, have in Ridgewood Park a notable opportunity to secure property with an absolutely assured future.

To see Ridgewood Park, telephone us for an automobile appointment, or take West Sixth street car to the Park. Call on us for interesting particulars.

$4000. $4000. $4000.

LOCATION— The owner of this beautiful bungalow is forced to sell at a sacrifice and is offering this house way below its actual value. Very finely located on Hobart ave., amid fine surroundings.

LIVING-ROOM— The living-room, which extends across the entire front of house, is unusually large and is finished with beamed ceiling, oak floors and open fireplace with mantel.

DINING-ROOM— Built with abundance of large, artistic windows, which admit plenty of sunlight and make the room cheerful and attractive—handsome built-in buffet with side lights.

KITCHEN— The kitchen is large and convenient and opens onto a rear screen porch, fitted with laundry, trays, toilet and other conveniences; two pantries.

BEDROOMS— There are three bedrooms, with polished floors, commodious closets, white enameled woodwork and daintily tinted walls. A home complete in its appointments and sure to delight—both in construction and price.

HANDSOME MISSION WESTLAKE HOME.

$9500. $9500. $9500.
$9500. $9500. $9500.

LOCATION— This Westlake home is located on fine 100-ft. lot from best Portland cement and steel. A large front porch opens into a fine art-glass and oak entrance.

LIBRARY AND PARLOR— Heavy wood frieze in library; ivory finished woodwork in parlor; both rooms splendidly tinted.

ARTISTIC FEATURES— There are nine large rooms in this house, splendidly fitted with original lighting fixtures. The lower floors are of quarter-sawed oak—the woodwork of antique oak finish; the walls beautifully tinted. A large pressed-brick mantel, with massive shelves, adds comfort and beauty to the first floor.

KITCHEN— There is no more convenient kitchen and pantry to be found than the ones in this superlative home.

SECOND FLOOR— There are five sleeping-rooms and bath, all finished with maple floors. White enameled woodwork and large clothes closets in bedrooms. The owner finds it impossible to live in this home, which was designed especially for him, and has decided to place it on the market at a figure that insures quick selling. See it before it is too late.

If you want something really worth while—something that will steadily increase in value and prove a substantial investment, buy business property. But be sure to buy it in the right section. Washington street affords more opportunities for snappy, sterling business investments than any other cross town street in the city. Note these—
WASHINGTON AND UNION.
$20,000—We offer the southeast corner of Washington and Union ave., 50x150 ft. and partially improved. Priced at a great bargain.
WASHINGTON AND PARK GROVE.
$20,000—Here's another. A vacant southeast corner 62½x125 ft. Really a genuine snap and something you should not fail to look into.
WASHINGTON AND TOBERMAN.
$27,500—This property is located in an unusually splendid locality—close in to Figueroa. Large lot—137½x140 ft. on a southwest corner. Let us show it to you early.
WASHINGTON AND BONSALLO.
$62,500—This is a very large southeast corner—125x196 ft. Well improved. We say without hesitation that this site will, in a short time, sell at several thousand dollars advance over the present price. Buy it NOW and pocket the profit.
MAGNIFICENT HOTEL SITE.
$65,000—Without exception, this is the best, close in hotel site in the city today. Has a splendid frontage of 194x135x137 ft. on three streets, Kip, Orange and Ingraham sts. With nominal improvements, this property yields a handsome income at present. Substantial buildings erected thereon would mean the most productive income property in Los Angeles. Investigate.

$50 LOOK $50

We have 160 acres of fine alfalfa, grain and fruit land, 40 acres now in alfalfa, balance in wheat, all fenced and cross-fenced; hog-proof; situated on railroad, main wagon road, 1 mile from school, in the artesian belt; this is near the famous Page & Martin ranch, which yielded $60 per acre last year in grapes; we can sell this in tracts of 40 acres. If you want a home you had better get it quick. See ENFIELD BROS., 219 W. First st., sole agents. Broadway 5014. Remember, this is worth $100 per acre.

$50 PER ACRE.

FOR SALE—

A REAL BARGAIN.

298 ACRES. 294 ACRES.

For this week, we have an option on this tract at $45 an acre, which is from $25 to $50 an acre less than any land can be bought for in the neighborhood, and is a price at which a person will be able to realize a large advance on the investment within the next few months. It is located in West Riverside, practically all level, bordered on one side with the finest orange groves in the country, on the other by alfalfa ranches. Railroad runs along on one side of it. Packing-house, stores, fine schools and all conveniences right at hand. Water enough to irrigate double the amount of land can be developed right on the property. It is fine orange or alfalfa land, and a sure enough investment, as it will sell for $90 to $100 an acre within the next year. You'll have to see us at once for our option expires this week, and then it will cost you $80 an acre to get it.

THE WIDOW'S MIGHT.

"BILLY," said the red-headed man in the corner, after the cigars were lighted and the usual commonplaces exchanged; "whatever became of that pie trust you were interested in up in Rochester?"

"Billy" smiled grimly, and then gazed thoughtfully out of the window, but made no reply.

"Well," said the red-headed man, impatiently, "is the question painful or embarrassing? If it is I'll withdraw it."

"It's both, old man, it's both," answered Billy, "but you needn't mind about withdrawing it. "I'll tell you about it. You remember there were four bakeries there making a specialty of pies. All of 'em were doing pretty well, and all of 'em would still be making money, no doubt, if they'd let well enough alone. But they all got greedy and commenced cutting one another's throats. You never saw such lively competition in your life as there was there for awhile. They cut prices until pies were cheaper than bread, and everybody in town got to eating them three times a day just as regular as they drank their coffee. Then they commenced economizing on materials, and quality got down as low as the prices. Result was, of course, all Rochester was suffering with stomach trouble, and the drug stores did a bigger business than they'd ever known before. Finally the pie competition got so hot that they gave away a bottle of pepsin tablets with every order, and they'd probably been throwing in life-insurance policies if an enterprising promoter hadn't come along about this time, knocked their heads together, and organized a pie trust that was a crackerjack. It was capitalized for $1,000,000, and the four pie concerns and the promoter took 60 per cent. of the stock, which was divided into 100,000 shares of $10 par value each. They put 40,000 shares of treasury stock on the market, and to every subscriber for one share of stock they agreed to deliver free a pie a day for thirty days, besides holding out the most alluring prospects of fat dividends. By that time Rochester had acquired the pie habit, and people just naturally fell over one another to get stock in the Consolidated Pastry Company. They gobbled up those 40,000 shares in ten days, and then for the next thirty days they gobbled free pies. 'Oh it was pitiful, 'most a whole cityful feasted and groaned. I was one of them. Then the octopus showed its cloven hoof——"

"Hold on a minute, Billy," interrupted the red-headed man, "you're getting your natural history and your supernatural history tangled up. Octopuses don't have cloven hoofs."

"This one did," insisted Billy. "I tell you it had a cloven hoof, and not only that, it had a spiked tail. I guess I know. It kept me every night for a month. Well, as I was saying, at the end of thirty days it wiggled its tail in the public face and at one jump raised the price of pies from 5 cents up to a quarter apiece. And it didn't make 'em any better, either. There was a great outpouring of righteous indignation, but it didn't do a particle of good. The octopus just put its fingers to its nose and says: 'You takes my pies at my prices or you don't get any. See?'

"Well, just about that time the widow O'Halloran come to the rescue. You've heard about the widow's might? Yes? Well, the widow O'Halloran was it. She was young and buxom. She had hair and eyes as black as sloes, as the saying is, though I don't know what a sloe is, and never saw anybody who did. Anyhow, they were black and they sparkled—her eyes, I mean—they sparkled like—like dew-drops on a June rose. That ain't bad, is it? Like dew-drops on a June rose, and the rose was in her cheeks. Her voice was like the bells of Shannon, and——"

"What the dickens has all this got to do with the pie trust?" put in the red-headed man.

"Everything, everything. You just hold your horses now until I get to the point. I've said enough to put you onto the fact that Mrs. O'Halloran was pretty. She was also as smart as chain lightning, and she kept a piece of the original Blarney stone to sharpen her wits on. Moreover she could make pies, pies that would literally go into delicious nothingness in your mouth and so light you could eat a dozen of them without wanting to join the church. She could make any kind, but lemon pies were her main cinch. Gee! She'd never made any for sale until the trust put on the screws and then the Widow O'Halloran saw opportunity coming her way. She grabbed it by the forelock and went into the pie business. Inside of a month everybody was asking everybody else, 'Have you et any o' Mrs. O'Halloran's pies?' and strong men instead of saying 'let's have a drink,' would say 'let's go an' have a slice of the widow's lemon pies.' It's a fact. People had to stand in line to wait their turn, and the widow had to hire a husky man to do nothing else but carry her money to the bank.

"Well, of course the trust got sore. The public was beginning to put its thumb to its nose and wiggle its fingers at the octopus. Something had to be done. So the board of directors held a meeting. We must break her up, declared the general manager, and every one of the directors except one said 'all right, go ahead with the breaking.' First they cut prices. The widow's business got bigger. Then they cut some more and the widow had to hire another man to carry her receipts to the bank. All the time Consolidated Pastry stock was going down until it was worth hardly more than waste paper. The directors held another meeting and the general manager suggested that they employ somebody to dope her lemons. Three of the directors—there were five of them—favored the idea at first, they were that desperate, but the director who had been opposed to the fight all along denounced the proposition as criminal as well as foolish. 'I move,' he says, 'that one of our number be appointed a committee to conduct friendly negotiations with Mrs. O'Halloran with a view to the purchase of her plant or its incorporation with our own.' After a hot fight the motion carried and the director who made it—his name was Morrison—was appointed the committee, he being the only single man on the board and a good looker besides.

"Well, Morrison he put on his best clothes that evening, stuck a carnation in his button hole and sashayed down to see the widow. She was as nice as one of her own pies and gave him a slice o' lemon that put him at peace with all the world. They talked, or rather she talked, for two hours and the director had got half-way home before it occurred to him that he hadn't said a word to the widow about business. Then he did some pretty hard thinking, and when he went to bed along about daylight he was pretty well satisfied with himself. The next night he called on the widow again and this time he did talk business. No, Mrs. O'Halloran said she didn't want to sell out. She was doing pretty well, thank you. But—and then her eyes and her smile and her Blarney worked a spell on Morrison.

"The committee didn't report next day or the next. When approached the committe shook its head gloomily, hinted that it was a pretty hard proposition, but he was still at work on it. Things went along this way for a couple o' weeks. All the time the trust business was getting worse and it was losing money hand over fist. The other four directors kept a getting more and more impatient and each of them decided to do a little negotiating on his own hook. So one at a time they sneaked around to Mrs. O'Halloran's, listened to the music of her brogue and filled up on lemon pies. To call once was to call again, and for awhile there the widow was entertaining a trust director every evening, each one thinking he was the only one on the spot. They all felt sure about it when one day each got a private and personal note from the widow extending an urgent invitation to dine with her that evening.

The octopus nearly had a fit when it got to the O'Halloran house. All the directors were on hand, every blamed one except Morrison, glaring at the rest and wondering what they were doing there. But the widow's nimble tongue kept them from personal violence until they got around to black coffee. Then the widow rose up with a glass of champagne in her hand.

"'Gintilmin,' she says, 'let us drink to the hilth o' the Consolidated Pastry Company. And gintilmin,' she added, checking the glasses already on the way, 'I'm sure yez will drink it with more pleasure, for yez are all gallint gintilmin, when I tell yez that the Widow O'Halloran is the Consolidated Pastry Company.'

"Then she put the glass to her lips and winked at Morrison, but the other directors stood with their mouths open.

"'Gentlemen,' put in Morrison, 'it seems that instead of the trust swallowing Mrs. O'Halloran, Mrs. O'Halloran has swallowed the trust. I find that our fair and charming hostess now owns 30 per cent. of the company's stock, which, owing to the remarkable popularity of her lemon pies she has been able to secure at a nominal figure. I find also, gentlemen, that each one of you, without consultation with the others, has signed over to Mrs. O'Halloran voting control of his stock for a period of five years.' Here the four directors sat down with a dull thud. 'And, gentlemen,' went on Morrison, 'not wishing to be behind any of you in gallantry, I have done the same. Now that we understand one another let us drink health and long life to the new boss of the Consolidated, the queen of pie makers, the Widow O'Halloran and—the future Mrs. Morrison.'

"Well, old man," concluded Billy, "that's what became of the pie trust. It's still running, but the former Mrs. O'Halloran is the whole thing. It's turning out the finest pies on earth under her direction; is paying regular dividends and the stock is worth thirty a share. I owned two hundred shares and I sold out to the widow, during the slump at 50 cents. That's why I weep."

DON'T PUTIT OFF LONGER.

Get Rid of That Indigestion at Once by Using Mi-o-na.

Either through slackness or carelessness hundreds of people slowly poison themselves by chronic indigestion. By neglecting to cure at once any sluggishness of the important organs of digestion the system is filled with fermenting and decaying food that results in sick headaches, heartburn, bad taste in the mouth, coated tongue, specks before the eyes, sleeplessness, nervous troubles and the many other symptoms that are the direct result of indigestion.

The want of a perfectly safe yet effective cure for indigestion and stomach troubles in their many forms was felt up to the time of the successful investigations that resulted in the production of Mi-o-na stomach tablets. They cure quickly the worst cases of indigestion, and the pain and distress which are often felt after meals disappear in a very few days—such is the wonderful curative power of Mi-o-na.

The old-fashioned medicines for stomach troubles merely digest the food, while Mi-o-na strengthens the digestive organs so that they soon become able to care for the food that is eaten.

We absolutely agree that your money will be refunded should you buy a 50c box of Mi-o-na stomach tablets and not be satisfied with the results. Mi-o-na is sold by druggists everywhere, or will be sent by mail on receipt of price, 50 cents. Booth's Mi-ona Company, Buffalo, N. Y.

NO REUNION THIS SUMMER.

ROUGH RIDERS WILL WAIT FOR PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT.

Special Ceremonies to Attend Unveiling of O'Neill Statue in July. Celebration to Follow—Odd Fellows Elect Officers—Negro Plays Cards for His Life.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

PRESCOTT (Ariz.) April 22.—There will be no reunion of the Association of Roosevelt's Rough Riders at Prescott this summer, in connection with the unveiling of Borahlum's equestrian statue of Capt. William O. O'Neill. The unveiling will be held, with all ceremony, and especial guests of the city will be all Rough Riders who may attend, but the general meeting of the association has been abandoned for the year, or postponed.

There is a bare possibility that the reunion will be held in Oklahoma City, at the time of the session of the national encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans, and there is a suggestion also that it may be held at Norfolk, Va., some time during the Jamestown Exposition. It has been agreed, however, that Prescott is to have the succeeding encampment of the Rough Riders' Association, and with that assurance the local committee has had to be content.'

The reasons for abandoning the plans already made are set forth in the resolutions, passed by the local committee: "Whereas, it appears to this committee that, owing to the impossibility of President Roosevelt's attendance upon the reunion of the Roosevelt Rough Riders' Association, which was to have been held in this city in the year 1907, there seems to be a doubt of the probable attendance, and whereas, it is the desire of the citizens of Prescott that the reunion held here shall be as successful as any previously held; therefore, be it resolved, that the Executive Council of the Roosevelt Rough Riders' Association be requested to postpone the Prescott reunion of the regiment until such time as it may be possible for President Roosevelt to be present as the guest of the city of Prescott and the Territory of Arizona."

It is hoped that all Rough Riders in the Southwest will be present at the unveiling. When the regiment was organized 220 men were recruited in Arizona. Fifty died in Cuba or later of disease incurred in the service, and of the balance it is believed that hardly one hundred could be found in the Territory at the present time.

The dedication of the monument will be upon July 3, and a three days' celebration will follow. There will be a parade on the 3d, with prominent military features and with hundreds of

That these vessels had to stand there several hours waiting for the collector, would not have been so objectionable had they all been neat and tightly-closed vessels, but they must have been embarrassing to persons who receive callers prior to 10 o'clock in the forenoon.

All along California street, west of Hill, the conditions were very bad, both curbs being literally lined with the same description of overflowing receptacles. In front of one apartment-house were thirteen, and but one of them was covered.

A large section of the city, beyond the hill in the northwest, showed but a few covered receptacles, and general carelessness in the handling of the garbage and the inspectors say that there are others.

SHINING EXAMPLE.

Contrast this with the handsome block on West Adams street, west of Hoover, of which a view is here shown. See the four neat, covered galvanized cans, which stand on the lawns, and imagine how different the scene would be were these changed to filthy old boxes, pots or pans, overflowing with kitchen offal. This picture of West Adams street is just what the ordinance requires of every other street in the city, and it is what the city officials have started a fresh campaign to accomplish.

The condition is bad enough at any time, but just now, when we are to entertain thousands of visitors from every city of any consequence in the United States, it is deplorable. Imagine how the floral parade would appear passing along a street whose curbs were decorated with such a festering nuisance.

The inspectors are making a thorough investigation and taking the name and number of the owner of every garbage receptacle that does not conform, in a fair measure, to the requirements of the ordinance. Many of those examined yesterday would have passed inspection had they been covered, but their owners may look for a visit from the inspector.

Every citizen of Los Angeles owes it to himself and to his city to give immediate attention to this garbage matter, and supply himself with a covered can of some description. Then after the can has been secured, instruct those who handle it, to remove it from the street immediately after it has been emptied. If this is done, all complaints about garbage being a nuisance will cease at once, and everybody will be happier, the city cleaner, healthier and the atmosphere purer.

A little hint about the care of a garbage can will not be amiss. The Health Office besides advising washing the can out every time it is emptied recommends that a piece of paper be placed in the bottom and sufficient kerosene poured in to moisten the paper. When it is emptied by the collector, it will then be empty, instead of having a lot of filth clinging to the bottom, and there will be no signs of insect life in the can.

It is especially desired to bring about the desired reform along the streets traversed by railways, at once, so that when the Shriners and other Fiesta visitors take their early morning trips to the beaches or interurban points, their nostrils may not be afflicted with a stench that would have assailed them yesterday.

WOULD CLOSE CITY.

Fight in Progress in Whittier to Shut Down Everything on Sundays, Even Newspapers.

WHITTIER, April 23.—Whether Whittier will have its Sunday papers delivered on Monday, take its usual Sunday trolley rides during the week; whether its milk men will cease from their work, its hotels and restaurants close their doors, and its livery men refuse to rent their nags on the first day, is "going to be up to the people," according to present street talk.

The city fathers, having risen in their wrath at being badgered to give to the city a more rigid Sunday-closing ordinance than the one under which it now rests, have declared that if the people want the town closed up tight, they can get it by voting for it.

"But," one of the Councilmen is said to have declared, "there won't be any discrimination. It will be all or nothing. The present ordinance seems to us to be a fair one, but if a greater tightening is desired by the people, they can have it. Only let them understand that the tightening will be general. It ought to be just as much a misdemeanor to run the electric cars or deliver the big Sunday papers on Sunday as to sell a couple of cigars or a sack of tobacco on that day."

The agitation for Sunday closing has stirred the town pretty thoroughly, the real fight being centered around the closing of the tobacco stores of the city. Two of these furnish papers and magazines for their patrons. Both sides declare that the campaign is only just started, and that there will "be things doing" before it is settled.

MRS. C. E. FINK

HEALTH OF WOMEN

In this nineteenth century to keep up with the march of progress every power of woman is strained to its utmost, and the tax upon her physical system is far greater than ever.

In the good old-fashioned days of our grandmothers few drugs were used in medicines. They relied upon roots and herbs to cure weaknesses and disease, and their knowledge of roots and herbs was far greater than that of women today.

It was in this study of roots and herbs that Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., discovered and gave to the women of the world a remedy more potent and efficacious than any combination of drugs.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is an honest, tried and true remedy of unquestionable therapeutic value.

This medicine made from native roots and herbs contains no narcotics or other harmful drugs and today holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases of any medicine the world has ever known, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the laboratory at Lynn, Mass., which testify to its wonderful value.

Mrs. C. E. Fink, of Carnegie, Pa., writes:—Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—"I wish every suffering woman would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and write to you for advice. It has done me a world of good and what it has accomplished for me I know it will do for others."

When women are troubled with Irregularities, Displacements, Ulceration, Inflammation, Backache, Nervous Prostration, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Out of her vast volume of experience she probably has the very knowledge that will help your case.

MINES AND MINING.

CALIFORNIA'S BLACK SANDS.

STATE MINERALOGIST ISSUES BULLETIN ON THEM.

He Maintains That Attempts to Extract Iron Are Fist Failures, but There Are Gold Values—Mr. Aubury Interested in Desert's Water—The Chamber of Mines.

The State Mineralogical Bureau has issued bulletin No. 45, entitled "The Auriferous Black Sands of California." It deals first with the history of these deposits that were found first in 1851 at Gold Bluff, Humboldt county, and later created a great excitement on the Fraser River in British Columbia.

From the close of the latter excitement until 1893 no attention was paid to these sands. In that year began the efforts to extract iron ore. The researches made by Dr. David T. Day of the United States Geological Survey at the Portland Exposition, and official reports published by him show some very interesting experiments that were successful so far as they went, but, the State Mineralogist maintains, failed to develop any practical results so far as commercial values are concerned. Many so-called inventions have appeared whose promoters have claimed to have solved the problem, but none have done so. Mr. Aubury maintains that what ores could be extracted would never be sufficient to compete with other supplies found even in California.

Values, however, are found in gold and platinum. The bulletin deals with various conditions and sums up by saying:

"Subject to the above limitations as to composition, the properly concentrated heavy sands of California's gravel deposits may be said to carry values (gold) from $5 to $200 per ton, and probably average near $40 per ton. Well-authenticated but rare instances occur, however, where concentrates from drift mines on deep-gravel channels have exceeded $1000 per ton in value."

Desert Guide Posts.

Mineralogist Aubury writes that he is taking interest in the matter of guide posts for the desert. A long time since he says he had a list published of all the guide posts erected, and their location. All the counties with desert territory, except Los Angeles and San Diego, made application for posts, which the State was to provide, location being left with the Supervisors. He says he has continually urged them to act. He will take the matter up and ascertain if there are any posts still awaiting distribution.

New Directors Chose...

At the meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Mines yesterday afternoon H. Z. Osborne and A. Barnwell presented their resignations as directors owing to pressure of private business. J. A. Armitage, who is interested in Nevada mines and George Fitch, of the Mitchell Mining Company, were elected as their successors. Mr. Fitch was also admitted to membership at the same meeting.

A committee on investigation and reports on mining properties was appointed to consider methods of arranging for registration of mines. The members are as follows: Roi Xing, chairman; J. A. Armitage, C. M. Shannon and E. W. Gilmore.

Seventeen new members were admitted. Of these one is a resident of Goldfield and one is from Daggett, the balance being Los Angeles men, firms and corporations. One national bank, the Citizens', is included. The membership is thus growing every day, and includes all classes of business men with widely scattered interests.

WOMAN DOCTOR NEAR DEATH.

POLICE THINK IT IS CASE OF ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

Dr. Mary Green Found Unconscious in Office With Empty Morphine Bottle Beside Her—Life Saved at Receiving Hospital—Has She a Husband?

Dr. Mary Green was found unconscious in her office at No. 634 East Fifth street last night. By her side was an empty bottle that had contained morphine, it is said. The woman was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where the surgeons succeeded in saving her life. The police believe that she attempted self-destruction.

About five months ago Dr. Green rented a suite of rooms on the second floor of the Hotel Avalon on Fifth street. She seemed to have a good practice for a time, but her health began to fail. With the woman was a man, who, the proprietor of the hotel says, claimed to be her husband.

Soon after Dr. Green was taken ill, the man left her, and since that time, the proprietor of the hotel says, the woman has been addicted to the use of drugs. An examination in the hospital last night showed that Dr. Green had frequently used drugs hypodermically. She is said to be in a very weak physical condition.

Recently Dr. Green went to the Emergency and General Hospital, but remained there only a short time. A surgeon notified the proprietor of the hotel that Dr. Green would be apt to take her life, and advised that the county authorities be notified. Letters from Dr. Anderson were turned over to the police.

Some local physicians claim, it is said, that Dr. Green has been unable to show any certificate showing that she is a graduated physician and has a right to practice medicine under the laws of the State.

Some time ago Dr. Green practiced in San Francisco, according to her own statement. Previously she practiced in Chicago and Cincinnati. The police will investigate her case thoroughly.

Dr. Green's relatives live in Detroit, Mich., and an effort is being made to communicate with them.

Govs. Sheldon of Nebraska, Johnson of Minnesota, Peckham of Kentucky and Vardaman of Mississippi, have accepted invitations to send delegates to the National Conference of Trusts called by the National Civic Federation to meet in Chicago in May. Fifteen other Governors had previously accepted invitations.

the wisdom of investing in a live, growing section, where the legitimate demand for homesites is increasing values faster and on a more substantial basis than in any other section of the city. It will also show you that lots in at $500 up on easy terms are the greatest values for the money in this entire section.

THE CITY IN BRIEF

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Poultry Association.

A meeting of the Poultry Breeders' Association will be held at the Chamber of Commerce tomorrow evening, and members are urged to take their ladies.

Free Seeds.

A large consignment of free seeds has been received at the Chamber of Commerce from Senator Frank P. Flint. They are now on exhibtion and will be distributed to those desiring them.

Abbotsford Inn Looted.

Mrs. F. S. Jacott, a guest at the Abbotsford Inn, has reported to the police that, Monday night, a ring set with diamonds and $20 in gold were stolen from her room. The room of C. E. Kemp, No. 453 East Third street, was also entered Monday night and $10 was stolen.

Tonight the Dinner.

Arrangements have been completed for the informal dinner to be given by the merchants and manufacturers at Levy's Café tonight. The affair will begin promptly at 6 o'clock, and plates for about 300 will be laid. Addresses will be delivered by numerous well-known Angelenos.

Falls from Scaffold.

George Rayford, a carpenter employed on a building in course of construction on South Spring street, was injured yesterday by falling from a scaffolding. He sustained severe bruises and was treated at the Emergency Hospital. Later he was taked to his home, No. 284 North Avenue 19. Rayford is employed by E. W. Aaron, a contractor.

Injured in a Runaway.

James McEwan of No. 1327 Compton avenue, a driver for the F. W. Braun Co., was thrown from a wagon and seriously injured last night. The horse became frightened while standing in front of the store, and dashed along Main street. When it collided with a pole, McEwan was thrown out. His head was badly cut and his body bruised.

Successful Revival.

The second meeting of the revival at the First Methodist Episcopal Church at Sixth and Hill streets was held last evening. Thirty-two were saved, making sixty-four in the two nights. "The revival is on," say the leaders, "and all are invited, especially sinners and drunkards. Drunkards are saved instantly."

New Mining Exchange.

Local mining brokers met yesterday afternoon in the Bradbury building and formed a branch of the Miners' Exchange. Rollin J. Van Houghton and J. J. Doran were appointed a committee to confer with the Western Union regarding a private wire which the exchange will lease. I. D. Robinson and F. A. McDonald were appointed a committee on arrangements.

"Shoestring" Mail.

Mail service in the "shoestring" strip has just been increased by the addition of one more mounted carrier at the University substation. This route, which extends from Figueroa street to the line of the Redondo railway and as far south as Sixty-second street, relieves RaF.D. routes Nos. 3 and 4 of some of their work, which has grown burdensome. E. G. Barr is the new carrier.

Good Well in Valley.

J. C. Dysart, owner of 480 acres of the old Maclay Rancho in the San Fernando Valley, has developed a good well at the junction of the San Fernando and Hollywood roads. He drilled 169 feet, and there is sixty-one feet of water in the hole, with seventy-five inches flow. This well is the pioneer in that locality, and since Mr. Dysart struck it, two days ago, five contracts have been made for wells in the immediate vicinity, which will be transformed from cacti patches into strawberry fields.

Orange Grove Sold.

J. B. Coulston and Dr. J. D. Reed have sold the east ten-acre portion of a fifteen-acre lemon grove, situated on the northeast corner of the San Bernardino road and Azusa street, Covina, to L. Ray Topham, and Harry C. Meehan, both of Germantown, Pa., for $8250. The property was purchased last year by the grantors at a somewhat lower figure. The purchasers plan to improve the property with a substantial house, and live on the land. The sale was made through the agency of L. M. Pratt & Co.

Baptist Assembly.

It was decided yesterday at a meeting of the directors of the Baptist Assembly of Southern California, to hold the assembly at Long Beach, August 4 to 18. The following speakers have been secured: Prof. Milton G. Evins, Philadelphia; Dr. J. W. Brougher, Portland, Or.; Dr. William Horace Day and Dr. Eli McClish, Los Angeles; Albert Hatcher Smith, Pasadena; James Edmunds and C. A. Woody, Oregon; A. W. Rider, Oakland; A. A. Burroughs, Los Angeles. The assembly will be held in the First Baptist Church, and President Ward says the outlook is excellent for a good meeting.

Gets Them Together.

Rev. Dana W. Bartlett entertained a number of gentlemen who have been associated with him in the Bethlehem work, at luncheon in the new coffee club at Railroad and Main streets, yesterday. Those present were Dr. William Horace Day, Rev. J. L. Maile, Rev. N. T. Edwards, Rev. G. E. Foster, and workers directly connected with Bethlehem. Plans were discussed for the great international meeting in Temple Auditorium, on Sunday afternoon, May 5, and reports made show the Bethlehem fund to have reached $6000, with the prospect of several large donations this week.

Voters' League Officers.

The annual meeting of the Voters' League, J. B. Irvine's organization, was held yesterday, and the following officers and Executive Committee elected: President, Jesse F. Waterman; first vice-president, J. H. Lapham; second vice-president, Dr. F. S. Barnard; third vice-president, E. C. Lyon; fourth vice-president, J. B. Irvine; secretary, Robert G. Loucks; treasurer, John F. Andrews; Executive Committee, S. C. Wing, Arthur B. Benton, James H. Blanchard, Joseph H. Call, D. H. Steele, Dr. John R. Haynes, R. W. Bailey, William Cleaver, Carl Alex Johnson, Warren H. Frost, Charles A. Goodwin, William L. Buxton, Charles Clark and James B. Threlkeld.

Attention Stanton W.R.C.

SACRIFICE WAS IN VAIN.

Death Claims Daughter to Save Whom Father Gave Up His Law Practice.

Miss Garguerite Blair, the 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blair, died Sunday night at the family home at No. 1831 Western avenue. She had been in poor health since she was 12 years of age, when she suffered from an attack of scarlatina. A year and a half ago Mr. Blair left a lucrative law practice in Chicago and came here in the hope that the change would save the life of his daughter, and for a time it seemed that the girl was much improved by residence here.

The funeral will be held at the home tomorrow at 2 p.m. Dr. Northrop, pastor of the First Baptist Church, of which church and Sunday-school Miss Marguerite was a member, will officiate. Many friends and school mates have extended sympathy and offered floral tributes for the sweet girl whom they hold in loving remembrance.

THOUSANDS STOLEN BY TRUSTED EMPLOYEES.

Boston Store Robbed for Years by Two Clerks—One a Woman Prominent in Church Work, the Other the Head of a Department.

THEFTS of goods and money amounting to $5000 have been discovered in the Boston Store. Miss Margaret Irving and Robert Pierson, who have confessed these thefts, have made restitution and have been discharged. The proprietors of the store lose nothing.

Miss Irving was prominent in Los Angeles religious circles and in missionary work. She was with the store more than ten years. She has left Los Angeles for the East.

Pierson was head of a department. He was trusted implicitly. He stole about $3000 in goods and money. He was given 24 hours to leave the city.

In an interview last night J. M. Schneider, manager of the Boston Store, refused to discuss the details of the affair. "I am in a position where I can say nothing at all to the newspapers," he said, when asked for a statement.

Department store pillaging now being exposed in Los Angeles has resulted in the discharge from the Boston Store of Miss Margaret E. Irving and Robert Pierson. Both were trusted employes in high positions. Miss Irving, who has for many years been active in church work, and has among her relatives one of the wealthiest men in the city, signed a statement admitting the theft of $2000 worth of goods. She has gone East. Pierson, who was head of the linen department, stole between $3000 and $4000 in goods and cash. He was two days ago given twenty-four hours in which to leave town.

In all, the store recovered about $3000 worth of freshly-stolen goods. Restitution was made in other manner by the culprits. The affair shocked the management of the establishment for both Miss Irving and Pierson were looked upon as above reproach.

The story of store thefts now coming to light in Los Angeles is almost entirely the result of the work of private detectives. These have brought to the knowledge of managers and presidents of the companies many startling and unexpected facts since the epidemic of crime was first suspected. But in no case did the results come so unexpectedly as in this instance. The thieving had been going on for nearly ten years in the case of the woman. Her position in the community was as far above suspicion as her standing in the store.

Pierson was held in similar regard. He had been with the store for a long time. He was looked upon as absolutely rigid in both morals and honor. He lived simply and he saved his money. He had worked up to a department head by strict attention to his business. He had no need to steal. And yet his peculations had reached a figure as great as the competency of a well-to-do middle-class business man.

Miss Irving was head of the ruching counter. She is a woman of middle age. She was strict in her religious duties and was prominent in this work. Her devotion is believed by those who know her to have been genuine so far as feelings are concerned. She taught a Sunday-school class. Why she stole is one of those inexplicable things which comes up whenever men hunt facts concerning thieves. Certainly she lived simply and without ostentation in her home at No. 618 West Fifteenth street.

The method of her thieving the woman herself admitted when she was confronted early in the present month by the proof of its existence. At her counter there are frequent returns of purchases. In such cases a return check is issued to the purchaser who gets money for this at the cashier's window. Miss Irving had forged such checks. By so doing she was able to keep the goods without sending them to the wrapping counter whence the check should have come. Such goods she took home with her. How much cash she took is not absolutely known. But the sum total of her thefts has reached about $2000.

As to Pierson, he was a bolder thief and a greater. As head of the linen department he had the handling of much goods and much cash. His peculations are said to have lasted several years, and to have been carried on with adroit system. His exposure did not take place until two days ago. Then he admitted what he had done. From his home a large quantity of stolen goods was recovered. He also made restitution from his property. The methods the man had used; his betrayal of trust and the amount he had taken made his case in the eyes of the management an aggravated one. He was, however, given one day's grace to leave the city. Had he remained he would have been prosecuted.

In both cases the police were in possession of the facts. But as the employers would not prosecute, the officers were unable to make any arrests.

The manner in which these two were caught is similar to that in which other department store thieves have been recently exposed. For some time past the different big establishments have been awake to the necessity of protecting themselves. They were roused in good part by the publicity given in The Times to the Braun Drug Company robbery and the enormity of that affair. At once they adapted methods of watching their employés. For several weeks past practically every man and woman working in the larger establishments of this city has been kept beneath sharp eyes. The acts of each have been noted. And as a consequence came results—tumbling over one another. The prosecutions were few. The restitutions were numerous.

One of these exposures—in some respects the most sensational—was the discovery that Miss Chevallier, cashier of the Ville de Paris, had stolen for three years. The young woman died shortly after she was to have made final arrangements toward restitution. It is believed by some who were in the house at the time that she took an overdose of opiates, though there is a possibility that death came as a result of brain fever brought on by the worry. In her case the Ville de Paris has gotten back the amount which it lost.

A number of other similar denouements made the air in every department store in the city rife with rumor. But in no case was the consternation roused that came when Miss Irving and Pierson were pilloried before their employers. So complete was the evidence against each that confession followed the exposures. Miss Irving's came first. At her home was found a quantity of lace and embroidery. How she had been disposing of this stolen stuff was not made public.

As soon as Miss Irving had left the employ of the store she departed from the city. She is said to be now in the East. Among her friends, who include the household of her minister and some of the most earnest and prominent among local church workers, there was some slight knowledge of what had happened. But the extent of the affair and its real import was not suspected by these.

WHITE MEMORIAL NEARS COMPLETION.

Clay figure of Stephen M. White, from which the plaster cast will be made and the bronze memorial constructed.

HAVING completed a clay figure that meets the full approval of the Executive Committee of the Stephen M. White Memorial Fund, Douglas Tilden, the sculptor, has been instructed to proceed with the casting of the bronze memorial of the illustrious and lamented United States Senator and California citizen, which is to have a place of honor on the Courthouse grounds in Los Angeles.

From this clay figure, a photograph of which is presented herewith, a plaster cast will be made, in which the familiar features and figure of the departed statesman will be moulded in bronze.

Artistic skill, time and labor have been expended without stint by the sculptor in the perfection of his work. So well has he succeeded that the completed clay model is sealed with the approval of the venerable mother of the late Senator White, together with that of Mrs. R. P. Troy, his widow, and other members of the family.

In the first instance, the figure was unanimously approved by the Construction Committee, a sub-committee of the Executive Committee of the Stephen M. White Memorial Fund. This sub-committee was composed of Chairman M. P. Snyder and Secretary Joseph Scott, and they had the services, in an advisory capacity, of Sumner P. Hunt, Arthur B. Benton and D. W. Cunningham. On the report of the sub-committee on the 7th inst., Secretary Scott was instructed by the Executive Committee to advise Mr. Tilden to proceed with the casting of the bronze figure.

Mr. Tilden, who is a deaf mute of remarkable talent as a sculptor, and whose home is at Santa Cruz, the birthplace of the late Senator White, was selected by unanimous vote of the General Committee of the Memorial Fund to design the figure. Since the date of the approval of the model he has devoted more than twelve months to his task. When he presented the first clay figure to the committee last March for its approval some changes were suggested. They were followed with discernment and the present figure is the result.

The completed figure is said to rank in execution with the famous McKinley statue, the Donahue memorial and other well-known works of the same sculptor, which occupy places of prominence in San Francisco.

MAY OPEN MALIBU.

Complaints Made to Land Office That Ranch Fences Shut Off Access to Public Lands.

Uncle Sam will have to determine, it seems, whether the exclusive Malibu ranch can retain its exclusiveness, and maintain armed guards to prevent the passage of the traveling public across the estate. Complaint has been made to the United States Land Office here by settlers in the cañons of the Santa Monica Mountains that the fences of the Rindge estate shut off access to public lands.

"The Land Office is obliged, under government orders, to look after the settlers' end in this controversy," said Gen. Frank C. Prescott, registrar of the Land Office, yesterday. "We have been ordered by a circular issued March 17, that in cases where complaint is made that private fences have been so constructed that they obstruct access to public lands, those responsible for the obstruction must be prosecuted.

"The Deckers and other settlers in the cañons back of the Malibu ranch have made complaints. They have their patents to their lands and are bona fide settlers. Others have filed on lands there, and wish to have access to them."

On Sunday a party of two automobiles made the trip across the Malibu ranch, defying the guards, and later made the return trip, forcing their passage at the locked gates.

It is understood that this trip was taken expressly for the purpose of making certain evidence to be presented in the courts, and that an attempt will be made to force the Rindge estate to open the way for a public road so that travelers can have free access to the public lands lying back of the Malibu.

Frank C. Prescott, Jr., son of Gen. Prescott, is one of the men who has filed on public lands in one of the Santa Monica range cañons. He has undertaken to haul lumber for his house to the cañon, and started on the trip last Saturday. It is understood that he has served notice on the owners of the Malibu ranch that any attempt to stop his traveling over the ranch to his claim will be resisted with force.

Other well-known Los Angeles men who have recently taken claims in the Scoto Cañon are Ernest Werden, Charles Stansbury and Ed. Newell.

N. D. Darlington, manager of the Malibu ranch, was in Los Angeles yesterday and it was reported that he was seeking warrants for the arrest of the alleged trespassers of Sunday. At the District Attorney's office last night it was stated that no complaints had been filed and that it would not be the policy of that office to issue warrants in cases of this character.

LOVE DRIVES HER INSANE.

Crazed Woman Plans Death of Self and Child.

Timely Arrival of the Police Forestalls Tragedy.

Ugly Charges Against Man Who Wed Another.

Broken hearted and crazed, Mrs. Alice Waddell was prevented from attempting to murder her 12-year-old adopted daughter, Stella, and from trying to take her own life last night, when Officers Jack Walsh and J. W. Murphy took her from her home at No. 1734 South Los Angeles street to the City Jail. She is booked on a charge of insanity. Her husband, J. A. Waddell, is in Goldfield, where he is employed as a cook.

Learning that her affection for Alexander Love of No. 123 West Thirty-second street was not returned, the woman planned the destruction of herself and child. In preparation for the deed, Mrs. Waddell aroused the suspicions of neighbors, who took steps that saved her and the girl.

Letters written by the woman tell the pitiful story of a wrecked home and of her intent to end all by taking herself and the child out of the way.

Briefly told, the story is this:

Waddell and his wife came to Los Angeles four years ago from Kansas City. They rented the Los Angeles-street house from Love, who is employed at the Llewellyn Iron Works, and who made his home with them as a boarder. An attachment sprang up between the woman and the landlord. What passed between them is known only to Love and the woman. It cannot be said that theirs was a guilty affection, but the regard which his wife held for the other man became known to Waddell and he chided her. She candidly told her husband that she had ceased to love him; that there was room in her heart only for their landlord. In vain Waddell tried to win back his wife. Failing, he left home.

LOVE WEDS ANOTHER.

Mrs. Waddell remained at the old home and Love continued to show her attention. At the same time, it is said, he was attentive to another, and in June of last year was married to Miss Freda Leonard.

This was known to Mrs. Waddell. In fact, she was an invited guest at the wedding. She presented the couple with a gold-mounted clock.

There was a wrong, however, when Love placed the wedding ring on the finger of his bride. Only a week before, it is said, he had given an engagement ring to Mrs. Waddell. Overcome by emotion, Mrs. Waddell fainted.

At the time he is reported to have given Mrs. Waddell the ring, Love also presented her with a five-year lease of the house in which she was living.

Two days after returning from his honeymoon, according to the statements of neighbors, Love renewed his attentions to Mrs. Waddell. She received letters from him bearing messages of endearment.

Last Christmas, the week in which a baby was born into his home, it is reported that Love sent the woman a volume of love poems by Ella Wheeler Wilcox, and a shirt waist set. Only yesterday the woman returned the presents.

It even is said that Love held out the promise that he would marry Mrs. Waddell upon the death of his present wife.

THE KILLING BLOW.

Then came the blow that shattered the hopes of the trusting woman.

A letter came from Love, telling of his hate for her. It was carried by the mother-in-law of Love. There were words reflecting on the character of the woman. That was two weeks ago. She went in search of the man. She and her twelve-year-old daughter whom she threatened to kill and then commit suicide. The man is Alexander Love, on account of whom the woman is said to have lost her reason.

wanted him to retract his harsh statements. She was told that he had gone to Canada.

Questioned by a reporter last night, Love said, harshly:

"None of your business whether it is true or not. I don't care what happens to the woman."

PREPARE FOR DEATH.

All day yesterday Mrs. Waddell spent in giving away her effects to friends. For the past week she has been moody and dazed. When she had disposed of nearly all her household effects the police were notified. They went to her home at once.

Mrs. Waddell was despondent, but after much persuasion told the officers that the man she loved had put her aside for another woman. When they attempted to locate her friends and told her she must go to the home of her mother at Sawtelle, Mrs. Waddell refused. She became hysterical.

A search of the house led to the discovery of two notes. One was for her husband. It reads:

"Andie, I leave all in your hands. Carrie will help you if she wants to. He hates me. Carrie made him hate me, the last time he came for the rent two months ago, he kissed me and told me he was still mine, that he still loved me. Now he hates me. I cannot live. I will take Stella with me, for I don't want her to have a hard time in life. You will soon forget me, but don't forget me until you come back. Make him take back what he said about me, Mrs. Scott will tell you what he said. I know you did not intend to come back to me, but that did not bother me for I had him and I loved him, yes I loved him. The only way he will know how he has wronged two will be after I am cold in death. He says let her die.

"After I am dead then he will suffer. Mr. Scott has the lease. It is made out to me and I give it to you. Yes I will it to you. We might have been happy, I might have learned to love you again if he had done as he promised you he would after he settled with you but he told me all the time he loved me and not Freda, that when she died he would marry me."

Another letter addressed to her mother was found:

"My dear Mother and Father," it runs. "It is sad that I should bring this sorrow on you but I cannot and will not live. It is far the best. He does not love me. He says he hates me. He will take it back and I cannot live. I will go tonight. Stella and me. Yes I will take her for no one loves her as I do. I gave all his letters to cousin Nina. She will give them to Andie. He can then get all the revenge he wants. I do not feel hard toward Andie but I do not love him and never can. He accused me. Don't feel bad ma. Think that it is all for the best.

"Your daughter in death,

"ALICE."

At Central Station the woman seemed dazed. She did not seem to hear. She was placed in a cell where she could not harm herself. A close watch will be kept over her.

SEIZES CATS TO PAY DEBT.

Whole Family of Felines Taken by Officer to Satisfy Unpaid Rent Bill.

The shades of night were falling. Came a dark figure through the gloom—an officer of the law—I' faith a Constable.

In his hand a sack. He seeks what he may grab for debt. Mrs. Helen Hall owes Mrs. Hood of Pasadena a bill for rent due.

The landlady has appealed to the law to collect her bill. She went to Constable Newell yesterday to get out attachment papers on the tenant's goods and chattels. Alas, many things are of the law exempt.

"The only things I can find that are not exempt," reported the Constable, sadly, "are three cats and a dog."

"Good," said the lady grimly. "Then take the three cats and the dog."

Wherefore came a most unique legal process. Constable Newell took a sack and dived under the house, chasing cats. He finally corralled the cat family, tied up the dog and marched off in triumph.

WOULD DRAPE STATUTES.

Unclothed Ornaments Arouse Ire of the Matron Who Makes Complaint Against Exhibitors.

Unclothed statues, said to be on exhibition in downtown department stores, have aroused the ire of at least one Los Angeles matron. Mrs. Mary R. Wallace, who says she is a member of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, called on Assistant City Prosecutor R. J. Adcock yesterday and complained about an "indecent exhibition of statuary," which, she said, is on display at a large Spring-street furniture house. She asked that a complaint be issued, but her request was denied.

The statues in question are two female figures, undraped, balancing on the top of a globe. The statues are, she says, "high art." That is the reason they have come under the ban of her severe displeasure. According to Mrs. Wallace a crusade has been begun against all such exhibits by the local branch of the W.C.T.U.

Mrs. F. S. Wheat, city president of the W.C.T.U., disclaims all knowledge of any crusade. She declared last night that the complaint has been sought without the sanction of the union.

"I would like to have such statues in my home," said Mrs. Wheat. "I do not object to such statuary in the least. Of course we must be careful about the exhibition of certain pictures unfit to be seen, but I know the union will not object to ornamental statuary. Whoever has taken up this matter has done so without my sanction."

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

Acting under a new State law crews in the street department will henceforth remove weeds and rubbish from all vacant lots. The cost can now be assessed as a lien against the land. Formerly the city was compelled to clean lots of non-resident owners gratis.

Charles M. Nelson of San Francisco received an emergency appointment yesterday as disbursing agent under the Board of Public Works.

A bitter fight between the liquor dealers and the "antis" is waging over the six months time limit clause, proposed for the wholesale liquor zone ordinance.

E. R. Brainerd had made a demand of the city for $5000 for damages alleged to have been occasioned to his land by a change in the grade of Sunset boulevard.

In the trial of a suit to compel Olive A. Richey to pay a sum previously agreed upon for the support of his daughter, testimony of an unusual character was given by the plaintiff, Mrs. Delphine Jarman, who had been twice married to the defendant and twice divorced.

Raymond Killion, a Polytechnic High School pupil who had been held for trial on a charge of burglary, was released yesterday and the case dismissed.

Morris Southstone, the chauffeur who ran over Herbert Stock on Friday, was arraigned on a charge of manslaughter yesterday in Justice Frederickson's court. He was released on bail.

The proprietors of the Central Department store, and the manager of the Pacific Coast Biscuit Company, were fined $50 each yesterday in Justice Frederickson's court for violating the child labor law.

William Kirkpatrick, A. Malmed and P. W. Sorenson were fined by Justice Chambers yesterday for selling milk which was not up to the required stand.

AT THE CITY HALL.

WILL ABATE WEED NUISANCE.

NEW STATE LAW CATCHES ALL "ABSENTEE" OWNERS.

City Now Has Power to Clean Vacant Lots and Assess the Cost Against the Land as a Lien—Street Department Ready to Act—"Best Law of Session," Says Realty Board.

Acting under the directions of the Board of Public Works, the street department is preparing to combat the weed nuisance on vacant lots. At the last session of the Legislature a law was passed empowering municipalities to clean up vacant lots and charge the expense as a lien against the property.

Almost equal to the billboard outrage in residence districts has been this nuisance of lots overgrown with weeds and covered with nondescript rubbish. Under the old law the land of a non-resident was immune. If the owner lived in the city he could be arrested for maintaining a nuisance, but this would be only a misdemeanor charge and could not be enforced offense and could not be punished outside the jurisdiction of the city.

Allegations have been made frequently that certain persons living here have held their vacant lots in the name of some one outside the State in order that they could not be compelled to cut the weeds and remove the rubbish.

Instructions were issued yesterday by the Board of Public Works for cleaning certain lots in order that they may be in presentable condition for Fiesta. Under the new law the city can remove weeds and rubbish from a lot to a distance of fifty feet back from the property line.

In summer time the weeds have formerly encroached on the sidewalks in many residence districts, crowding pedestrians into the streets. Under the new law all this will be changed. A complaint from three property owners on a street will be sufficient to bring the rubbish crew from the street department, and the cost of cleaning the lots will be assessed against the property the same as the expense for sewers and street improvements.

"ANTIS" ORGANIZE.

WILL FIGHT LIQUOR MEN.

It was a very docile Police Commission that met yesterday afternoon in the Mayor's outside office. By common consent all question of policy, or on which there might be division, were laid over until Mayor Harper returns.

Acting Mayor Pease started uneasily whenever a liquor license was mentioned, but before the meeting was over he was compelled to vote on a grant of a saloon license. He looked relieved when Secretary McKeag explained that it was only a "transfer," a change of ownership of a license already existing.

Plainly the Acting Mayor felt uncomfortable. He is one of the opposition that is expected to send to the Mayor a new ordinance giving the wholesalers outside the saloon zone not more than six months' time in which to retire from business.

There are now five votes in the Council for this ordinance which may take the place of the one vetoed by the Mayor last week. It is not acceptable to the liquor men, however, and they will wage a bitter fight against it. Members of the Mayor's official family say that he will veto an ordinance containing a six months' time limit, and that there are not six "long-hair" votes in the Council to pass the legislation over his veto. A strong effort will be made to haul Yonkin off the water wagon, and Blanchard as well, leaving but four votes for the restricting ordinance.

Both sides are organized and not even the Fiesta will prevent a series of clashes during the next three weeks. Petitions and memorials from civic and religious organizations in the city, all favoring the "Wallace" ordinance, are filed daily with the City Clerk. They ask the Council to stand firm in not granting a longer time than six months for the wholesalers outside the saloon zone to move into the business district or retire from business.

These are counterbalanced in part by other petitions from business men asking that no snap judgment be taken, and that the Council deliberate carefully before passing legislation that will confiscate the property of the wholesale liquor dealers unfortunate enough to be located outside the so-called saloon zone.

CHANGE EXPENSIVE.

SAYS CITY MUST PAY.

E. R. Brainerd sent to the Board of Public Works yesterday a polite request that he be reimbursed in the amount of $5000 for alleged damages occasioned to his property near Lake Shore avenue and Sunset boulevard by a change of grade on these thoroughfares.

The communication closes with the following appeal: "I have noticed the fair-minded justice with which your honorable body is said to deal with the vexed problems that have been put before you, and I confidently look to you for a speedy and equitable adjustment of the matter."

Declining an offer of the automobile of the claimant, "for any appointment they may see fit to make with a view to looking over the proposition," the board referred the communication to the City Attorney.

In Fiesta Attire.

City Forester Harper is appealing to all owners of palms to trim the trees nicely before Fiesta, and to donate the fronds not used for house decoration to the Fiesta Committee. Mr. Harper thinks the palms will enhance greatly the beauty of the Fiesta decorations and he is working to secure a large supply for the Decorating Committee.

The new forester now has an office in the City Hall. He is working along the same general lines as the Municipal Art Commission, but apparently with better success.

Disbursing Agent.

W. M. Nelson received an appointment from the Board of Public Works yesterday as emergency disbursing agent on the outfall sewer and the Los Angeles aqueduct. Before he secures the place permanently he must win it in a competitive examination before the Civil Service Board. Nelson's appointment is not popular with the administration; an attempt was made to secure the place for a political friend of Mayor Harper. But in this the Mayor himself took no part. Nelson came here from San Francisco last fall to take a position under the Board of Public Works.

Ambulance for Fiesta.

Granting a recommendation from the Chief of Police, the Police Board sent a request to the Council yesterday that an ambulance be secured for use of the Police Department during Fiesta. Chief Kern explained that the patrol wagons in the department will probably be needed to carry lawbreakers to the station while the spring festival is at its height; he said that an ambulance during Fiesta week will be a welcome addition to the equipment of his department.

Weishart Finds Site.

After a search extending over two years and a half, C. M. Weishart has finally decided on a location for his new wholesale liquor store. Yesterday he made application for a wholesale license at No. 161 San Pedro street. Four times Weishart has settled on locations; each time protests from the citizens in the community made it impossible to secure a license; he has become a forlorn, familiar figure at Police Commission meetings. His application for the San Pedro street location contains the signatures of property owners of a majority of the frontage in the block.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

FORMER WIFE WINS HER SUIT.

MALE PARENT MUST CONTINUE DAUGHTER'S ALLOWANCE.

Stops Payments When Young Woman's Letters Cease to Contain Endearing Terms—Mother Speaks Scornfully of Ex-husband, Alleging Drink and Attempts to Injure Her Reputation.

Because his daughter ceased to address endearing terms to him in her letters from Boston, Clive A. Richey concluded to stop the allowance he was making her to assist in her education. For this reason Mrs. Delphine Jarman, who twice has been married to Richey and twice divorced, brought suit against her former husband to compel him to continue the allowance to their daughter. Her suit was successful.

The case was on trial yesterday in the Superior Court. Mrs. Jarman, on the witness stand, spoke with asperity of Richey and his ways, as if something more than mere dislike was rankling in her thoughts. It came out at last:

"He tried to injure me and my reputation, talking about me, saying things which were not true, and using the public 'phones to do it."

"His salary," she retorted scornfully, to a question from counsel for the defense, as to whether Richey had not put his earnings into the two lodging houses which she conducted. "It was enough for his whisky and cigar bills, but it wasn't enough to support the family."

She told how her husband had made a promise, when they were on their way to the Coast, never to drink again after they should cross the Colorado River.

"He kept it for three months," she added with an angry little laugh.

"And you made all the money put into the lodging houses, the Linden and the Lovejoy?" was asked.

"Yes, I did it all; I certainly did."

"And I suppose you think your husband was weak, then, intellectually?

"How can I tell that? I am not an alienist."

The cross-examining attorney asked the witness about her trip to the East, Richey remaining in California. Mrs. Jarman stated her belief that her husband had stayed drunk during her absence, though she did not know.

"Then he was in a wretched condition to live with when you returned?" queried the attorney tentatively.

"I did not try to live with him," answered the witness with scorn.

With great self-commiseration she spoke of having lived fifteen years with the man. Continuing in response to questions, she told of an agreement entered into between herself and Richey on November 7, 1905, by which she declared, the latter promised to do everything for their daughter, Gladys, including the transference of insurance policies to her.

"I knew he'd let them lapse if he kept them," asserted the witness, "and if they were transferred to my daughter I would keep them up."

Besides oral promises, it appears, Richey signed an agreement to pay $25 per month toward his daughter's education. Mrs. Richey's second suit for divorce had been filed at the time of this consultation, and on November 24, 1905, her second interlocutory decree of divorce from Clive A. Richey was granted.

Thereafter, for several months, Richey kept not only his written agreement, but his oral promise, sending $40 each month to Gladys, who was taking singing lessons in Boston. Then, it appears, the mother wrote to Gladys telling of the alleged t... phoning by Richey. In consequence of this all endearing terms disappeared from the letters of Gladys to r father. The result of this was that the monthly $40 ceased to go to Boston, it was stated.

"You'll have to address me as a did," Richey is said to have written to his daughter, "or the allowance will stop."

The allowance did stop but, to the extent of $25, must continue hereafter, and five delinquent installments must be paid.

Clive A. Richey, on the stand, stated that he never would have let his wife get the second divorce if he had realized that she meant it to be permanent. She had remarried him before, and he thought she would do so again, and so he let her have her decree once more—"to humor her," as he expressed it.

And then: "She told me, after it was too late for me to bring an action to have the interlocutory decree set aside, that she was done with me forever. She told me that when she had come to me in Arizona, and married me after her first divorce from me, she had not cared for me at all. She said to me: 'I was alone in the world, with a young child on my hands, and I was afraid of the world. That is the reason I married you again, and the only reason.' That is what she said to me."

UNHAPPY LITTLE BOY, TAKEN FROM STEPFATHER.

Although the old Probate Court is fairly damp with the tears of unhappy children, little Arnold Williams is possibly the first to cry at being separated from a stepfather.

He cried bitterly yesterday because Judge Rives decided that he should go to his old grandmother who raised him, giving up his home with his stepfather, W. J. Radford.

There is something peculiar and unexplained behind this case; Judge Rives admits it; something known only to the parties to the suit.

Arnold Williams is about twelve years old. His mother, whose second husband is Mr. Radford, is in the insane asylum at Patton. His grandparents live in Pennsylvania. Since his mother's commission to the insane asylum, he has been living with Radford.

The grandparents demand possession of the child, and the stepfather demands him. Radford says that he promised the boy's mother to take charge of him.

They all came into court yesterday morning to present their rival claims. The grandparents were represented by Attorney John Kerrigan; the stepfather by Attorney John Foley.

"Didn't you say you were going to give Arnold away to another woman if you got him?" they asked the grandmother when she went on the stand. She looked horrified.

"Why, no; did I, Arnold?" she said, appealing to the child. To her chagrin, he gravely nodded.

They called him to testify and the little boy told the court how he and his stepfather keep house together, washing the dishes, making the beds and doing the cooking.

The court said that, although there is obviously something behind all this, he thought it more natural to give the child to the old grandmother who has raised him from babyhood.

The grandmother, beaming with happiness, ran across the courtroom to the boy and hugged him. Arnold drew back, however, and began to cry. Grandfather, grandmother and aunt tried to comfort him, but he tried to pull away and go back to his stepfather, crying: "I don't want to; I don't want to. I don't want to go."

He had to be pulled away by main force.

Out in the hall, the stepfather tried to say good-bye to the boy, but the others surrounded and hid the child with their skirts. Radford ran around frantically, trying to find a loophole to bob through.

"You can't see him," said the grandmother. "If you want to see him you will have to come over to the lawyer's office and see him there."

Enter Attorney Foley. He made a formal demand that the stepfather and the child be allowed to say good-bye in due style. His demand was refused and the lawyer went away, threatening to get an order of court compelling the grandparents to allow a proper leave-taking.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

PUPIL FREED. Raymond Killion, held to answer in the Superior Court to a charge of burglary, yesterday was dismissed on motion of the District Attorney. Killion, a pupil in the Polytechnic High School, was accused of breaking into the school building on the night of March 22, and stealing two musical instruments, the property of B. D. Stanley. The stolen articles were sold next day to a pawnbroker, and the name of the real owner, B. D. Stanley, was signed to the bill of sale, it was alleged. The pawnbroker was brought to the school and picked out Killion as the boy who had sold the instruments to him. This was the sole evidence against the boy. For the defense, two schoolfellows swore that he had been to the theater with them the night of the burglary, returning to his home after 12 o'clock. Though promised probation if he would confess, Killion has maintained his innocence. A point in his favor was that the writing on the bill of sale was wholly unlike Killion's.

AGED FORGER SENTENCED. Judge Curtis Wilbur yesterday sentenced F. E. Saddler to five years in San Quentin prison on two counts of forgery. Saddler, who is 68 years of age, passed several checks for the uniform amount of $10.50 on local tradesmen, signed with the fictitious name of George W. Bramer. He pleaded guilty to the charges.

TERMINAL ISLAND SUIT. A suit has been filed in the office of the County Clerk in which the city of San Pedro appears as plaintiff seeking an injunction to restrain the city of Long Beach from exercising any municipal functions over the territory lying between the two beach cities. Both municipalities have held elections annexing the territory, Long Beach first, but it is claimed that the canvass in the Long Beach election was not according to the political code.

SANTA FE SUES. A suit to secure a restraining order against the city of Pasadena, to prevent the municipality from selling for taxes a part of the alleged right of way of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé Railroad, was filed yesterday in the County Clerk's office.

LIBEL SUIT. In the $25,000 libel suit of Judge B. N. Smith against the News, practically the entire day yesterday was taken up with the reading of the transcript of the Lopez case, in connection with which the evening sheet accused the judge of displaying incompetency. The transcript forms a bulky volume. Judge Smith was on the witness stand for a short time, and stated that he had been humiliated by the attack upon him, the first, he stated, in his experience.

DAMAGE SUIT. Wesley W. Webster yesterday filed a suit for trial in the Superior Court asking $1350 from the Los Angeles Railway Company for injuries and damage to his buggy. The complaint alleges that a heavy wagon and team belonging to the defendant ran into his light rig on February 1.

RAILWAY SUIT. Suit for $1519.10 damages against the Los Angeles Interurban Railway Company was filed in the County Clerk's office yesterday

VIOLATE CHILD LABOR LAW.

CARELESS EMPLOYERS ARE FINED IN POLICE COURT.

Proprietors of Central Department Store and Manager of Pacific Coast Biscuit Company Pay Fifty Dollars Each—Chauffeur Is Arraigned on Manslaughter Charge.

B. Desenberger and A. P. Prenslauer, proprietors of the Central Department Store, were arrested yesterday on a charge of violating the child-labor laws. The specific charge against the store proprietors was that of employing Hazel Evans, aged 13, as a cash girl. A warrant for H. Prenzlauer of this store was also issued, but the charge against him was dismissed.

There was no effort made to contest the charge and when the case was called before Justice Frederickson, the defendants entered a plea of guilty. It was shown that the store has only recently been opened and the proprietors were unfamiliar with the law, and in view of this fact the court administered the minimum fine. The law provides that a fine of not less than $50 shall be imposed.

The Humane Society was responsible for the arrests. In line with a policy to enforce the law with reference to child labor the case against Desenberger and Prenslauer was rigidly prosecuted.

J. S. Richards, manager of the Pacific Coast Biscuit Company, was arraigned on a similar charge. Many mere children were found at work in the factory, according to an officer of the Humane Society. It was also stated that Russian girls from the Molokans colony have been employed in the factory. In order to get work these girls are said to give their ages as sixteen. The children are anxious to work. Many are members of large families and their parents urge them to seek employment.

The specific charge against the biscuit company was the employment of Vasita Treylosoff, 12 years old.

Richards pleaded guilty and was fined $50.

Chauffeur Arraigned.

Morris Southstone, the chauffeur who ran over and killed sixteen-year-old Herbert Stock Friday afternoon, was arraigned yesterday before Justice Frederickson on a charge of manslaughter. The accident occurred while Southstone was driving a big touring car, belonging to W. H. O'Bear, along LaSalle street. The boy was riding a bicycle. Southstone was held to be criminally liable by a Coroner's jury and was arrested Monday night. Bail was then refused.

H. M. Southstone, father of the accused, was in court yesterday afternoon and O'Bear was also present. Bail in the sum of $3000 was provided and the chauffeur was released. He will be examined Thursday before Justice Frederickson.

According to Southstone the lad was thrown directly beneath his machine and the accident was unavoidable. Davis Rush and Willis have been employed to defend the chauffeur.

Mrs. Worthington Free.

Mrs. Agnes Worthington, who was charged with disturbing the peace, was arraigned yesterday before Justice Rose. The case was dismissed. Mrs. Ellen B. Scott, the complaining witness, was ill and could not appear. Her husband, William Scott, appeared for her and explained to the court the circumstances. Before he could relate his story, however, he was cut short by the court and a severe reprimand administered. Scott had allowed several business men to be called as witnesses without telling the court that his wife is sick.

Fined for Cruelty.

Henry Campbell, the owner of horses kept at a grading camp at Western avenue and Temple street, was yesterday fined $65 for cruelty to animals. F. Montana, a driver in his employ, escaped with a fine of $10 on the same charge. Horses with festered shoulders, lame animals, and horses which had been shamefully abused were found at the camp, it was stated.

Sentence Today.

Georgia Logan, alias Ada Nell, alias Ada Conley, pleaded guilty to a charge of vagrancy yesterday in the Police Court. The girl is said to be a sister of the colored tailor who was murdered last summer on the Hotel Raymond golf links at Pasadena. She has been in the City Jail since Saturday. She will be sentenced this morning.

Violate Milk Ordinance.

William Kirkpatrick, A. Malmed and P. W. Sorensen were each fined $5 yesterday morning by Justice Chambers. They were convicted of violating a milk ordinance by furnishing milk which was not up to standard.

Would Kill Woman.

Otto Weisgerber threatened to kill Mrs. Mae Gardner Monday night. He was arrested and was tried yesterday before Justice Frederickson and will be sentenced this morning.

"No Scene Twice Seen"
=The= Kite Shaped Track $3 Excursion
For a short vacation, nothing can be thought of that can compare with the great "Kite" trip. If you wish to make a day's outing of it you may do so, but most of those who go take advantage of the eight-day stop-over privilege, spending the time at Riverside and Redlands. The daily excursion train that leaves at 8:30 a. m., stops about two hours in the above places. More interesting sights are seen along the kite-shaped track than on any other half dozen short trips you can think of. Every foot of ties reveals a surprise. 166 miles and no scene twice seen. If you want to know more about the most delightful excursion of all, ask E. W. McGee, 334 S. Spring St.

KITCHEN ROW, NEW VERSION.

Dead in House and Mother Dying.

Dotter Testifies in the Famous Will Case.

Family Incidents Made Public.

Legislature granted in 1859, that act apparently being still in force. He presented many arguments for division, although he agreed that division would not destroy the political power of the railroad organization in this section.

"Los Angeles" was suggested by Mr. Bulla as a name for the proposed new State.

Mr. Jackson, assuming that the State can be divided legally, said that division would be injudicious because of the possible effect on the great Owens River water project.

Proceeding under the act of 1859, Mr. Jackson said that Inyo county would not be a part of the proposed new State. The valuable water rights of the city of Los Angeles would, in great measure, remain in the old State, and would be subject to the action of a possibly hostile Legislature. Also they would be taxed in an immense sum by Inyo county. Designing persons, he said, might persuade the Legislature to prohibit the taking of water from its source into the proposed new State.

Besides, he said, we should have but an insignificant and an unimportant State.

THE OIL INDUSTRY.

ESPEE HAULS PRIVATE CARS.

LOSS OF ARIZONA TONNAGE AND AGITATION THE CAUSES.

Harriman Officials See Not the Short-sighted Policy Which Has Turned Consumers Back to Coal. Santa Fe Hauls That—Santa Maria, McKittrick, Coalinga Notes.

For years the Espee has not only been short of oil tank cars of its own, but has refused to haul those owned by any private company, so as to more effectually tie up the product for its own use. Now this policy is reversed, and at least one local company has purchased its own cars. Another was advised that if it saw fit to purchase cars of its own they would be hauled without objection.

One reason why the Southern Pacific has been so willing to encourage the use of oil in Arizona is the fact that there is not a ton of coal mined on its lines except in Utah. Let the Southwest use coal and it was goodby to all traffic in fuel. No railroad in the United States has so many oil fields tributary to its lines. Besides this, its chief officials own half the stock of the Associated, which would, of course, furnish most of the oil. So its desire to encourage oil as fuel in the Territory was natural. Coal comes from New Mexico via the Santa Fé, and the Espee now feels the loss.

The statement has also been given out that 700 tank cars are coming as fast as possible, but this is an old story that has been repeated with more or less variation for years.

Santa Maria Independents.

The contracts just made by the Standard with the New Pennsylvania, Pinal and Dome companies for three years and the sharp competition existing may result in the abandonment or postponement indefinitely of the project for steamships and an independent pipe line to Port Harford. The companies which have entered into this contract were among the supporters of the independent movement, and the Western Union, which is the principal corporation concerned, is receiving plenty of offers for all it has when its contract with the Standard is out, so that, as was stated in its annual report, it may be unnecessary to go to such great expense.

The Union's eight-inch pipe line is to be completed within a few weeks, after which time the output is bound to be greatly increased. The Associated's eight-inch line is also under construction from Gaviota, so that ere many weeks have passed the combine is likely to be bidding for oil.

McKittrick Is Booming.

Prosperity was slow in coming to McKittrick, but now it is coming with a rush. The Associated has begun work on six oft the twenty wells which it has determined to sink. Pumping is being resumed everywhere.

Timothy Spellacy and C. S. Young expect to begin work on section 13, A. B. Canfield, formerly superintendent of the Maine State at Coalinga, has resigned to start work for himself on newly-acquired property at McKittrick. F. N. Scofield of the East Puente at Kern River, a corporation of San Diego capitalists, has acquired forty acres from the Belmont Oil Company at McKittrick, and will develop at once. It is not learned whether this acquisition is a personal one or for the East Puente.

The first actual work in the new Standard Midway-McKittrick pipe line was commenced yesterday. A large force of men is engaged at the Oil Junction end in burying pipe.

At Summerland.

R. H. Herron has just returned from Summerland, where he is interested with Mayor Woods of Santa Barbara in the Duquene Oil Company, the largest in the seaside field. He reports things rather better in that district for some time past owing to increased price. The Duquene has its entire product disposed of and has proven but undeveloped land along the sea at the south end of the district, equal in extent to the entire developed portion, from which oil can be taken at the usual shallow depths at very slight cost.

Mr. Herron says that there is better prospect than ever now of an arrangement being made for deeper drilling so long talked of.

Coalinga Notes.

Holmes Henshaw and associates have leased the south half of section 26-21-15, where they are assembling timbers for the first rig.

The Turner Oil Company has reached 600 feet in well No. 1 on section 2-20-15, using 12½-inch casing. It is the intention to carry this size down to 1800 feet.

J. Benson Wrenn, who has just negotiated the sale of parts of the Valley Slope Oil Company's lands to M. V. McQuigg and other Southern California capitalists, is at work on another deal by which he hopes to sell another part of the same company's Coalinga holdings to one of the big companies at Kern River. The consideration involved is said by Mr. Wrenn to exceed $100,000. The company headed by Mr. McQuigg is, expected to be known as the Angelus Oil Company.

New Rigs at Huasna.

Three new rigs have been erected in the Huasna district by new companies surrounding the lands of the New Huasna Oil Company.

The New Huasna's well is down 1900 feet. Indications are excellent with very strong gas pressure.

Frenzied Finance.

Back in Kansas a young man named Tucker, who started in to wipe the Standard off the earth, has been indicted for fraudulent use of the mails and his company, the Uncle Sam, is in the hands of a receiver.

Tucker was a frenzied financier that would put Rockefeller or Pierpont Morgan to shame. He took advantage of the feeling against the Standard to flood the country with the most sensational advertisements and it is said that he took in two or three millions, out of which he paid himself and assistants fabulous salaries, and, to make good, built a refinery and pipe line, but there was nothing to support them. He now claims to be persecuted by the Standard, but in any event his case is one that should be a warning to those who give up their money to the first loud-mouthed fellow that comes along appealing to them to fight the trust. It is not by such methods that any good will be accomplished.

Tucker's victims are found all over the country and while none are known in Los Angeles, it is likely that there are some, as this city has always plenty of "suckers."

Associated-Espee Contract.

While the managers of the Combine have thus far refrained from making any public statement as to the renewal of the contract with the Espee, advices received by all those in touch with Associated affairs confirm the report published in The Times. The rate is 50 cents or a little more or less, which is a wonderful advance over previous figures. Already Bakersfield men are speculating upon the effect of this on the field prices which they will get.

Local Wells.

The Los Angeles Pacific has just completed a new well at 1400 feet on Fourth street extension just next to the Rancho La Brea property. It is showing up very well.

The Rancho La Brea Company has one well producing, two drilling and rigs up for two more.

Pitcher & Garbutt and the Union Oil Company have three rigs up on their property on the Los Angeles-Pacific at Rosemary. The one well that is completed here is giving a good deal of trouble at times on account of its tendency to sand up. It has produced 1500 barrels in two days, this being the actual amount obtained, not an estimate.

Pasadena Buys Fuel.

Bids were received yesterday for fuel for the Pasadena electric works and only three competitors appeared. The contract was for 3000 barrels and was awarded to the Union Oil Company at $1.10 delivered f.o.b. The other bids were the British-California Oil Company, $1.25, and C. E. Lapp, $1.24.

Newport Beach Well.

It is expected that the Newport Bay Oil Company's first well will be perforated within another week, when it will be positively known just what has been obtained.

TRANS-SIBERIAN TRAINS.

All the Ordinary Train Comforts Are Provided, Including Hot Baths.

The luxurious trains of the Trans-Siberian express are composed exclusively of dining cars, smoking cars, sleeping cars, and bathing cars. There is always a hot-water supply for baths. The train includes a barber's shop, a safe deposit in which every passenger has his private safe. There is also a gymnasium, a special feature of which is the provision of bicycles (of the "home trainer" type) on which passengers take exercise.

"There is a smoking car for ladies as well as for men, and the samovar, for the making of tea, is always going. The train is electrically lighted, each car having its own accumulators, which are automatically filled by Stone's patent, by which the current is created by the wheels of the train as they revolve.

"The dining arrangements are like those of a first-class hotel. The cooks are French, and the attendants speak every European language.

"All the windows are double, to keep out the Siberian cold, and each car has its own hot-water stove. The temperature is thus kept at a desirable level all the way from Moscow to Vladivostok, and the traveler experiences no discomfort from the fact that he is crossing Siberia."

Wash Goods--Prettier and Daintier than Ever

To say that this season's wash fabrics are prettier and daintier than ever before is to give but part praise due the geniuses who designed and weaved. Not only are they more beautiful than ever in the past—it seems almost safe to add "than they'll ever be again." Airy—very clouds of daintiness; patterns and colors that seem fairly to rob nature; art expressed in cottons. Today witnesses an exposition of our complete collection of summer washable fabrics. Every line is beautiful—many are quoted at exceptionally low prices for the day. It will be a splendid time to choose.

Bloom Silk Fancies, high-class novelties that have the appearance of silk but will wear and wash. They come in large broken plaids, checks and over shot effects. Price 50c.

Chiffon Silk Checks, fabrics of rare elegance and richness, in silver gray, pink, blue and champagne; beautiful shades; wash material fully as pretty as silk. Price 50c.

Sole Radiant, rich new plaids in all colors; beautiful combinations that wash perfectly; designs distinctly different from any shown before; splendid fabrics. Price 50c.

Silk Stripe Chiffons in all the delicate evening shades; helio, pink, blue, tan and white, cream and black; a charming novelty, wonderfully sheer and dainty. Price 50c.

PART II: EDITORIAL, LOCAL AND BUSINESS SECTION

Pen Points

God made the country and man built the cities. And look at the difference.

"Bubble, bubble, toil and trouble." Is there anything else in the world but that?

Human nature is now and always has been weak. Boarding house coffee is no weaker.

There is a man in Chicago known as "the Yiddish Bryan." What was he beaten twice for?

It is a fine idea to give easterners at the Fiesta the impression that we grow flowers on brick buildings.

Mr. Fairbanks would do well to remember that the race is not always to the man who has the longest legs.

Above all things we hope to see lots and lots of nice horses and carriages in the floral parade. That's where we shine.

We note that a mining company in Maine has reduced its capitalization. Surely it was not for the lack of suckers?

Let us show those oncoming easterners flowers till they can't sleep nights for thinking of them after they go home.

The author of "The Blazed Trail" has a rich father. But that is not what the story refers to. It is a mere coincidence.

The country can't settle down to any other idea than that Theodore Roosevelt is the best man to finish the work he has started.

A woman's nature can't be changed. You can dress her in men's clothes and she will be just as much afraid of a mouse as ever.

Sometimes we are almost forced by our observations to think that—like Gen. Sheridan's Indian—a good town is a dead town.

You can see what a small matter it is to be a United States Senator when a dinky little state like Rhode Island can have two of them.

Wickedness and devilment of all kinds have become so absolutely common that we often wonder why they do not go out of fashion.

On the other hand, Mr. Fairbanks has a right to bank on the fact that Benjamin Harrison was also regarded as something of an icicle.

We trust that a fence will be built around the San Francisco underworld before it is dug up. The sight will not be good to look upon.

It does not seem that Mr. Frye has been suffering from an error of the mind to an extent that led him to overlook the main chance.

In the category of new and startling diseases this new malady called "malicious animal magnetism" seems to us to be quite the worst of any.

Mrs. Eddy describes Coachman Frye as "a tempting devil." And we are told he is even red-headed. Mr. Frye must be rather unusual altogether.

We still believe that if "a man in the audience," will get up in the Republican national convention at the psychological moment and shout "Teddy," there will be nothing else to it.

If, as charged, there is an alliance in New York between criminals and lawyers, the woods is the place to take to, and that without a moment's delay.

We think it is rather to Mr. Bryan's credit that the Democracy of Illinois is against him. Anything more rotten than the Illinois Democracy is inconceivable.

Since Editor Stead has told a meeting of Methodists that their "Amens are not worth a damn." it is believed that his career as a peace messenger is about at an end.

"I said in my haste all men are liars," were the words in which David put it. Still, after having had time to think it over, there is no record that he changed his mind.

All California has to say about the matter is that if the Republican party nominates a good man for President we have ten electoral votes that he can count on as a starter.

When a man is charged with being incompetent to manage his own affairs two things are proved, namely: First, that he has affairs to manage, and secondly, that the said affairs are worth managing.

You have a nice carriage—a victoria, a surrey, a trap or something. Yes? You will cover it all over with flowers and ride it in the Fiesta floral parade. No? Then aren't you a little ashamed of yourself?

Merely from an unprejudiced standpoint, and wishing a fair field to all, we still feel it our duty to suggest to both Mr. Fairbanks and Mr. Foraker that the race is a long one and it might be well for them not to start out so fast.

WHAT MAKES FOR PEACE.

While paying little attention to the small clique that may be called peace-at-any-price advocates, The Times does steadfastly believe wars will be steadily less frequent in the future than they have been in the past. We do not look for a millennium on earth in our day. But we do believe that there is much use in the nations coming together and making agreements which will make it less likely that wars shall break out.

These convictions spring from three sources. First, we are convinced that mankind is both more intelligent and more moral today than in any past day. We are daily becoming more reasonable and more self-controlled.

Secondly, the cost of war is so excessive that mankind will hesitate more about going into war when it is known that the conflict will wipe out of existence the fruit of a nation's industries for years in a few months. It is becoming impossible for any nations excepting the richest and most prosperous to indulge in the luxury of gratifying their ambitions or their resentments by flying into war.

Thirdly, the developments of modern commerce and the interdependence of the nations are creating another great obstacle against war.

Baron Kaneko, a Japanese statesman, recently brought out this phase of the subject in very clear light. He says Japan cannot afford to go to war with the United States. The two countries are partners in business and their mutual prosperity depends on mutual peace. Japan depends on us for raw cotton, for flour, condensed milk, paper, petroleum and tobacco. The people there are dependent on us for much of what they eat and wear. To cut off these supplies would mean great hardships to the Japanese.

To be sure in time Manchuria and Korea will supply Japan with all these things except cotton and petroleum. But that is in the future many years. Cotton must always come from us, and as the cotton industry grows in Japan a war with us will mean more loss and suffering for them. In time as many Japanese will depend for their livelihood on this as English people do now.

On the other hand, Baron Kaneko points out that we get our raw silk from Japan in exchange for our raw cotton. We also get much of our tea and rice there. Our raw silk bill comes to $60,000,000 a year, our tea bill to $20,000,000. The loss of this money would be as seriously felt in Japan as the loss of raw cotton. We could live much better without foreign commerce than any other great nation.

The various peoples are getting to feel the force of these facts. It is the recognition of them which makes peace conferences worth holding.

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY AND THE NEGRO CITIZEN.

There need not be too much importance attached to sporadic outbursts of fervid denunciation of President Roosevelt by certain would-be leaders among the negroes. That is a thing pretty well understood and by none better than by the average negro of common intelligence. When this invective includes Booker Washington with Theodore Roosevelt, the situation becomes edifyingly clear. This is evidently a conspicuous case of a very black Senegambian in the political woodpile and he is so plainly discernible that it is not worth while burning even a match to smoke him out.

Thrift, thrift Horatio! These leaders whose voice is so strong for war on Theodore Roosevelt are up to snuff and other things. But the rank and file of the voters of African descent will hardly feel obliged to sneeze because a few of them are taking Foraker snuff so freely.

There are a few things these voters know and will not forget. The only result that could come from a split in the Republican party would be to put the Democratic party in power. Whether a negro voter is about to cast his first ballot, or has been voting since the race was given the right to vote, he has some conception as to his indebtedness for all the privileges he possesses, and what would become of his race in politics and otherwise if the party should come into power which stood for the slave empire of the South and fought against the black man's liberation, against his political and civil rights from the days of the war to the present?

If it is the Democratic party which has stood for the black man's rights then by all means let the black man help that party in its ambition to hold office. If the Republican party has been no friend to the black man, then the black man owes the party nothing. If the triumph of the Democratic party means more rights of any kind to the negro, let the negro put that party in power. If, judging the future by the past, the negro has nothing to hope for at the hands of the Republican party, by all means let him follow Senator Foraker's lead and do all he can to disrupt the Republican party.

These are questions the intelligent voter of African descent will take to heart. He knows where his civil and political interests lie and will not follow the Foraker boom many steps in the direction of creating a big split in the Republican ranks.

Supposing the President did make a mistake in discharging the colored troops who, as he thought, were guilty of a gross crime as well as of a breach of discipline at Brownsville. So far as we know there is no reason to think the President erred. But if he did, it was not because these troops were blacks that they were dismissed. It was because they were thought guilty of wrongdoing. Does any one who knows the President think whites would have fared otherwise at his hands? Not a bit of it.

Of all the Presidents who ever held the office Theodore Roosevelt has been the most friendly to the negro race. He and Booker Washington are the best friends of the race on earth today. But it is not the President alone whom Mr. Foraker is gunning for. It is all who stand for Roosevelt's policies. There is where the danger of party disruption lies; and it is the disruption of the Republican party which the negro voter cannot afford to help along. He will not help it along.

THE ANARCHIST'S MISTAKE.

Jack London, whose views now smell so bad that even Hearst is afraid of him, is sailing in the Snark on a voyage round the world, with the red flag at his masthead.

One of the most dangerous trouble-breeders in this world is the man with brains enough to write a book like the "Sea Wolf" and a nature vicious enough to curse the flag of his country.

There is probably wrong enough in this world; but it is not a reckless, irresponsible wild head like Jack London, who knows no law and whose following consists of vicious agitators, that is likely to reform it.

Men like Jack London are only aware of two classes of society—one, the Harrimans and the Rockefellers; the other, block-headed, yowling anarchists like the I.W.W. at Goldfield. The only man who really matters is overlooked. He is the man who has a wife and two children; is paying for a house; has a good job; works like the devil five days a week; yells his head off at the baseball game on Saturday afternoon, and hangs around the Sunday paper on the Sabbath.

THE POOR FUNNY MAN.

Dramatic critics report that one of the star monologuists of vaudeville was hissed off the stage the other night at the Orpheum.

The truth is people are tired of funny men on the stage, or anywhere else. All the monologues are awaited with dread. The joke column is respectfully passed over. The funny man, who makes cracks in society, has the same effect upon a social gathering as a smallpox signal.

A feeble joklet is born; the newspapers print it; the monologuists shout it four or five seasons; the newspapers print it some more, and at last people tell it in street cars. And it wasn't very funny in the first place.

Really funny things just happen. When you come to get them into words, they usually aren't funny.

OPPOSITION IS SURE.

Most of us have been indulging the delusive dream that there would be no opposition to the Owens River water bonds to be voted on June 11. Before the sun sets on that day so eventful to the future of Los Angeles this illusion will be dispelled. There is little appearance of this opposition at the moment. But it exists. Like all influence hostile to the welfare of the community, it does not flaunt its presence in the open. It is not crying from the housetops. Rats and gophers are not generally in evidence in the open sunlight and above ground. This malicious influence against the bonds is working in underground channels and under cover of darkness. But it is working and will work. It is an organized influence which will leave nothing to chance. It is sleepless, cunning, persistent and powerful.

On election day these forces will all come to the surface and will present a formidable array of vigorous opposition. Every vote that can be obtained by any means, right or wrong, fair or foul, by reason, intimidation, false statement of facts, promises of reward, or fear of punishment will be marshalled to defeat the bonds. So wily is this opposition, so skillful are the hands to which the fight will be entrusted, that every voter to be had in opposition to the welfare of the city and to the wishes of the people will be brought to the polls.

These are facts known to those who are in close touch with affairs. In spite of the secrecy maintained there are signs which point with unerring certainty to what is going on and to what will be done.

It does not seem possible that when all is done any very strong opposition to these bonds can be brought to the surface. It is incredible that a large number of voters can be cajoled, threatened, coaxed or brought into voting against a project so well understood and so generally thought to mean so much to the welfare of the community. The total vote which can be massed on the negative side of the bond question is certainly very small in comparison to the great number which should be cast for the project and which will be cast for it if the people will take the trouble to vote. They will vote if they think there is any danger of the votes not carrying. The peril lies in overconfidence. If we all take it for granted that there will be no opposition, or little opposition, and that the friends of the project are sure to vote—all excepting one's self—they might be defeated.

It is true that the election is six weeks away. But much of that time will be taken up with the Fiesta. During the week given over to this event few will have any time to think of the bonds. Fiesta affairs will not interfere with the work of preparation to defeat the bonds being carried on by the interests in opposition. Our purpose is to awaken public interest and have a solid organization started and plans arranged for the carrying of the bonds on election day before the Fiesta calls us all away to other considerations.

Let the friends of the water bonds get into line at once and see that public interest is awakened and kept awake. Let the vote be decisive.

FOR THE GOOD OF THE ORDER.

That great fraternal order, the Native Sons, is engaged in a matter which certainly comes under the head, "For the good of the order." The movement is to displace Abe Ruef and other dishonest and dangerous persons from membership. It certainly is a manifestation of commendable self-respect. If other orders to which the San Francisco grafters belong will take similar action, the effect will be good all around.

And why should such action as this against Ruef be confined to him or to his grafting associates? Why should not these organizations see to it that unworthy members who disgrace their orders everywhere and at all times be expelled? It is an act of discipline provided for in the by-laws of all organizations. The laxest associations have such provision in their articles of organization. These proceedings have been found necessary to maintain the existence of such orders, and in proportion as discipline under the rules is preserved the societies flourish.

This is a bit of worldly wisdom not always remembered by members of lodges, of churches and of beneficial organizations. The great Emperor known as Barbarossa once was guilty of heinous barbarity practiced on certain of his subjects. When he presented himself at the altar of the cathedral of Milan, the bishop passed him by, refusing him the sacrament. The powerful King made a great outcry against the priest. But that priest was Ambrose, who had been a soldier and knew not fear, but did know discipline. Before Barbarossa could kneel and receive the sacrament, he had to come bareheaded, barefooted and actually crawl on his knees from the church door to the altar and there profess penitence for his crime in the presence of all. Religion was not weakened by the act of Ambrose.

The trouble in lodges is that good fellowship sometimes goes for too much and discipline for too little. Ruef was a popular member of some parlor. He had money to spend and no doubt dispensed fragrant cigars and drinks redolent of lemon peel. Why care whose money he was throwing around?

Brethren, your organization carries in the community respect, dignity and confidence in proportion to that of your members as they are known in the community where they live and move, and not in proportion to what they pass for in the lodge room.

Turn the rascals out.

The initiative and referendum should particularly appeal to the Democratic party, as Mr. Bryan says. And yet if it were to initiate anything the matter would be almost certain to be referred back to it again.

If the whole world were sure that there were to be no more wars the good roads movement would have a much larger treasury to bank it.

THE RETURN OF THE WATER WAGON.

"No booze on this trip."—The Mayor.

OUR NEIGHBORS, THE BIRDS.

"Brother birds," said Francis d'Assisi, one time when he was preaching to them and they came down and nestled in his tunic for very love of him, "Brother birds, you ought to praise and love your Creator very much. He has given you feathers for clothing, wings for flying and all that is needful for you. He has made you the noblest of all his creatures; he permits you to live in the pure air; you have neither to sow nor to reap, and yet He takes care of you."

And yet, like the rest of us, the birds have their troubles, particularly just now when they are housebuilding and preparing to raise new broods to gladden and delight a world that to some extent is undeserving of them. One has but to stroll along any of the tree-lined residence streets of Los Angeles these matchless days of the California springtime, to see that the birds are worrying themselves even as much as we poor folk are, and quite over the same things, too.

In the ways of men it is too often the "dog-eat-dog" theory that obtains and makes the world hard to live in when it ought to be, and easily could be, as happy as heaven itself were we but to learn that all we need "is just the art of being kind." In the world of the birds it is more a case of cat eat bird than of dog eat dog. Oh, those terrible, heartless, marauding, cruel cats, how the birds dread them. How they scold them from the tree tops and swoop down on them in unequal battle, placing their very lives in jeopardy in defense of their homes. Scold, scold, scold the whole day long, forgetting to sing, forgetting to be happy.

It is really the cat alone, we are glad to say, who has murderous designs on the birds, but our feathered neighbors, in their vast and pitiful distress, seem to think that we are all leagued against them. They scold dogs and men, indiscriminately, although the dog spends but little of his time worrying them, and the man none. The other day a man passing down Figueroa street was much astonished to find a pair of blackbirds pecking at him in the most angry manner imaginable. Their nest was in a tree that was at hand. They thought he was about to destroy that little home which they had builded with such infinite care and wonderful skill. The man spoke to the birds much as St. Francis might have done. "Foolish blackbirds," he said, "and do you think I would harm you or your house? God forbid! I am your friend. You must not scold me. Call to me, instead, and I will always run to help and protect you."

Let us do what we can to make the birds feel better about things right along now until the trying time of family-growing is over with and the youngsters are born and bred to the free winds that wait their new-found pinions. Much as we admire our neighbor's cat, let us not hesitate to cast a brickbat at her if we find her warring on our little neighbors of the air.

REAL JOY.

I love to think of boyhood days when
I arose at four,
And fetched of water from the well
5000 pails or more,
And then I'd wake the harrow up and pacify the plow.
I love to lie in bed and think I needn't
do it now.

I love to think of boyhood days when
I the porkers fed.
I used to fix their breakfast food ere yet the sky was red.
I used to dry shampoo the horse and manicure the cow.
I love to lie in bed and think I needn't
do it now.

PROMINENT PERSONS.

Daniel A. Campbell, who has been appointed postmaster of Chicago, replacing Mr. Busse, elected Mayor, is a Senator and a prominent lawyer of the State. He is known as "the silent man," and his leadership in the Senate of late years has been absolute.

Ambassador Bryce, the British representative in Washington, is rapidly acquiring a reputation for being the most democratic member of the Diplomatic Corps. He is easily accessible to visitors and he smokes a well-seasoned pipe during working hours.

Official Washington is agog because Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes does not keep a carriage. The Supreme Judge makes his way to business by a street car. Sometimes, perhaps, he hangs on a strap. And Mrs. Justice Holmes, when she goes to make her social calls, drives in a hired hansom cab.

Vice-President Fairbanks is entertaining much more liberally and frequently than formerly, and has employed a chef who takes precedence as a buyer with the market people of even the White House chef. Busybodies say his living expenses have suddenly jumped from a rate of $30,000 per annum to $100,000.

Lord Lister, the distinguished British surgeon who recently joined the Grand Army of octogenarians, in court circles is known as Lord "Delivorus." This nickname comes from his having enjoyed the distinction of being present at the birth of every prince and princess in Great Britain for more than a generation.

Gov. Deneen of Illinois has asked the Senate and House of his State to form some plan for a general observance of the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln on February 12, 1909. He suggests that a commission be created to formulate plans for the participation of the State in what is intended to be a national celebration.

One of the best friends of the newspaper correspondents in Washington is John Kean, senior United States Senator from New Jersey. Many important items of news have been made known by Mr. Kean to these representatives of the press long before they became public. Nothing is so dear to the heart of a newspaper man as a good "beat," but the Senator has yet to find one of these news gatherers who has betrayed his confidence.

HOROSCOPE FOR THIS DAY.

Wednesday, April 24, 1907.

BY COZETTE.

"A day for subterfuge."

The 114th day of this year. Moon is in the first quarter; age 21 days. Jupiter is evening and Venus is morning star.

The changeable and uncertain moon governs this wavering day. Beware of trickery and artifice. In all transactions of a business nature watch out for craft and cunning word juggling. Read carefully all papers and documents submitted to you for criticism or signature. Beware of fraud and cheating at every turn.

Talk little, but listen keenly, lest an artful tongue deceive and impose upon you to your grief.

Women should be very wary of all proposals received today, both relative to matters of business and also affairs of a social nature.

Those whose birth date this day is will come to wealth shortly, through some scheme or invention. The coming year will prove the most fortunate of their entire life.

Children born today will be of most brilliant and extraordinary wit. They will turn every opportunity to telling account, for the benefit of others as well and as quickly as for themselves. They will count the world for a friend.

Once Was Enough.

In the village of Poitou a woman fell into a trance. After the Poitevin custom, she was wrapped in a sheet and carried to the cemetery; but as the procession was passing through a narrow road a thorn of the wayside pierced the sheet, wounding her so that the blood flowed and she awoke. Fourteen years later the woman really died, and again was borne toward the grave. As the procession passed through the narrow road the husband cried: "Not so near the hedge, friends; not so near the hedge!"—[Philadelphia Record.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

An audience of 1200 people listened to the organ-vocal recital at the Auditorium last night, tendered by Bruno Kingsley and Mme. Ester Adaberto.

A rare programme was offered, and while the main good results were achieved in that the applicability of the organ to every class of music may be almost considered—and may be doubted—evidence afforded in last evening's concert.

Mr. Kingsley, who is an astonishingly clever soloist, opened the programme with the prelude to "Die Meistersinger," and the work of the organist was brilliant, but the responsive effects of the instrument were really chaotic. Nowhere, possibly in the light, facile passages for violins, where delicacy of touch and instantaneous answer are absolutely essential, the organ gave its responses of varied and beautifully colored tone, but in a comparatively ponderous work, marring the composer's idea and hopelessly blurring the complete effect of the whole overture.

INSTANCES OF LONGEVITY

Aged Hundred and Four Years.

Mrs. Catherine Klein of Bristol, Pa., has passed the 104th milestone of her life, and although she has been confined to her bed for the past five years, most of the time, she is still bright and cheerful as can be. She is a native of Darmstadt, Germany, and came to the United States in 1825, a widow with six children. She married a second time and has survived her second husband and all but one of her children.

Over a Century.

Wm. H. Winslow of Bristol, Pa., just reached his 102d birthday. He was born in County Donegal, Ireland, and came to the United States when 30 years old, and settled in Philadelphia. A few years later he moved to Bristol and took up the business of shoe cobbling, which he still follows. He has been married four times, and is now a widower. He is a devout Presbyterian, and except in stormy weather always attends church on Sunday.

A Well-Preserved Woman.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hazelton of Bristol, Pa., has celebrated her 103d anniversary, and is a remarkably well-preserved woman. She was born in Ireland, but has lived in this country over seventy years. She has never worn glasses, and can recall when she was last ill. Her mental powers are remarkably well preserved for one of her age.

Every day Mrs. Hazleton reads the daily papers with much interest, the financial page, for which most women care little, is, strange to say, the one that is perused most carefully by the aged woman. The reports of the stock market are examined carefully every evening, and she comments intelligently on the conditions of financial affairs.

A Century Old.

Mrs. Ruth Clayton of Greenfield, Ind., is the oldest resident of Hancock county, and a few days since received a reception in celebration of her one hundredth birthday. Following a short spell of illness a few weeks ago, Mrs. Clayton lost her hair, which was silvery white, but a few days ago her hair began to grow again, but is black in color instead of white.

A Hundred and Eight Years.

Peter Hull, colored, of New London, Ct., has celebrated his one hundred and eighth birthday anniversary. He was born in slavery at St. Johns, Fla., about 1799, and he can remember the British ships entering the harbor of Fernandina, and firing on the fort. When he was 13 years old, which occurred in 1812. In addition to this he can remember the word of peace. He knew his family well at the time of his birth that 1799 was the date, in spite of his great age and the fact that he has done much hard work during his lifetime, Hull is still active.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

A audience of 1300 people listened to a song-recital at the Auditorium last night, tendered by Bruce Kingsley and Mme. Ester Adaberto.

The programme was offered, and with good results were achieved. As to the applicability of the organ to the use of music may be sincere-ly stated may be doubted by those afforded in last evening's

Notwithstanding the light, facile passages and, where delicacy of tone was simultaneous answer are absolutely essential, the organ gave its volumes varied and beautifully colored tones. In a comparatively ponderous work, marring the composer's idea and utterly blurring the complete effect of the whole overture.

Later, in the very next number, the "Merry Wives," this organ proved one of the most extraordinary instruments ever heard in this city, the composer has revelled in the wealth of resources, in that it was separately almost every melody in the orchestra. And, of course, this organ, with its well-nigh infinite number of stop-combinations was fully equal to such a task.

Some of its movements the Suppe "Light Cavalry" overture was an admirable specimen. Its interpretation under Mr. Kingsley's hands was full of musical but full of vivid temperamental touches. The finale was played at almost lightning-like speed, with electric and brilliant whirlwind effects that one wonder what Mr. Kingsley would do to the mile-a-minute music in the "Semiramide" overture.

Both the minor fantasie and fugue showed the organ at its best.

The "Water Nymph" and the "Huldigungsmarsch" concluded Mr. Kingsley's part of the programme.

Adaberto was enthusiastically received. Her first song was the "Swedish air in the first act of "Mignon," which again exhibited the wonderful coloring of her voice and its perfect shading and its expressiveness. The prima donna suffered slightly here from no doubt the "warming up" of her vocal cords and from unaccustomed concert surroundings, but the finale of the air was delivered with finished ease and mastery. Her second song was the "Jewel" air from "Faust." For some strange reason, had a beautiful introductory passages of. Her closing selections were "Ave Maria," and the "Pagliacci." A Val. Lace Sale Today

Good judges of Valenciennes laces, used to paying much more for duplicates of these, will be our best buyers.

Standard patterns of our regularly-purchased French, German and Italian laces, exceptionally good for trimming waists, undergarments, handkerchiefs, etc., in two lots today—

Lot 1: Val. laces 50c a piece of 12 yards; regularly 65c to 90c.

Lot 2: Val. laces 90c a piece of 12 yards; regularly $1 to $1.50.

Matched sets of insertions and edgings in white and cream, widths from 3-4 to 2 inches, in the season's desirable patterns, are the ones you may expect to find at these low prices. Bolts will not be cut.

Extra Values in Linings

Not often that the staples of life are reduced, materials that you need year in and year out usually hold pretty rigidly to established values. Here are two or three notable exceptions, in good linings:

Sateen, silecia and percaline linings, in tan, brown and other good shades, 36 inch widths, ranging in value between 18c and 25c, on sale now at 7 1-2c yd.

Venetian sateen lining, 36 inches wide, in all staple colors, our direct purchase from the makers, Butterfield & Co., on sale Wednesday only, instead of 65c, at 50c yard.

$1.25 Spring Suitings . . . 75c

If you want to be sure of absolutely good taste in dress this summer, make a selection of some fabric that runs to black and white in its practically infinite number of combinations. These handsome light-weight suitings, for example, in black-and-white and gray-and-white stripes and checks, are exceedingly stylish, and if you can tell them from the genuine imported stuffs of which they're copies, you're cleverer than most women.

42 and 44 inch widths, on Wednesday only, instead of $1.25, 75c yard.

25c Ribbons, 18c Yard

Plaids, Roman stripes, Dresdens and plain ribbons of nearly all shades, with black and white, widths 3 1-2 to 5 inches, for 18c a yard today.

Grenadines---Aristocrats Among Silks

Black silk grenadines have one of the places of highest honor in the silk section. If you have not seen the many beautiful ones you have missed the loveliest of this season's black-stuffs. Let this little list serve as an introduction,

Silk and wool Hernani—$2 to $3.50 yd.
Iron Frame—$1.25 to $2 yard.
Sewing Silk—$1.50 to $3 yard.

Suit Values to $27.50 for $15

Suits that found ready sale, in similar styles, at $17.50, $20, $22.50, $25 and even $27.50, are offered this week at the one price of $15. All late spring models—last of lots—and so hurried out at this little price. Etons, mostly, attractively trimmed with folds of same materials, ornamental buttons and fancy braidings. Gray-and-white and black-and-white stripes, checks, plaids, also plain black materials in the collection.

Baldwin Refrigerators For Government Hospitals
Twenty-Second Year

The Baldwin Refrigerator Company has been notified that its proposal to furnish the U. S. public health and marine hospital service with refrigerators for the current fiscal year has been accepted, making the twenty-second consecutive year that this important branch of the government service has adopted the Baldwin dry air refrigerator for use in all its hospitals and quarantine stations. So highly were these refrigerators regarded by the surgeons and stewards as far back as 1884-1885, that one of them was included in the government exhibit at world's exposition, New Orleans, marked "Standard refrigerator for hospital use."—Burlington Free Press, August 18, 1906.

MAY SUSTAIN ITSELF SOON.

Business Administration for County Farm.

Practical Improvements Are Being Planned.

Refurbishing of Buildings Is in Progress.

A "business administration" for the County Farm, which gives promise of bringing that institution much nearer the self-sustaining mark than it has ever been before, has been instituted by Supervisor S. T. Eldridge, under whose direct charge the farm is placed.

"I have an ambition to make the County Farm self-sustaining, and I believe it can be done within two years," said Supervisor Eldridge, yesterday, during his visit to the farm with Supervisors Alexander and Patterson to plan various improvements.

As an earnest of his intentions he has provided for an enlargement of the dairy, poultry yards, and vegetable fields, and for the planting in alfalfa of a lot of land which, heretofore, has yielded little return.

Last year there was received from oranges grown at the County Farm the sum of $11,319.06. The expense of raising them was $1012.40, so that the net profit amounted to $10,306.64.

This year the orange sales from the farm already amount to $8254.19, and there will be six or seven carloads of late Valencias to market in the latter part of June.

The small vegetable garden, which was sufficient to supply only a minor part of the table demands, has been expanded to include ten acres. Several acres of thrifty potatoes will soon be ready for use, while others are being planted.

Patches of alfalfa, amounting probably to thirty acres, have been pretty well run out by the wire grass, but Superintendent D. A. Chick has planned to seed sixty acres to alfalfa by fall, which will furnish ample feed for the dairy and for work horses.

DAIRY IN FINE SHAPE.

There are now 125 head of cattle on the farm, and of these fifty-eight are milch cows. It is the purpose of the dairyman, Thomas Clark, to increase the herd to 200. He is now sending sixty gallons of milk per day to the County Hospital; thirty-six gallons per day are used at the farm, and about twenty gallons are turned into butter. About 300 pounds of butter per month is sent from the farm to the County Hospital. The cow stables are kept in fine shape. They are clean and airy and the cattle are in good condition.

The poultry yards also are showing the effects of the expansion policy. Three incubators are at work, and the yards are simply alive with little chicks. It is the intention to increase the flocks so as to keep an average of 3000 chickens on the place.

By another season there will be a material increase in the orange crop. Quite a number of trees have been budded and will bear freely next season, as they are now well set with blossoms. The report circulated recently that many of the trees had been seriously injured by heavy cyanading is said by Superintendent Chick to be false. He states that not more than five trees were affected, and that these have since put out new growth and blossoms, so that they will bear the average crop.

On the switch of the Salt Lake Railroad, at the County Farm station, there is being erected a packing-house, 40x80 feet, which will save the farm a considerable expense in the handling of its orange crop. The building is to cost $3500. In the basement there will be a large storage room, which is much needed for machinery and supplies.

A serious need of the farm at present is a new laundry with suitable equipment and the employment of some experienced person to handle the laundry work. At present the stronger of the inmates undertake to do the laundry work for the institution, but their labor is so fitful that it is not dependable, and frequently the work has to be sent outside.

Supervisor Eldridge is maturing plans for a laundry and for the installation of a new pumping plant near the main buildings; the installation of electric lights, so as to lessen the danger from fires through the old people carrying lights; the building of new and sanitary toilets for the men's wards, and the erection of a pavilion and stockade for the care of the harmless insane. There is also to be a blacksmith shop, which, it is said, will pay for itself within one year, through handling the farm work.

All the inmates at the farm who are able to work are encouraged to do so, for their physical benefit. It is true that they can accomplish but little, and that generally requires superintendence; but they are far happier when employed.

Superintendent Chick has what he terms his "floating gang," subject to call for special labor at any time. These are the most likely men whom he has selected from time to time, and they receive the munificent salaries of $2.50 per month for their special services. It is a decided honor to be enrolled in the "floating gang," and the "pin money" is by no means despised.

OLD CHAPS TRAP GOPHERS.

Some of the old men just now are putting in much time in the fields trapping gophers. The Supervisors pay a bounty of two cents per gopher captured on the farm. The tails are duly turned in to the farm superintendent, where they are checked up and destroyed. One of the men made $3 at this labor last month. The 325 acres gives them a wide range, and gophers are plentiful.

The County Farm is now entirely independent of any outside water supply. It has two fine wells for irrigation. One of these is 185 feet in depth and has a flow of forty inches; the other is 517 feet deep with a natural flow of forty inches, but which, under the pump, gives a supply of 200 inches.

The County Farm is a beautiful place; it would be a fine site for a summer hotel. But with all its beauty it is a pitiful place to visit, because of the sight of the decrepit and tottering old men and women who have gone there to remain until death calls.

As in most of the public institutions of California, there are many more men than women. At present time there are 217 inmates at the farm, and but eighteen of these are women.

"Booze" is responsible for the presence here of fully 70 per cent. of these men," said Dr. Price, the resident physician, yesterday. "It is a striking temperance lesson."

Out at one corner of the farm, in a little triangle surrounded by tall eucalyptus trees, drooping branches of which reach almost to the earth, is the County Farm cemetery. In this little plot are more than 300 graves. The journey to the sheltered triangle is the only one that many of the present inmates will ever take.

Yet the death rate is a light one, when the ages of the men and women at the farm are considered. There is scarcely a person there under 60 years old. Twelve are over 85. Last week one of the inmates died at the age of 91. There have been only thirty-six deaths in the past three years.

THEY'RE OFF FOR BEATTY.

Excursion of the Ten Coaches Leave on the Salt Lake for the New Nevada Town.

At 8 o'clock last night the Beatty special bearing about two hundred Angelenos to the new Nevada town, in honor of Railroad Day, left the Salt Lake depot. There were ten Pullman coaches attached and streamers bedecked the train from the engine to the last car. Williams's Band of twenty pieces was present, and the musicians blew until they were blue in the face in honor of the excursionists. There were flowers galore, and every window of the cars was decorated gaily with carnations. The two baggage coaches were laden with good things, and there was almost half a carload of carnations sent by the Alexandria Hotel to the management of the Montgomery Hotel of Beatty.

Fully a score of residents of Beatty who have been in Los Angeles for a week or so stayed their departure waiting upon the excursion. The train will arrive in Beatty at 5 o'clock this afternoon if it is on time. Celebrations and receptions have been arranged at Las Vegas and other points along the line, but the grand finale will be when the town of Beatty, which is experiencing a real estate boom, is entered. It is confidently expected by those who left on the special that the townspeople of Beatty would meet the train a mile or so down the road and make a raid on it with a proffer of good things to eat and drink.

There will be a barbecue, a dance, a banquet, auto trips, etc. The train is expected to return to Los Angeles Friday.

DOPE TO DOPE FIENDS.

Prisoner Caught in Act of Receiving Package from Loiterer and Arrest Follows.

Prisoners in the City Jail are being supplied with drugs and "dope fiends" are able to satisfy their cravings despite the fact that they are behind jail bars. At least one plan of supplying the city prisoners with their daily potions was thwarted yesterday when Frank Miller was caught in the act of tossing a package of "dope" to a member of the chain gang.

Among the loiterers who have watched the operations of the chain gang each day Miller has been noticeable. He is a "hop head" and has served time in the City Jail. It has been his habit to obtain orders for the drug from the prisoners and supply them from the outside. He is in jail now serving a thirty days' sentence.

William McCormick, a member of the chain gang was the man who failed to catch the package tossed by Miller. Instead of the bag of tobacco the package seemed to be, it contained opium. Miller was at once taken in custody.

BEAR BRAVELY MAIMED LIVES

Explosion Victims Still in City Hospitals.

May Anderson Has a Slim Chance of Recovery.

Work to Visit Widow of One Unfortunate.

It is ten weeks today since the dreadful explosion in Cressaty's restaurant that wrecked and maimed many useful lives in Los Angeles. The victims have had their present trials eased by the prompt distribution of the emergency fund, but this financial assistance in an hour of need is only a drop in the bucket compared with the flood of woe that was loosed upon some of the unfortunates.

At the California Hospital May Anderson is still battling for life. She has a fighting chance and no more, but she has the grit of a general in the battle to keep death at bay. The broken bones of her legs have never united and have had to be held in place at this weary time. "You would never look the dreadful sight," said her physician yesterday, "if you saw her as I do, and you would never be willing to look upon such a spectacle again." Her legs were not amputated in the first place because her life would have been snuffed out, like a candle, but no one can say what will be the result of the work and pain of keeping her alive. Again and again she has sunk very low and then rallied.

KIND FRIENDS HELP.

Many kind friends, and strangers as well, are interested in May Anderson, and she received a larger portion of the relief fund than any other sufferer because many contributions were started for her. She is wonderfully brave and controlled, but she feels much bitterness of spirit and cannot see how the good God let it all happen. "I do not dare to think about planning for the future," said brave Annie Hooper at the Emergency Hospital today. "It seems as though trying to get better is all I can think about just now."

It is certainly all that most people could think about after having had a leg amputated at the knee, and the other ankle shattered.

"To see it was a great shock for a girl of my age," she said, "and I cannot recover as quickly as a real strong person might."

She was wheeling herself about in a chair, and the interest of the moment was having her picture taken with her favorite nurse.

"Won't you please put it in the paper about how kind my nurses have been to me?" she said. "Won't you please put their names in, too—Miss Jones and Miss Lesser, and Miss Richardson and Miss Hegarty."

TO HAVE ARTIFICIAL LEG.

Miss Hooper is soon to have an artificial leg, as she needs the exercise of getting about on crutches to assist the recovery of the other leg. She will have to be at the hospital several months longer, as she has no relatives in this State; are men of years of experience and are experts, each in his respective branch.

Mrs. Haggerty is also at the California Hospital. Her pretty young face is round and sweet, but the soft eyes brimmed with tears as she mentioned her father, yesterday, the fact that she has now no one to care for her in her helpless condition. Her legs were stretched out as she wheeled chair, useless as yet. She must go about in this fashion for a year before she can hope to walk. She has been in this chair a few days, and tells that she leaves the hospital to go to Tropico, where friends offered to care for her for a time.

TAILOR STILL ON CRUTCHES.

Wasilius, a German tailor who was badly injured in the accident at the Emergency Hospital, is able to walk about on crutches, but his arms and legs are still swollen and sore from the many fractures. He is going to a friend's home on Olive street in a few days, but he says he will have to learn another trade. "Can you do tailor's work without standing on your feet?" asked the reporter.

"No," he replied, "I have been unable to stand ten or twelve hours a day sewing coats, and I cannot any more."

VERY POLITE JAPANESE.

Zorlki, a Japanese who was employed, left the Clara Barton Home some time ago, but his friends say he is still ill, and is planning to return to Japan, as he is unable to work. His present address is No. 1—, San Pedro street. He was very grateful for the assistance rendered him.

Miss Alice Stephens, who did so much work in connection with the fund raised and disbursed by Western secretary of the Christian relief committee, visited Zorlki and left him some money while he was in the hospital. When she left, she apologized for his inability to rise from the bed to open the door for her. In a letter acknowledging the receipt of some money he said: "Thank you very much, and I wish you to tell the cordial ladies and distributors of the fund." The other Japanese who was injured wrote that he did not need any more money, when further assistance was offered to him.

Two inmates of No. 425 Amelia street, who lost her husband in the explosion, has been aided by the relief fund, but she has several small children, and is soon to be visited by one of the victims, Mrs. Annie Chitwood, back at work in the same restaurant where she was hurt. She suffered internal injuries which will make it very hard for her to work as a waitress, but she has a family to support, as well as herself.

Mrs. Crawford's poor old blind mother has been assisted by the relief fund, but the light of the world went out for her when the explosion killed her daughter.

Shriner Meeting.

In celebration, the Shriner Conference and the big Educational Association Convention, following each other in the near future, will bring to Southern California a population of people from all parts of the earth. The advance guard is here, the crowded condition of the restaurants, and street conditions only will strive in an effort to relieve these newcomers, for they will assuredly coming to stay; the restaurant keepers, hotel and boarding proprietors and others, will in three months a most opportune advertising; and The Times offers its columns and more certain returns for money expended than any other medium.

FINDS HIS WIFE IN COURT.

She Tells Husband Strange Tale About Being Drugged—Sentenced for Drunkenness.

Eduard Harttig, who recently arrived from New York, found his wife in the Police Court yesterday, after he had searched for her all night. She was arraigned on a charge of drunkenness, and was sentenced to two days in jail. She declares it is her first offense, and her husband confirms her story, but Justice Frederickson refused to allow the woman to leave the jail until she had been punished.

The Harttigs were married in December, 1906, and have been in Los Angeles only long enough to purchase a lot in a new subdivision out of the city. Monday night the wife left their little cottage early in the evening to buy groceries. She did not return. Her story was told in the Police Court yesterday, and her husband, astonished, listened to the strange tale.

When she arrived in town, Mrs. Harttig says, she was approached by a man who invited her to drink. He took her to a lodging-house on East Fifth street. She remembered that the police came to the man's room and knocked on the door and that he advised her to jump out of a window.

Fearing she would fall into the hands of the police, Mrs. Harttig jumped. She fell a short distance and then tried to escape. She endeavored to make her way across a skylight and fell into a saloon below. She was severely bruised and cut about the face and hands. Then she was taken to jail.

The police arrested a man who gave the name of C. Cowman, who, it is alleged, occupied the room with Mrs. Harttig. A charge of drunkenness was lodged against him yesterday morning and he paid a small fine.

The husband pleaded yesterday for the release of his wife.

"My wife does not know any one here," he said. "When she met that fellow she took a drink with him simply out of politeness. He must have taken advantage of her by means of a drug. I will be here on Thursday morning as soon as she gets out of jail, and I'll never let her out of my sight again. It'd a lesson to her and she'll know better the next time."

RACE FOR LION SKIN.

Fleet-footed Thieves Escape but Leave Their Booty to Pursuing Taxidermist.

Luck and the ability to sprint at a 10-second gait recovered a valuable mountain lion skin for Roth Reynolds yesterday morning. The skin had been left out in a tanning bath Sunday night and at midnight was quietly removed by a pair of young thieves. Reynolds, who sleeps over his taxidermist shop at No. 235 East Fourth street, heard the marauders, but got to the door only in time to see them disappearing over a fence.

Yesterday morning, on the chance that the thieves might be thus apprehended, Reynolds started out to inform the other taxidermists of the city of his loss. His first visit was to Colburn's at Twelfth and Main streets. He had hardly entered the door when he saw two boys, 16 and 17 years of age, approaching the door, one of them having the skin under his arm. The boys recognized Reynolds and ran at top speed toward Thirteenth street.

Reynolds, in his younger days, had a record of ten and a half seconds in a 100-yard dash. "Stop, thieves!" he shouted, and tore along after in hot pursuit.

He gained at first and the frightened lads abandoned the skin. The ruse was unsuccessful and the taxidermist continued the chase. His wind failed, however, and when the quarry headed toward Broadway he began to lose ground. Much to the disgust of the hunter the onlookers regarded the whole thing as a good joke and refused to help him, so he gave it up and returned with his skin.

Reynolds has given a description of the lads to the police and hopes that they will be taken. The skin is an exceptionally fine one. It is owned by C. L. Davis of Santa Maria.

BEES OBSESS BUILDING.

Main Structure at County Farm Turned Into Hive, and County Apiary Inspector Called.

Bees at the County Farm who installed themselves in the gables of the main building fully five years ago have become such a nuisance to inmates at the farm that a campaign of extermination has been started.

Yesterday Supervisor Eldridge took to the farm E. A. Fischer, county inspector of apiaries, to secure his advice as to the best method of procedure. It was believed that a vast amount of honey was stored within the deep recesses of the cornices.

Fischer climbed up the devious ways through garret and scuttle-hole, crawled out on joists and cranned himself into darkened and tight-fitting spaces until he made a thorough investigation. He reported that there is really but a small amount of honey to be found.

With ammonia he swabbed the place and with oil-soaked torch he swept the exterior of the cornices, ridding the building of thousands of the pests; but he declared that it would be necessary to tear out the sections of cornice, or rip off a section of the roof before they could be thoroughly cleared out. This will be done when the exterior woodwork is being repainted, which will occur soon, and which will require special scaffolding.

UNIFORM RANK CONTEST.

Six Companies to Try for Possession of Trophy Cup at Long Beach Auditorium.

The fourth annual drill of the uniform rank companies of four well-known fraternal orders will be held at Long Beach tomorrow night. Those participating will be Company 25 and Company 32, Knights of Pythias; Company 22, Knights of the Maccabees; Company B, Royal Foresters; Company 2 and Company 3, Fraternal Brotherhood.

It is expected that fully fifteen hundred people will go down to Long Beach to witness this contest of skill. A special train will be run on the Salt Lake route, and returning to Los Angeles it will land passengers at the First-street station by 12 o'clock, giving ample opportunity to catch street cars homeward bound.

A trophy cup goes to the best drilled team. Each company will drill the same schedule, and the judges will be composed of one representative from each order and the fifth is to be Capt. Frederick. Music is to be furnished by Donatelli's Band, and after the drill there will be dancing.

A short parade will precede the drill, the companies, headed by Donatelli's Band, taking the route from the Long Beach Salt Lake depot north on Pacific street to Second, thence to Pine and then to the Auditorium, where the drill will take place.

CAPTAIN KIDD

Was a Rare Old Pirate, But He Never Robbed Himself.

All We Ask Is the Chance to Rob Ourselves of Profits While Our Piano Sale Lasts.

We have to move. Robbed of profits means that we can't make money under present conditions. We have the stock and the location, but there it ends. One set of fellows are over us and plugging up the sidewalk with heavy timbers, doing things all round our front. Another lot of just as good fellows are working overtime on our new building, the very prospect of which brings the shudders when we think of trundling a lot of fine new pianos around while we move in. So we take our choice of two evils and lop off profits to folks who can command some cash rather than to have to sell damaged goods later at a sacrifice.

We have quoted you special prices all week with good results so far as number of sales goes, but that's about all. Alright, let us see about this: This morning at 9:30 a.m., no sooner and not a minute later, we will sacrifice one piano to the first comer as follows: A full size, 7 1-3 octave, genuine ivory keys, bell metal plate, 3 unisons throughout the treble scale, muffler practice pedal, continuous hinges, case a most beautiful dark Flemish Oak or choice of walnut or mahogany, tone deep, rich, full, sonorous, yet with upper notes clear as a bell, elastic, responsive touch, a piano that sells anywhere and everywhere around $400 on the easy payment plan, a well-known make we dare not name, offered as it is: Morning price with $50.00 cash or more, only $235 net. Just one, but no more. Let us see your face and your money at 9:30 this morning.

Uniform Rank Members of Fraternal Brotherhood Propose to Provide Test of New State Law.

Indignation is expressed by members of the uniform rank sections of various fraternal orders over the new State law regarding wearing of uniforms. The uniform rank of the Fraternal Brotherhood proposes to give the officials an opportunity to test the validity of the new provisions.

Gen. G. S. Adolph, commanding the uniform rank of this order, said yesterday that it is the intention of his companies to continue to use the uniform which they adopted several years ago, although there is considerable similarity between it and the State militia uniforms.

He declares that it is the belief of fraternal officers that the law can easily be proven unconstitutional, and that to enforce it against such orders as have for some time past had a regular style of uniform would be really ex post facto and would not stand before the courts.

At any rate, the uniform rank members of the Fraternal Brotherhood intend to freely wear their uniforms and take their chances on arrest under the new law. If this comes, they are prepared to make a contest which will establish the standing of the new law.

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

ONE of the most charming functions with which Mr. and Mrs. G. Aubrey Davidson, who leave soon for San Diego, have been honored was the handsome dinner given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kemp of No. 3006 South Grand avenue at the Jonathan Club.

The affair took place in the banquet-room, and here the large round table was spread with rich lace cloth and sparkling cut glass and silver. A low mound of spicy pink carnations and ferns was arranged in the center of the table and about it were crystal candelabra shaded with pink rose shades. Pink tulle and shimmering satin ribbon of the same hue completed the beauty of the effect. The place cards were the feature of the dinner, and were planned and executed by the clever hostess. They were in the shape of an open sheet of music adorned with a hand-painted carnation of pink, and each one bearing a few lines from a popular song. The lines as read by each completed a charming little story, in keeping with the occasion. For instance Mr. Davidson's was first and appropriate, too, as follows: "So This Brave Knight in Armor Bright Went Gayly to the Fray." Mr. Mathuss read, "How can you leave me, how can you from me part?" and Mrs. Davidson read in response, "Some day I'll wander back again." Others read "Come back to Erin," and "Bring back my bonnie to me." The guests of honor were also showered with good wishes and charming toasts, making the evening one long to be treasured in the hearts of those present. Mr. Kemp was the best man at the wedding of Mr. Davidson and his wife, then Miss Rosetta Harden, thirteen years ago, and he produced one of the wedding invitations, causing much merriment.

Besides the guests of honor and host and hostess, covers were laid for Dr. and Mrs. Hugh K. Walker, Dr. and Mrs. Henderson Hayward, Mr. and Mrs. Z. D. Mathus, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Rowley, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hall.

MRS. I. H. NORTON,
young bride from San Francisco, who is here to make her home.

Nortons Here to Stay.

Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Norton of San Francisco have come here to make their home, and are staying temporarily at the Frontenac at No. 212 South Grand avenue. They are very delightful additions to local social and musical circles. Mrs. Norton is the possessor of a very beautiful contralto voice, of soft liquid quality, and has sung at a number of social functions here. Yesterday she sang before the Lyric Club, "Until We Came" (Metcalfe,) and others in charming style, quite delighting the members and their friends.

Mrs. Norton is a young bride and previous to her marriage she was Miss Charlotte Morris of San Francisco, well known in musical circles of that city. She was a pupil of Grace Davis Northrup, and has been a soloist in Trinity Episcopal Church of the northern metropolis. Mrs. Norton and her husband are planning to leave soon for a four months' European trip, and on their return will build a handsome home in the southwest part of the city.

Mrs. Hayward's Luncheon.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Henderson Hayward of No. 2501 Wilshire boulevard entertained with a buffet luncheon, having as guests about thirty women friends, and the remainder of the afternoon was spent in playing whist. Pink Maman Cochet roses decorated the entire home and scores were kept on cards bearing sketches of tiny automobiles. Handsome prizes were awarded.

Guests for the afternoon were Mmes. George L. Cole, Arthur Morlan, George Montgomery, Richard Perez, Josephine Butler, George Burrall, S. M. Goddard, S. K. Lindley, Valentine Peyton, Edwin S. Rowley, Clarence Stoner, C. T. Taggart, Charles T. Miller, Wincup, Shoemaker, Charles E. Anthony, Joseph Call, A. J. Chandler, R. B. Williamson, I. L. Hibbard, A. J. Salisbury, Albert H. Busch, Richard Beebe, J. W. Dawson, Frank E. Walsh, Charles W. Hinchcliffe, J. B. Stearnes and Reuben Shettler.

Treble Clef Club.

The members of the Treble Clef Club have issued invitations for their concert to be given on Friday evening, May 3, at the Woman's Club House at No. 940 South Figueroa street. After the concert a reception will be given to William H. Lott, the musical director.

Weds in Albuquerque.

Interesting news to Los Angeles friends will be that of Miss Ebal Healy of this city to Arthur Mienzer of Albuquerque, at that place. Rev. Hugh Cooper officiated and Josie Paynter and Emrett Van Cleave were the attendants. After May 1 the couple will be at home in Albuquerque. The bride is well known in Los Angeles, where she has many friends and was formerly stenographer for the Los Angeles Railway Company.

Miss Jones Is Hostess.

Miss Hortense B. Jones of No. 339 West Thirtieth street was hostess yesterday at a charmingly appointed ... tle affair given for the Emaon Club and other friends. Luncheon was served in the dining-room, from a long table spread with a cover of drawn work. Score cards were adorned with purple iris and ferns. Prizes were of hand-painted china and cut glass.

Guests and members present were B. A. Holmes, A. B. Cloes, P. G. Winnett and Misses Alice Atwell, Mignonette Hutton, Elizabeth Hutton, Emmie Luentzel, Irene Buell, Elizabeth Burns, Clara Condee, Italja Bower, Grace Rockwell, Rosalie Elcan, Lulu Elcan, Madge Ball and Pauline Elcar.

Mrs. Hagan's Party.

Mrs. Ralph Hagan entertained the members of the Westlake Card Club with a Japanese party yesterday at her home, No. 758 Lake street. Decorations, prizes and refreshments were in Japanese style. Many curios gathered by the hostess on her recent oriental trip were utilized. Guests included Mmes. A. E. Messerly, M. ... Spinks, C. C. Loomis, W. O. Morton, Frank Bowles, Wiltcie B. Ames, Geo. A. Ralphs, Rose Hagan, A. D. Hunter, J. H. Kelly, J. C. Princeton, C. B. Nichols, C. White, Webbe, Springe, F. Brown and Miss Grace Pease.

Worth While Club.

The Worth While Club held their business meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Mildred Lieberson, No. 303 Pavillion street. The following officers were elected for the next six months: President, Mina Stork; vice-president, Josephine Crank; secretary and treasurer, Mildred Lieberson; social secretary, Florence Goodale; assistant social secretary, Gertrude Crowe; corresponding secretary, Dora Murchisson; club visitors, Elsie Hinkelman and Florence Radbone.

For Buffalo Guests.

An elaborate enteratinment was given by Miss Fahey of No. 1224 Ionia street, Angeleno Heights, in honor of Miss Johanna Lovett, and her niece, Miss Jean Hughes, from Buffalo, N. Y. Handsomely gowned women assisted in entertaining the guests of honor. Those present were: Mmes. P. G. Cotter and Harry Phelan, Toronto; Miss Susie Lynch and the Misses Bennett and McMahon, from Bradford; Miss Kate and Nellie Desmond, Elizabeth Klenikhammer, Tessie and Irene Higgins, Mary McGarry, Margaret Quinn, Anna McDermott, Katherine and Nona Bell, Fannie Dilger, Carrie Muffen, Anna Lane, and Miss Phelan from Toronto. Pretty decorations and dainty lunch served by Mrs. Eggert made the afternoon a happy one. Hand-painted prizes and silver spoons were won at hearts by Mmes. Cotter and Phelan, and Miss Mullen. Miss Ana Malsonave was the vocalist.

Miss Marcher Honored.

Miss Viola Hehch was at home recently in honor of Miss Bernice Marcher, who has recently returned from Honolulu. The house was artistically decorated in lilies, roses and smilax. A game of progressive peanuts with hat pins was played, Miss Shepherd winning the first prize. Dainty refreshments were served and over an hour was spent at the table where Miss Marcher related the events of her trip, and sang a number of Hawaiian songs. Those present were: Misses Rowena Hall, Ruth Kellogg, Nettie Kirkum, Evelyn Pashia, Ruth Shepherd, Ivy Reed, B. Bynun, Inez Regan, Ida Hatch, Hazle Tahlas and Bernice Marcher.

Miss Peck Surprised.

Miss Ethel Peck of No. 390 West Forty-first street was delightfully surprised on her birthday by a merry company of young friends, the party having been arranged by her cousin, Miss Gertrude Stebbins. The home was decorated with a profusion of pink and white sweet peas and auto-telegraph contests furnished amusement for the evening. Refreshments were in keeping with the color scheme. The prizes were won by Miss Jessie Newcomb and Brooks Fisher, Mr. Fisher also contributed vocal selections. A delightful feature of the evening was the readings given by Miss Hazel Bawden, a clever young girl, who has recently returned from the north. Miss Bawden is a charming reader, and most expressive, her readings being so delicately done as to be most convincing.

Mrs. Glasby Honored.

Mrs. H. Victor Wright of No. 209 Thorpe street was hostess last evening at an informal affair given as a compliment to Mrs. I. L. Glasby of Calexico, who is her house guest. Mrs. Glasby is the wife of Rev. Glasby, who is a missionary in Calexico, and was formerly from Chatfield, Minn., as were all the guests of the evening. The home was effectively decorated and later a handsome supper was served.

Those present included Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Harriman, Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McClure, Mrs. Eunice Thurber, Mrs. Bessie Lamp, Mrs. S. M. Graves, Miss Floy Cooley, Mrs. Hillborn and son and daughter, and George S. Graves and Earl Sackett.

Mrs. Nichols Entertains.

Mrs. Franklin B. Nichols was hostess at a meeting of the West Adams Five Hundred Club at her home on Menlo avenue, entertaining most delightfully. The first prize, a beautiful hand-painted plate was captured by Mrs. W. R. Ramsey and the second, a silver salad fork, was given Mrs. Ethel Bennett. Those who enjoyed the afternoon were Mmes. Samuel S. Shepherd, Henry Henderson, Robert C. McCormick, Samuel B. McLenigan, Lawrence F. T. Curtis, Frank B. Walsh, M. E. Johnson, W. R. Ramsey, Hugh L. Jones, Walter J. Harvey, Edwin A. Lundy, J. B. Grady, Alice H. Covert, Ethel Bennett, John C. Cline, Edwin C. Fennessey, Sol Davis, James C. Brown, George Ponder and Misses Dent, Harvey, Lundy and Marian Glenn.

To Visit California.

Dr. and Mrs. C. P. Thomas, with Mrs. R. D. Beckon and Miss Maude Beckon of Spokane are on their way to California. They are prominent people there, and plan to visit San Francisco, first, and then come on down to Los Angeles, where they will inspect the fine hospitals here, partly in a pleasurable way and partly for professional reasons. They will also go to San Diego and farther south.

Mrs. Mary R. Root is the guest of her parents, Rev. J. R. Oden, of Hollywood.

WORLD INFLUENCES INVOLVED.

The General Prosperity of This Country Has Its Counterpart in Europe.

The remarkable industrial prosperity that has been so general in this country has had its counterparts, though perhaps in a less marked degree, in Great Britain, France and Germany. In Germany especially, according to a writer in Moody's Magazine, "there is the same general advance in commodity prices, with a corresponding reduction in the price of cheap government and other bonds; the same general advance in the wages of labor, attended by a demand for workmen far beyond the ability of the country to supply; the same heavy movement of goods on the railways of the country, leading to the extraordinary scarcity of cars; the same expansion in the export and import trade; the same activity in financial operations." Manifestly, there is a high tide of prosperity in this country, not because we are drafting upon the world supply and getting more than our share. It seems, rather, that prosperity is during this period in which the world is at peace and at work a widely distributed condition. It greatly broadens the problem when it is theorized that the prosperity of any leading nation is dependent upon world conditions; it is a theory, however, which, if generally adopted, will make for world peace.—[Baltimore American.

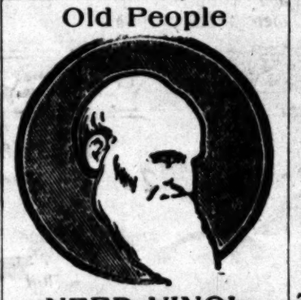
Old People



NEED VINOL

It Strengthens and Vitalizes

With old age comes feebleness and loss of power; the organs act more slowly and less effectually; the blood is thin, sluggish and watery; digestion is weak and food is not assimilated as it used to be.

Vinol repairs worn tissues and checks the natural decline. It tones up the digestive organs, aids assimilation, makes rich, red blood, and strengthens every organ in the body. In this natural manner Vinol replaces weakness with strength.

Vinol contains all the medicinal elements of cod liver oil in a concentrated form, taken from fresh cods' livers, the useless oil eliminated and tonic iron added.

It is because we know so well of what Vinol is made that we offer to return money if it fails to benefit.

Green Tag Sale Specials

Four representative items from the thousands that make up this Great Green Tag Sale. They show how you can save money on the very best furniture made.

$9.50 Maple Desk

Just as you see it in the picture herewith. This is one of the celebrated Grand Rapids desks—you can't get any better. All desks are reduced during the Green Tag Sale — anywhere from 15 to 40 per cent. We have good assortments in weathered oak, golden oak, birch, mahogany and maple.

We are closing out several lines of desk chairs during this sale. Prices are reduced about 25 per cent.

$7.50 Music Cabinet
$5.00

Just as you see it in the picture. The wood is birch, which takes a beautiful mahogany finish—you can't tell it from the real. There is ample shelf room for the ordinary collection of music, and there is a rod and rings from which to hang a curtain.

We have other music cabinet propositions which are interesting.

Our music cabinets come from the best factories in Grand Rapids.

$4 Bedroom Rocker

You can have it in maple, birch, mahogany finish, golden oak or weathered oak; either spindle or banister back. The chair to match is reduced to $2.45. This is only one of scores of bargains we have in bedroom chairs and rockers. You have only six days left—it is certainly time to hurry.

Our bedroom chairs and rockers come from the best factories in the world. Our regular prices are notably low.

$8.00 Porch Rocker

It is made of raffia, painted a grass green; design like cut. Arm chair is $4.50, side chair $3.75, low back rocker, $4.75. It is a chair that will last a life time.

Can You Ask for a Better Bargain?

She ...believed he was not telling the truth—at least not the entire truth—and she confesses now that she had an idea he had suffered the loss of his mustache either at the hands of practical jokers or during some lodge initiation.

GAVE HIM ANOTHER CHANCE.

Before they parted that evening Miss Greuber told him that she would give him another chance to produce a mustache. He promised to start at once, and he made good. The mustache grew and flourished. A week passed, two weeks, a month—and the mustache, black, luxuriant and certainly promising in the way of facial adornment, continued to grow and improve.

On the night of October 19 Fields took Miss Greuber to a concert, returned to her home with her, and then went to his house. He retired shortly before midnight. He remembers distinctly that Mrs. Shaw, the aged woman who kept the house and cooked for him, was ill that night, and her married daughter had come to spend the night in the house and prepare breakfast. He went to his room, retired, and fell asleep. When he awoke the mustache was gone. He was angry. He called Mrs. Shaw's daughter and asked if she had heard any one coming in during the night. She replied that no one had entered the house, because she had been up during the entire night applying hot cloths to her mother's back and kept the light in the hallway burning. The room in which the women slept was at the head of the stairs and to reach Fields's room any one would have had to pass their door.

The loss of that mustache caused serious trouble between Fields and Miss Greuber, but she finally agreed to give him another chance. Fields admits that he was frightened, puzzled and annoyed, not only because of the trouble with his fiancée, but because of the mysterious manner in which his mustache disappeared. Another thing that added to his alarm was the fact that his barber while shaving his beard inquired: "How did you shave that upper lip?" The barber, when pressed, declared that the hair had not been removed with a razor—or at least not with any kind of razor he ever had seen—and he said if any one attempted to shave that close with a razor the skin would tear or get sore.

Fields determined then to grow a mustache. He carefully locked himself in his room every night. When the mustache was three weeks and two days old it disappeared during the night. Fields vows that he locked his door before retiring, and that he slept like a log all night. He awakened before daybreak, however, with a feeling that something had happened, and instantly put his hand to his face, discovering that the mustache had gone. He had leaped from his bed, switched on the electric light, and found the door locked, the window locked, and nothing disturbed in the room. The discovery gave him the first real fright he had experienced. Before that he had groped around for possible explanations, and suspected that some practical joker was back of it all. This time, however, he became convinced that the ghost of his dead wife was shaving him to prevent him from wearing a mustache, and that she had carried her dislike for beards into the spirit world.

FIXES GUILT ON WIFE'S GHOST.

That loss almost drove him insane, but, spurred on by his love for Miss Greuber, he determined to try again. The date fixed for their wedding had passed, and she refused to make any definite promises, but he decided to try it again—convinced that, if he went to her with a good mustache to prove his earnestness and his devotion to her, she would take him. Five weeks passed—and the mustache was better than ever. He went to Miss Greuber and renewed his suit. She agreed that his devotion deserved some reward, and they set a new date for their wedding. Six weeks—seven weeks—two months passed. Fields was convinced that his wife's ghost had become reconciled to his improved appearance.

Then, in the night and while he slept, the mustache disappeared again.

That settled it. Fields did not go to Miss Greuber and plead with her for another chance. Instead he frankly told her that if she wanted him she would have to take him sans beard, sans mustache, sans goatee—that he never intended to let his beard grow even three days again. That ended the engagement—but Miss Greuber's friends are making wagers that she will accept him barefaced as he is after she gets over her anger.

Meerschaum in New Mexico.

Because of the discovery of vast deposits of meerschaum in the mountains of New Mexico it is likely that the monopoly of that mineral heretofore held by the Turkish government will be broken and pipes of that material will be lessened in cost.

Until recently all the meerschaum used in the commerce of the world was produced from a mine in the plains of Eskihi-sher, Anatoly, Turkey in Asia. In those mines are employed 10,000 men. The output of the mine was owned by the Turkish government and it kept the price up.

It is said that enough meerschaum has been discovered in Grant county, N. M., to supply the world's needs.

Meerschaum is a mineral known to scientists as "sepiolite." It is composed principally of silica and magnesium. It is found in fissures in the rock, where volcanic action has forced it up to the surface.

Meerschaum is used not only for making tobacco pipes, but because of its unique properties of resisting a high degree of heat and its ready absorption of water, it is put to various electrical and mechanical uses.

In the mines of New Mexico a solid block of meerschaum weighing forty-two pounds was taken out. It was the largest block of meerschaum ever mined.—[Kansas City Star.

A Charity Worker.

A crowd of richly dressed women and men were coming from the charity ball. It was 3 a.m. A poor woman stands at the outer door, asking alms. A lady appears, attired in a white satin wrap, and quickly enters her carriage.

"Would you be so kind as to give me a trifle?"

The lady pulls up the window. "Impossible! I have been dancing for you the whole night!"—[Chicago Journal.

The prophecy of mineralogists, chemists and scientists regarding the great future of the natural deposits of crude soda of California is on the eve of fulfillment—their faith in the richness and commercial importance of this wonderful resource as the center of a great industry will soon be realized. We bid you read the following statement of the officers of the Pacific Coast Soda Company about their splendid enterprise. Read again the heading of this ad. Study its import; make it a close personal appeal to yourself as an investor. We are absolutely certain that you cannot afford to let this splendid profit-taking opportunity slip past you without sharing in it. Hundreds of people have investigated and have invested. We are anxious to have you do likewise. Scan the list of gentlemen whose names are given herewith in fac-simile. They are men of highest integrity and splendid business ability. They know their proposition from A to Z and have conservatively figured out the whole proposition. Manufacturing enterprises are the profit-makers of the industrial world. Where they are fortunate enough to have an unlimited cheap raw material, and a fair market for their finished product, they have made rich men out of their stockholders. Never has an industrial concern appealed to the investor with a keener proposition. Using President Roosevelt's remark, it is "as clean as a hound's tooth." An we offer the ground floor price on shares at 80c. Within 30 days—less, in fact, about May first—the price will go to par—one dollar—and before four months it will be above par and hard to get.

Statement From the Officers

Don't Miss This Part of the Ad.

The undersigned officers and directors of the Pacific Coast Soda Company, desire to make this statement in order to acquaint the public exactly as to the conditions of their company and their properties.

In the first place, we have 4000 acres of natural soda lands at Soda Lake, Danby and Afton. On Soda Lake the crude material runs from 6 inches to 12 inches in depth, while in Afton it runs to the depth of several feet in many places, and at Danby it ranges from 2 to 5 feet. The depth and purity of the product excels in Danby and Afton over the Soda Lake property.

So much has been said in regard to the number of beds of soda, that there is an inclination to get the idea into one's head that every alkali deposit is a soda deposit and that every deposit of that kind is capable of being worked to profit. Such is a misstatement. There are many reasons why a great many times that properties cannot be worked even though the deposit runs to a great depth. The one great draw-back heretofore in working the soda deposits of California or any other field, has been the lack of profitable methods of converting them into the pure Glauber Salts. For instance, a man came into our office the other day and said: "I have several soda claims which run to great depth and purity. Do you people want to buy them?" We said "No." "Well," he said, "if you don't buy it, I am going to start up a plant of my own." One of the officers of the company said: "All right—all well and good. How are you going to handle it?" "Well, I will handle it in the usual way." "Do you know what the usual way means, my friend? It means that you must erect extensive vats and that you must have a pulverizing mill and pulverize the soda into those vats and put water on to it, and wait for solar evaporation and fractional crystallization, and it takes two months from the time you start this process before you can get the Glauber Salts, and when you do, you only have an impure product. Now, let me show you why it is impossible for you, by this old process, to compete with us in the conversion of the crude material into pure Glauber Salts." We took him back into the chemical room and showed him how the machine which we own by patents on, would take this crude material and in two hours instead of two months, crystallize the pure Glauber Salts ready to be converted into all the other products of the soda industry. He stood and looked at it in amazement, and said as he turned to go: "Well, I guess I would not stand much of a show against that soda sailing contrivance," so that is the last we saw of him. But we give this little inside history in order to acquaint the investing public with the fallacy of trying to work the soda beds under the old process. It has been tried before without success.

A man came in the other day and said: "What is to hinder other soda companies getting started—what is to hinder new deposits being discovered and developed by capital?" The officer that he was speaking to, simply answered by saying: "My friend, there is lots of clay, but everybody is not making brick; there are millions of tons of sand—there is lots of lime—but everybody is not making sand-lime press brick, while it is a well-known fact that 95 per cent. sand and 5 per cent. lime will make one of the finest bricks in the world. There is the crucial point—it takes a machine and a patented process to make the sand-lime brick out of sand and lime. There are oceans and oceans of salt water and yet everybody is not making salt. It takes machinery and it takes a process; it takes experience and it takes capital, so when anyone tells you that it is easy to have competition in the soda market, just ask them: "How are you going to separate your crude material and how are you going to make your refined product?" The fields around Los Angeles might be covered with soda. Mt. Lowe might be one solid mass of soda, but if you did not have a way of converting that into the refined product, it would be as worthless as the rocks are on Mt. Lowe." We give this statement with a purpose—that purpose is to acquaint the public with soda-making industry, which we are endeavoring to develop, and we do not want our advancement hindered by the circulation of reports, by irresponsible parties, that the soda-making industry is a simple process under the old method and that it is easy for a bunch of incompetent men to get together and begin to turn out what it takes a patented process and good chemists to produce. We have 2200 acres of land at Soda Lake alone, this is of wonderful richness. At the time we filed our claims, the entire lake was open for filing, we could have taken up 15,000 more acres at this point if we had so desired, but we did not.

As you will see from this report of our chemist, Prof. Gilbert E. Bailey, after many weeks of investigation and research at Soda Lake:

"The property of the company consists of 22 placer claims, 160 acres each, covering the bottom of Soda Lake at its widest and lowest point, near the center. This location begins at the government wells and extends east, for a length of nearly four miles, and north and south, for a width of nearly two miles, covering a total area of six square miles, or 3840 acres.

"This is the cream of the ground. Outside of this on the southeast, the drifting sands of the desert have formed sand dunes, and north and south of the area covered the mineral crusts have not the thickness or quality of those located. The locations have been carefully made so as to select the best quality only, and the immense area existing on the lake."

And so we invite anyone who think they wan to go into the soda business, to go out and file on the balance of Soda Lake, where the soda runs one-eighth to one-quarter inch in thickness.

As further assurance of the high value of the soda industry, and the development of these deposits of crude soda by our company, we have had reports made by Laird J. Stabler, A.M., Professor of Metallurgy and Chemistry, University of Southern California:

"Gentlemen:—I have carefully tested the samples of minerals delivered to me, and have also considered the reports of J. Sylvester Brown, Gilbert E. Bailey, Stephen Bowers, S. H. Wood and Lewis E. Aubury, submitted to me upon the mineral resources of Danby Dry Lake, California, and have considered with exceeding care the feasibility of the manufacture upon said lake, of the following products: Soda ash, caustic soda, sodium bicarbonate, sodium hydrate, sodium carbonate, bleaching powder, hydrochloric acid, lime, different grades of coarse and refined salt.

"After reviewing the situation very carefully, I see nothing to prevent the erection of a vast manufacturing plant for the production of the enumerated products.

"The importance and necessity of a modern plant for the manufacture of sodium salts, viz., soda ash, caustic soda, etc., has long been apparent on the Pacific Coast."

And Hon. Lewis E. Aubury, State Mineralogist, has given his high indorsement of our industry in the following statement:

"I will say that there is a particularly inviting field for the manufacture of soda ash, caustic soda, and similar bi-products in California. At the present time these products are procured from Eastern States. As an instance of the demand for soda ash, I will say that there are several glass factories in this State which consume large quantities of soda ash, which product is mostly imported from Michigan. If a local product of equal purity were available, a very great advantage would be secured by the manufacture over the Eastern producer in the matter of freights alone, not considering the greater economy with which it could be produced here.

"Virtually every particle of soda or its compounds used on this Coast is imported, yet there is no question of the abundance of the raw material, and every pound consumed by us should be and can be produced in our State. I know of scarcely any investment which would be productive of more certain and profitable returns than the manufacture of soda compounds.

"In articles I have written on the investment of capital in California's undeveloped mineral resources, I have sought to point out the very great need of new industries such as yours represent, and the unusual advantages which California possesses in the way of raw material for their consumption. I have repeatedly emphasized that while nature has been kind to the State of California, and has supplied it with an abundance of raw material, man has been slow to take advantage of her gifts."

Now, all we ask the public to do is to investigate. We would be glad to give every means of investigation. Each officer and director of this company believes thoroughly in the soda industry and believes just as thoroughly in the stock offering of the Pacific Coast Soda Company. The first allotment of stock is being sold at 80c, upon which is asured 7 per cent. dividend, and while we individually hold the common stock in this company, and let us say in this connection, that every officer and director has paid for his stock, and that there is no promotion stock, yet we are willing to say to you who purchase the preferred stock—"We don't want one cent of income until you have have first received 7 per cent. on your money—then after you have your 7 per cent., yours stands still until we draw the same amount, and above that we share equally. We will be glad to have you come in and see our demonstrations, and you will say the same as one man did who came here the other day from a suburban town: "That is the best proposition I have ever seen. Put me down for $5000 worth of your stock." If it is not possible for you to buy $5000 worth, you can buy $500 worth, $100 worth, or even as low as $40 worth, but whatever you do—buy stock in the Pacific Coast Soda Company.

ESCAPES FIRE BY A MARGIN.

POLICE RESCUE INVALID FROM HIS BURNING HOUSE

Owner of Mills Building Nearly Suffocated by Smoke—Mysterious Romance of Park Bench Spoiled. Man Arrested Upon Burglary Charge Claims Case of Mistake.

PASADENA, April 24.—A stubborn fire in the Mills building on South Fair Oaks avenue called on the department at an early hour yesterday morning. The fire had gained a good headway before being discovered, and the firemen found their work cut out for them when they arrived on the scene. They managed to confine the blaze to the building in which it started, and saved that from total destruction.

A. F. Mills, the owner of the building, had a narrow escape. He is an invalid, and has been confined to his bed for some time. The room in which he and his wife were sleeping rapidly filled with smoke, and the man was in immediate danger of being suffocated when Patrolmen Favor and Palmer rushed to his assistance. The officers had to fight their way through a dense cloud of smoke, which threatened to smother them, but they doggedly kept on and succeeded in carrying the imperiled man to the street.

The origin of the fire is shrouded in mystery. It broke out in the back of the Basket grocery, which occupies the lower part of the building. It was first noticed at 2:10 o'clock by the night cook in a neighboring restaurant, who turned in the alarm. As far as can be ascertained, no one had been in the store for some time, and it is thought that rats or mice must have nibbled matches and thus have started the conflagration.

The damage to the building will not amount to more than $3000 or $4000, a considerable part of which is covered by insurance. The grocery store was gutted, and the owner will suffer considerable loss, not only from the action of the fire, but from the water, which flooded the store, as well.

The fire department is coming in for much congratulation on this ready way in which it responded. Had the fire once gotten beyond control a disastrous conflagration might have resulted, and for that reason the readiness with which the men appeared upon the scene is considered worthy of more than passing commendation.

MYSTERIOUS ASSAULT.

There are rumors drifting about of a murderous assault, said to have been committed in Library Park late Monday night. The whole affair is shrouded in mystery, but, from all reports of the affair, there appears to have been a woman in the case, or, rather, two women. As far as known, the victim of the attack did not receive any serious injuries, other than to his feelings, but a brand new hat was later found upon the scene of the battle, smashed out of all semblance to headgear.

The first part of the tragedy was witnessed by a well-known young man of the city, who was taking an evening stroll with his lady fair. The couple observed a man and woman sitting on a bench in the park, wrapped up in one another, both figuratively and literally. Suddenly their dream of love was shattered by the entrance of a third party. The unwelcome visitor made her appearance from without a clump of shrubbery directly back of the bench where the young folks were sitting, and proceeded to break up the happy party.

As the newcomer seemed rather excited, the watchers concluded to move on and leave the belligerents to settle their difficulties among themselves. Later they became inquisitive, however, and returned to the spot, only to find that the people had left. On the ground, however, they found the battered remains of what had once been a fine straw hat, and, on examining it closely, they recognized it as the one which the young man had been wearing a short time before.

CLAIMS A MISTAKE.

Robert Wells, a young negro living at Chester avenue and Maple street, was arrested yesterday morning on a charge of burglary and locked up in the City Jail. Later he was released on $2000 bonds furnished by his father, W. H. Wells, and his employer, M. L. Beal.

V. H. Denton of East Orange Grove avenue is the man whose house Wells is charged with entering. Denton telephoned to the police that a man was trying to get into his house, and two officers were sent to the scene. They found the man, who ran at the sight of them. The two officers gave chase and finally lost track of him in an alley near Wells's house. They stayed in the neighborhood the rest of the night, however, and when Wells started for work in the morning they placed him under arrest.

Wells insists that it is a case of mistaken identity and those who know the young man are inclined to believe him. He has always borne an excellent reputation and owns the place where he lives. He is a married man and is the father of a baby two weeks old. So certain is his employer of his innocence that he willingly went on the young man's bond when the case was brought to his notice.

DAKOTA STREET AGAIN.

The old Dakota street dispute again came up before the Council yesterday morning. It was hoped and thought that the matter had been settled once for all, but a new phase has presented itself which may be hard to untangle. When the matter was being considered last week a representative of the Siegel Bros., owning the Siegel tract, appeared and asked that they be released from all expense in relation to the proposed street improvements.

The reason given for making the request was that the Siegels had already expended a large sum of money in improving their part of the street and that to further tax them would be unfair. The Council felt inclined to grant the request, but yesterday a representative of the property holders came along and objected to any such procedure, stating that but little work had been done. The matter was taken under consideration for another week.

REAL SHARP PAPER.

Henry A. Verge, who lives on Lincoln avenue, suffered a peculiar accident yesterday. While cutting some heavy roofing paper he allowed the fabric to slip through his hands and almost severed the end of one of his fingers. The paper cut as cleanly and thoroughly as any knife could have done. The bone proved too much for it, however, and stopped its progress.

Verge at once started for the Receiving Hospital to have the injury attended to. Police Surgeon McCoy drew the sides of the cut together and after patching the man up, sent him home. The cut was so severe that Verge will be incapacitated for work for some time to come. He vows that he will exercise great care henceforth when handling anything as dangerous as paper.

FANS ARE HAPPY.

If the plans which Manager Harry Dexter is making materialize, Pasadena baseball will advance by leaps and bounds. At a meeting of the Amateur League held Monday, Dexter was elected president of the organization, and he is planning to put several of his pet theories into practice. The members of the Pasadena Baseball Club heartily appreciate the honor bestowed upon their manager and will do all in their power to back him up.

One of the greatest needs of the home team is a suitable ball ground, and an effort will be made to come to an agreement with the Tournament of Roses Association whereby Tournament Park can be secured for Sunday afternoons. If such an arrangement can be made it will simplify matters greatly.

The local boys are determined to have suitable grounds and the park appears to be the only likely place. The present grounds are out of the way for one thing, and for another they are not enclosed and it is a difficult matter to enforce the rules with regard to tickets.

PASADENA POINTS.

Ernest H. Lockwood sold yesterday for Thum Brothers, the southwest corner of Colorado street and Marengo avenue to J. E. Coulston. The consideration is given as $75,000. This is one of the most important real estate deals that has been put through in some time. The site is one of the most valuable business locations in the city and will be occupied by the Crown City Bank as soon as the building can be suitably remodeled.

City Veterinarian Medici de Biron ran into an unlighted obstruction on Fair Oaks avenue last Monday night and, as the thing appeared to be a menace to life and limb, he hurried to the Police Station, where he lodged a complaint. The obstruction was left by the paving contractors and was so located that it was impossible to see it at any distance. The doctor ran into it full tilt and both he and his wife were badly shaken up. A warrant was issued for the man in charge of the work and he will have to explain his negligence in court.

SOCIAL NOTES.

Miss Cordelia Stimson and Miss Jessie Markham entertained the members of the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge Whist Club yesterday at the home of Miss Stimson, No. 391 South Orange Grove avenue. The rooms were daintily decorated with pink sweet peas and asparagus fern. Besides the club members there were several guests including Miss Rowena Blossom, Miss Irene Grosse, Miss Marjorie Bolt, Miss Cora Auten Miss Elsie Tillston and Muriel Laing.

Mrs. Lloyd Macy of No. 78 South Grand avenue was the hostess yesterday afternoon at an elaborately appointed luncheon. The luncheon table had as its centerpiece a basket of pink roses and all of the other accessories were carried out in the same color. Covers were laid for Mmes. Robert Rowan, Harrison I. Drummond, Charles G. Perkins, Freeman Ford, Tracy Drake, Henry Mauris Robinson, Samuel Pierce.

Miss Cora Calvert Foy and Miss Edna Foy of San Rafael Heights have issued invitations for a large reception to be given Saturday afternoon, April 27, in honor of Harley Hamilton, director of the Woman's Orchestra of Los Angeles. Mr. Hamilton is leaving soon for an extended trip through Europe.

Monday afternoon Mrs. C. S. Campbell-Johnson of San Rafael Heights, gave a luncheon to the visiting women golf players at Annandale. Mrs. Campbell-Johnson was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. E. H. Strafford, Miss Bingham and Miss Walsh.

The members of the Junior League of the Universalist Church will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Miss Jessie Sabin, at No. 38 South Grand avenue.

POMONA PARAGRAPHS.

POMONA, April 23.—Street Superintendent Slanker is putting numerous thoroughfares about the city in good condition for the summer and is making an effort to have the weeds in gutters and about vacant lots cleaned up.

Dee Minier, son of Mrs. Sara B. Minier of this city, will leave soon for the Philippines, where he has a position as assistant superintendent in a large mine.

Mrs. R. E. Lasher and the Misses Lasher entertained the ladies of St. Agnes Guild of the Episcopal Church at their suburban home near North Pomona this afternoon.

All of the orange packing-house are busily engaged shipping oranges daily, the supply of cars being much more adequate than for some weeks past.

CANNOT CHANGE SITE.

OCEAN PARK, April 23.—In the opinion of the City Trustees, as expressed at their meeting last night, the decision to construct the City Hall at Tokio cannot be changed. The site has been acquired, plans have been accepted for the building, and bids for its construction have been solicited. The protest against this selection of a site, filed by the Venice Chamber of Commerce and the merchants of Venice, was filed without comment.

HOP-TOADS MIGRATING.

Myriads Making Their Seventh Year Trek from Ranch to Sea.

LONG BEACH, April 23.—Ranchers in the vicinity of the George Bixby ranch, five miles northeast of the city, say that the myriads of toads which have covered the fields and roads in that section for weeks past have begun to migrate overland toward the ocean and can be seen by hundreds hopping across country southwesterly.

The ponds and sloughs in which they had their birth have dried up. The ranchers say that seven years ago there was a like migration of frogs and toads from the ranches to the sea, but the amphibians are more numerous this time.

ELKS' JUBILEE WILL BE GAY.

LONG BEACH TO BE CROWDED WITH VISITORS.

Varied Amusement Programme Includes Balls and Vaudeville Performances—Schooner Nana, Once Capt. Hall's Rover, Aground—She's Smuggler, Think Police.

LONG BEACH, April 23.—Arrangements have been finally completed for the amusement features of the Elk's jubilee week which begins next Monday and which is expected to equal any celebration heretofore given by Southern California B.P.O.E. The proceeds are to be applied to the erection of a home for the order, at the corner of Ocean and Cedar streets. Donations of saleable articles have been made to the amount of $4000, aside from a piano, an automobile and five residence lots. Everything will be offered for sale in booths on the lower deck of the auditorium, of which society maids and matrons will be in charge.

The amusement programme is: Monday, Odd Fellows' day, with a drill by the Patriarch Militant of Los Angeles in the evening, followed by a grand ball. The music for the ball and in fact, for the week's festivities will be furnished by the Royal Italian Band, which will give free concerts afternoon and evening.

Tuesday afternoon will be a go-as-you-please affair with a vaudeville performance at night in which the Orcutt sisters, Helps and Chandler, Mme. Roberts and Hazel Bowden will appear.

Wednesday will be declared a public holiday by Mayor Downs. The Elks designated it "Pomona-Santa Monica Day." Ten thousand visitors from Santa Ana, San Bernardino, Pomona and Santa Monica are looked for. In the afternoon the Elks baseball teams of Long Beach and Santa Ana will play for the Elks' championship of the Southwest. At night the "Honey Town Coon Minstrels" of Pomona will appear at the auditorium.

Thursday will be San Pedro Day with a varied vaudeville programme at night.

Friday will be Los Angeles and M. W. A. Day, the chief feature being the crowning of the carnival queen and the presentation to her of a diamond ring. There will be a vaudeville performance and grand closing ball at night.

SCHOONER UNDER SUSPICION.

The schooner Nana, once Capt. Hill's Rover, is fast aground on the beach, two miles up the coast between Brighton Beach and Ostend, a station on the Salt Lake. She rests easily but is gradually sinking in the yielding sand and will be hard to float.

The men on board, Capt. John Leslie Warnell and W. E. Thornton, say they were fishing, but the absence of any fish or bait is suspicious and the police are inclined to think that the Nana is the mysterious boat that on several occasions during the past two months has made attempts to land at the Long Beach pier in the small hours of the morning. The police think that the vessel has been in use for contraband purposes.

The Nana went ashore after midnight, Thornton, who was on duty says he came in from the southeast, but lost the government light on the breakwater and the first intimation of danger was when he caught a glimpse of a red signal switch light on the Salt Lake tracks at Ostend. Before he could get out in deep water the boat was in the breakers and was being carried ashore. He awoke Warnell and the two threw out anchors, which failed to hold.

Today Warnell has been in San Pedro to secure a tug to pull the vessel off at high tide, but success looks doubtful.

LIFE SAVER ENGAGED.

The Long Beach bath-house has secured the services for the summer of John A. Jackson as life guard and instructor at the plunge. Jackson has eleven medals and several certificates. He has rescued eighteen persons during his service.

On Saturday, May 4, the officers of the Masonic lodge will institute a blue lodge of the order at Elsinore.

HAS PET SEAL.

E. A. Eastman, the shell store man, has as a pet a baby seal, probably two weeks old. It was found under the auditorium last Friday, having been carried in by the surf. It feeds on fish soaked in milk, follows its owner into the surf and comes out when called.

WINE MERCHANT'S CASE.

The trial of Jacob Beatus, the Los Angeles wine merchant, who is accused of soliciting orders for liquors in Long Beach in violation of an ordinance, was called this morning. The panel summoned was challenged because of alleged prejudice of the serving officer, and the challenge was sustained by the Recorder, who appointed Constable Hawkins special elisor to gather another panel. Hawkins performed his duties but made an error in making his returns, and by consent, the second panel was dismissed, and a continuance granted in the case until May 15.

FUNERAL OF A. W. BAIRD.

Well-Known Contractor Laid to Rest. Third Death in Family Within a Year.

HOLLYWOOD, April 23.—The funeral of A. W. Baird, one of the most prominent contractors and builders in this section, was held yesterday from the family home on Hudson avenue, Rev. Dr. Sheppard officiating. The services were attended by nearly 200 people, the thoroughfares in every direction being lined with carriages. The burial was in Hollywood Cemetery.

Mr. Baird has been a resident of Hollywood for about five years and many of the finest buildings were built by him. He was a native of Mason City, Iowa, and was 44 years of age. He leaves a widow and one child.

This is the third death in this family in less than a year, a daughter having been buried last Memorial Day and Mrs. Baird's mother in the fall.

HOLLYWOOD NOTES.

Mrs. F. M. Douglass, No. 175 North Wilcox avenue, will entertain the music section of the Woman's Club Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The programme will include a sketch of Schubert's life by Mrs. Nellie Hibler; piano solo, Mrs. H. G. Candee; violin solo, Miss Bessie Fuhrer; group of songs, Mrs. Hibler; violincello solo, Miss Elsa Fuhrer; piano solo, Mrs. Warren Moody.

The residence of Col. J. J. Steadman was entered and ransacked by unknown parties last evening, but so far as learned, nothing was taken.

RAPE OF LOCKS CAUSES STIR.

PROMINENT PERSONS MAY BE ARRESTED SOON.

Manager of Malibu Ranch at Santa Monica Consults Lawyers in Los Angeles—Sensational Speculations Rife—Coroner Holds Two Inquests.

SANTA MONICA, April 23.—As a result of the rape of the locks of the Malibu, trouble is brewing. The Malibu is the big ranch of the late Frederick H. Rindge, and hugs the seacoast and mountains for a distance of twenty miles or more. The locks in question were on the stout gates that occupy a commanding position on the beach at the line marking the beginning of the Rindge estate. At some time last Sunday the locks were deftly removed and the gates thrown open. A file and cold chisel had done the work, and these tools were in the hands of persons who went up the beach Sunday morning in automobiles.

There is some question as to the identity of the alleged trespassers, but today N. D. Darlington, manager of the ranch, and general manager of the Malibu, Port Los Angeles and Huenome Railroad, which is also a Rindge enterprise, went to Los Angeles for a conference with the District Attorney and the Rindge attorneys, with a firm determination to secure warrants for the arrest of the parties who are charged with having tampered with the locks.

Strewn along the road toward the Malibu gates are piles of lumber. This is being hauled up the beach by Mr. Prescott of Los Angeles, a son of the register of the United States Land Office at Los Angeles. This lumber was intended to be used by Prescott in building a ranch house on a piece of mountain land recently homesteaded by him. This land lies beyond the Malibu, and in order to reach it the Malibu and Keller ranches have to be crossed.

It is not known whether the party going up the coast Sunday went as an advance courier for the Prescott lumber, but such was the supposition in some quarters, although others profess to believe that the automobilists are connected with either some railroad or oil project along the beach.

TWO INQUESTS.

Coroner Lanterman held two inquests at the Guidinger undertaking parlors here today. One was over the body of the man who lost his life in the ocean at Manhattan yesterday evening. This corpse was brought here from Manhattan during the night. From letters and a card of identification found in the pockets, it was learned that the unfortunate was James H. Doyle, of No. 334 South Figueroa street, Los Angeles. He was about 34 years of age, and seemingly a miner, a magnifying glass and specimens of minerals being found in his pocket. His cash was one penny. The card of personal description carried by Doyle requested that, in case of death or accident, J. F. Doyle of No. 216 West Third street, Los Angeles, should be notified. After inquiring into the circumstances attending the finding of the body, the conclusion was that death had resulted from accidental drowning.

The other inquest was over Salome Porra, the Mexican who died yesterday afternoon, after having been stabbed by Rafael Bergil. Bergil, who had been arrested last night in Los Angeles, was present during the inquiry. Bergil says the cutting was done during a heated quarrel, which arose over money which the dead man owed him, but refused to pay. The verdict of the jury was that Porra had died from the effects of wounds inflicted by a knife in the hands of Rafael Doe, the wounds having been inflicted with homicidal intent. The crime was charged to Doe for the reason that there was some doubt as to the real name of the accused, who will have a preliminary hearing on Wednesday.

NORTHERNERS INVESTIGATE.

Santa Monica's oiled streets and boulevards were the subject of rigid inspection today by a delegation of officials who come south for the purpose of investigating the methods followed in Southern California in the improvement of highways. The party included J. Madigan, Mayor of Vallejo, and County Supervisors J. M. Tregaskis and J. F. O'Reilly of Solano county. Vallejo and Solano counties are about to spend large sums of money on street and road work.

NOT POPULAR WITH ALL.

The vocation license ordinance, as proposed by the new Council, will be the subject under discussion at an open meeting of the Aldermen and the public on Thursday afternoon. The proposed law carries some sections that are innovations and its passage will be resisted, it is said. The electric railway company is to be taxed $3 per year for each passenger and $6 for each freight and mail car operated within the city. The ordinance also proposes a tax of 5 cents per month for each telephone in the city. Real estate and insurance agents and all lines of business are made subject to a tax.

ASSAULT ALLEGED.

A warrant for the arrest of V. T. Alger, on a charge of assault, was issued out of the court of Justice of the Peace Myers today, upon complaint of Daniel Alton. Both are residents of Sawtelle, where the assault is alleged to have been committed.

The Board of Fire Commissioners has named C. J. Marvin for chief of the fire department.

VENICE PROMOTERS BUSY.

Utah's Governor Accepts Invitation to Beach—Resort Wants Visitors from Many Cities.

VENICE, April 23.—Utah is to have a day at Venice in June. Recently the Venice Chamber of Commerce extended an invitation to the Governor of that State to come with a large delegation of representative citizens of Utah for a day at the seaside. The secretary of the Venice organization is just in receipt of a letter from Alfred T. Cutler, secretary to the Governor, accepting the invitation.

The Venetians have also decided upon sending an invitation to San Bernardino, Riverside, Redlands and the Imperial Valley cities to arrange for a day's outing at the seashore during the summer. The Los Angeles Athletic and the California and Jonathan clubs have also been invited to fix upon a day for a joint outing by the sea. One of the objects of this gathering is to impress the city clubs with the desirability of Venice as a site for the location of their proposed country annexes. It was stated at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce last night that a fund of $300,000 was in hand with which it is proposed to found a country club.

The Venice promotion committees are striving to convince the arrangers of the official programme for the sessions of the National Educational Association, which meets at Los Angeles in July, that it would be desirable to devote one day to Venice.

SHRINERS' INITIATION.

The local reception and entertainment committees are preparing for the visit of the Shriners and their friends. The festivities will open next Saturday, when the initiation of candidates will be conducted. Candidates will be prepared at the dancing pavilion on the pier, while the initiation proper will be conducted in the auditorium.

DAUGHTERS OF ISIS.

The Daughters of Isis will have their initiation ceremonies at the auditorium on May 1. On that day the Venice water carnival will open, and the Venice band, then enlarged to sixty pieces, will give a concert at the auditorium. Sword play will be presented by the Japanese at the amphitheater, luncheon will be served to the visitors during the afternoon, and in the evening there will be an electrical illumination, fireworks and a Shriner ball at both auditorium and dance hall. On May 11 there will be a confetti carnival and battle, closing with an illumination of the canals.

LOUISIANA DAY REVIVED.

The project of observing Louisiana day on April 30, has been revived. Robert G. Loucks, acting with the Kinney Company, and the Louisiana and French societies of Los Angeles, will have charge of the general arrangements. An elaborate programme of music and speaking is to be arranged.

VISIT WILMINGTON HARBOR.

Prominent Angelenos Make Inspection Tour—Clever Swindlers at San Pedro.

SAN PEDRO, April 23.—Capt. Amos Fries, U.S.A., accompanied by W. D. Stevens, president of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce; C. D. Willard, secretary; G. H. Stewart, chairman, and other members of the Harbor Committee, made a tour of inspection of the inner harbor at Wilmington this morning.

The party was accompanied by H. C. Oakley of the Imperial Development Company, which recently obtained a franchise from the Board of Trustees of Wilmington for the improvement of a considerable area of water front.

The proposed plans and projects of the Imperial Development Company were explained to the visitors.

SWINDLERS BUSY.

Late yesterday afternoon two clever young swindlers succeeded in fleecing several small retail stores in the residence section of this city out of about $50 by means of Confederate currency of the vintage of 1861.

F. G. Richards, a grocer on Sixteenth street, received $10 of the worthless money, which he took in payment for a 5-cent cigar. The Superior Bakery on Pacific avenue was also a victim of the swindlers.

Meeting Ernest Jones, a collector for the Seaside Water Company, one of the swindlers asked him to change a $10 bill, which he did. He presently discovered that the bill was a Confederate one. He overtook the strangers, who, with profuse apologies, returned his change. They lost no time then in catching a car out of town.

The swindlers are described as having light complexions and hair, being about 30 years of age, and both about 5 feet 10 inches in height, well dressed and having a southern accent. One of them seemed to have a crippled or paralyzed left arm and a stiff left hand.

WOMAN FATALLY BURNED.

Mrs. B. Scala, an Italian woman, who lives on Thirteenth street, was terribly burned tonight by the overturning and explosion of a kerosene lamp. The attending physician says that she cannot recover.

POSTMASTER RESIGNS.

County Central Committee Will Recommend Successor and There Are Many Candidates.

FULLERTON, April 23.—Fullerton is looking around for a new postmaster, Mr. Tressler having tendered his resignation to the department at Washington.

About six months ago after an investigation was made of affairs here an inspector recommended to the department that a change be made in postmasters. At that time strong political influence was brought to bear and the present postmaster has continued in office. Some weeks ago a second investigation was made into local postal conditions and according to the latest news received from Washington, Mr. Tressler was asked to resign. The Central Committee has been asked to recommend some one to succeed him.

A leading Republican of Santa Ana notified Mr. Tressler Saturday that a change would be made soon in the office. Mr. Tressler stated that he desired to take the matter up once more with Congressman Smith before he tendered his resignation, and it is said he did not decide to resign until Sunday or Monday.

According to a statement from a reliable source there have been shortages from time to time in various postal departments, but it is held by friends of Mr. Tressler that they were unintentional.

W. R. Collis, former Assistant Postmaster Stevenson, Thomas Drips, George Ruddock, E. C. Hitchcock, L. C. Edwards, W. F. Scoble and Capt. Hilton, have been mentioned in connection with the appointment. A recommendation will be made in a day or two by the Central Committee and Congressman Smith will no doubt indorse the action of the committee.

Mr. Tressler stated today that he had purchased an interest in a publishing firm in Los Angeles.

SOLD IN COURT.

Los Angeles Man Buys Orange Groves in Riverside—Will Wipe Rincon from Map.

CORONA, April 23.—In the Superior Court in Riverside yesterday the sale of about seventy-five acres of orange groves in Corona belonging to the Foster estate and bid in by W. S. Sparr of Los Angeles, was confirmed. The price of the deal was $30,925, and includes 163 shares of water stock.

NOT SCRIPTURE KIND.

Several hundred acres on the Yount and Grotsinger ranches in the valley are being seeded to Egyptian corn. This is the largest acreage so far seeded to this variety of corn in this vicinity, everything else along this line having been in small tracts and for the most part experimental.

CHANGE TOWN'S NAME.

Postmaster Mayberry has just received from Washington the necessary papers making legal the change of the Rincon postoffice to the name of Prado. After the postmaster has been reappointed and his new bond arranged the change of name will be legally completed. The Santa Fé officials some time ago expressed their willingness to change the railroad name of Crary to Prado so that this one name will answer alike for railway and postal purposes.

CORONA BRIEFS.

The Corona Lemon Company has bought the W. E. Witter ten-acre lemon grove at Kellogg avenue and Temescal street.

Members of the Tuesday Musical Club took a taly-ho ride to Riverside this evening to hear the Chicago Symphony Orchestra.

The Santa Fé has installed an electric alarm bell at the Main street crossing.

VENTURA.

VENTURA, April 23.—The Board of City Trustees failed to select a night-watchman at its meeting last night, though two petitions were in, one from Incumbent Elwell and the other from James McGlinchey. The case was passed over to be considered at some other session. It is reported that the members of the board are not in favor of a change.

Louis Turri, 14 years old, and the son of Paul Turri, a recent arrival here, has disappeared as though the earth had swallowed him and his parents are much worried over his absence. He was last seen at about noon on Sunday last, on West Main street, in this city. Since then nothing has been seen of him by any one. He had no money with him when he left home. He had been engaged as carrier for a Los Angeles evening paper.

TRIP FOR NOTHING.

SAN DIEGO, April 23.—Ah Chee, the Chinese ordered deported, will not be sent to China via San Francisco, but to Mexico. At his hearing it developed that Chee was a well-to-do merchant in Juarez, Mex., for fifteen years. He wanted to go to China on a visit and so came to Lower California and intentionally got himself caught crossing the line, hoping thereby to make half the trip back at the expense of Uncle Sam. Commissioner Knoler ordered him returned to Mexico.

It will surprise you to learn that so many people have what you are seeking, besides saving yourself a lot of worry.

IN RIVERSIDE IS ONLY WATER.

CITY TRUSTEES PROHIBIT SALE OF ALL LIQUOR.

Sudden Reform Wave Sweeps Over City and Prohibitionists Enjoy Official Matinee—Programme of Rubidoux Banquet and Gathering of Prominent Men at Festive Board.

RIVERSIDE, April 23.—In a wave of reform this morning that was so sudden as to take away the breath of those who were caught in its sweep, preliminary action was taken by the City Trustees toward revoking the liquor license of the Golden State ...otel, forbidding the poolrooms of the city to have screens or other view-obstructing contrivances in front of their places, and prohibiting the sale of liquor in any of the poolrooms.

This reform was inaugurated at a meeting at which all members of the board were present. There was also a record attendance of citizens, including some of the women of the W.C.T.U., representative church members and prohibitionists. Every chair in the building was brought into the board room to accommodate the interested audience that gathered.

The original question at issue was the request of Dan Dedack for a license to sell liquor with meals at the Eighth-street Café. This application had previously come up, and as it was known that definite action was to be taken at the meeting developments were awaited with keen interest. An unexpected move was made by Mr. Dedack, who, instead of continuing his fight for a license, withdrew his application.

In lieu of the anticipated discussion of the Dedack question, the attention of the Trustees was turned to the affairs of the Golden State Hotel, which is located opposite the Eighth-street Café, and is conducted by U. S. Kaneko, a wealthy Japanese and the leader of the local Japanese colony. Drunkenness at his place was alleged, and the City Attorney was instructed to draw up a resolution revoking Mr. Kaneko's license to sell liquor with meals. Following closely on the heels of this resolution, another was adopted with a view to regulating the poolroom evils.

RUBIDOUX BANQUET.

Widespread interest is centering in the good-roads movement that is to be launched at Riverside Friday evening at the banquet in connection with the opening of Huntington Park and the Rubidoux scenic boulevard. The event promises to be noteworthy, both in the distinguished character of the men who will inaugurate the movement and the far-reaching results that must follow their actions.

The banquet will be served in the Glenwood refectory. Leading spirits in the movement are the officers of the local Chamber of Commerce and Frank A. Miller, who is one of the pioneer good roads enthusiasts. The guests of honor number many of the prominent men of the country, among whom are President Ripley of the Santa Fé, Senator W. A. Clarke of the Salt Lake, H. E. Huntington, the electric railway magnate, and many others.

Robert Burdette will act as toastmaster, and he will be introduced by Francis Cuttle, president of the Chamber of Commerce. Following Dr. Burdette's introduction, the toasts will be: "Our Huntington Park," Rev. Edward F. Goff; "Good Roads from the Standpoint of Dollars and Cents," W. L. Greene of Pasadena; "The City Viewpoint," Mayor Harper of Los Angeles; "Father Junipero Serra and His Work," Rt. Rev. Bishop Conaty; "The Men Who Do Things," Rt. Rev. Bishop Johnson; "In Union is Our Strength," President Gates, Pomona College.

REAL TOURISTS MUST TOUR IT.

VISITORS TO TIA JUANA WILL BE HELD UP.

Customhouse Officers Must Be Satisfied as to Travelers' Standing Before Permitting Them to Bring Curios Across Line—Santa Fe May Reopen Line to Temecula.

SAN DIEGO, April 23.—The recent ruling in the Federal Customs Department limiting to a greater extent the importing of articles by people who go across the international boundary line for a day's outing and for the purpose of bringing away curios peculiar to the Mexican country, will be unwelcome news.

Hereafter people who wish to visit Tia Juana for a few hours will no longer come under the class of tourists and will receive none of the privileges formerly accorded them on that account. To have these privileges the visitor must remain for a sufficiently long period and must visit enough points of interest to be classed as a tourist.

The short-time visitors will not be classed as tourists and will not be allowed to bring away any cigars or curios. The customs officers along the line have been instructed to enforce the law to the letter.

A Fallbrook paper is responsible for the publication of an item to the effect that the road master of the Santa Fé was in the town last week taking measurements at the station for a warehouse, and quoting him as saying that the road would soon be put through to Temecula.

If true, this is important. When the news of a reopening of the Temecula line was published in the San Diego papers a few weeks ago, strenuous denials were made by Santa Fé officials, from President Ripley down. It is now learned that the survey for the closing of the gap between Temecula and Fallbrook has been completed and that the route is along higher ground in the cañon than was occupied by the old track, which was washed out in 1888.

The original route of the Santa Fé was by the Temecula line. It was selected for the transcontinental line for the reason that it would enable the company to reach tidewater with the least mileage. Soon after the completion of the road it was destroyed by floods. Repairs were made, but in 1898 it was wrecked again by the floods.

SAN DIEGO DOTS.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. George are considering the suggestion of naming their youngest son, born during the Oldfield-Seibel automobile races at Lakeside last Sunday, "Barney," in honor of Mr. Oldfield, Mr. and Mrs. George went to Lakeside for the racing events and soon after their arrival Mrs. George gave birth to the child. Upon hearing the news of the arrival, the guests of the hotel immediately suggested that it be named "Barney," which suggestion was heartily favored by Mr. and Mrs. George.

Word has been received that the vessels of the Pacific squadron, now at target practice in Magdalena Bay, will leave in a few days for the anchorage grounds off Coronado Hotel. The ships will leave here in season for the Fiesta events in Los Angeles.

Mayor Sehon has accepted the invitation to be present on Friday at Riverside at the exercises incident to the opening of Huntington Park and the dedication of the monument of Father Junipero Serra, founder of the California mission.

The Italian cruiser Dogali, which left here a few months ago for the south, will arrive shortly in this section, stopping here, at San Pedro and Monterey.

SANTA BARBARA, April 23.—Caught in the act of robbing fish traps off Point Conception today, George Graham, recently released from jail here, was shot and mortally wounded by George Perry. Perry and his victim were brought here tonight.

FIERCE FIRE IN FRANCE.

Sixth Conflagration Within Few Months Causes Loss of Millions and Injures Many.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

TOULON (France) April 23.—For the sixth time within a few months, this port has been stricken by disaster from fire, but this time the resultant damage is principally to material.

Every available man was out in the effort to control the conflagration. It was late this afternoon before the fire was controlled and it is reported that more than thirty men have sustained injuries from falling walls and some of them are not expected to recover. The cause has not yet been ascertained, but the finding of two pieces of fuse of a kind not used in the French navy has aroused suspicion that it was not altogether accidental, and a rigorous investigation is being conducted.

Immense quantities of naval stores were burned and damage amounting to many million francs has been done. The wall of a store fell in, burying thirty men, ten of whom were severely injured.

MANY INJURED IN WRECK.

Broken Rail on Great Northern Road Ditches Sleeper and Smoking Car.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

MINOT (Ind.) April 23.—Twelve persons were seriously injured and a dozen or more were more or less badly hurt in the wreck of the Great Northern passenger train No. 4, one mile north of Blaisdale last night. One or two of the injured may die.

The wreck was caused by a broken rail. The engine did not leave the track but the baggage, express, mail and smoking cars, and the day coach and tourist sleeper were hurled into the ditch. They lay on their sides.

The passengers say that the train was an hour late and was making up time. Most of those who were hurt were in the smoker, which received the full force of the compact. The injured were brought to Minot on a special train.

Following are among the injured: George Herain, Glasgow, Mont., leg broken. Alexander Evers, Hillyard, Wash., left ear bruised. John Nelson, Culberston, Mont., foot crushed. P. J. Engseth, arm sprained. Anne Weber, Adams, N. D., ear nearly cut off.

SCORE TRIUMPH IN PLAY.

LONDON, April 23.—The first appearance of E. H. Sothern and Julia Marlowe on the English stage was a fine personal triumph for both. They appeared last night at the Waldorf, one of the largest theaters of London, before a great audience, including many persons prominent in English society and a number of well-known representatives of the American colony. The play was Charles Meltzer's adaptation of Hauptmann's "The Sunken Bell."

PAY WHEN CURED

Let Me Guide You on Your Way to Regain Your Health and Renew Your Strength

DR. TAYLOR, The Leading Specialist

Do you feel that you are not the man you once were? Do you feel tired in the morning and easily exhausted? Is your back weak? Is your memory failing? Do you have difficulty in fixing your thoughts? Are you losing ambition? If you have any or all of the above symptoms, you surely do not desire to remain so. Let me explain to you my methods of rebuilding the vigor of men, and refer you to the thousands I have cured. I guarantee to cure all the Special Diseases of Men, such as Varicocele, Hydrocele, Drains, Discharges, Blood Diseases and Nervous Debility.

Get Cured Now

It is not a question of whether you can be cured, but whether you will be cured. Don't wait until it is too late. The cure is absolutely certain. I cause no pain, and you need not be detained from your work for one day. I especially solicit those cases in which the many so-called treatments have failed, or where money has been wasted on museum doctors, electric belts and other appliances.

Examination Free

I offer not only Free Consultation and Advice, but to every case that comes to me I will make a Careful Examination and Diagnosis without charge. No ailing man should neglect this opportunity to get expert opinion about his trouble. If you cannot call, write for Diagnosis Chart. My offices are open all day from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m., and Sundays from 10 to 1.

You Pay When Well

What better proof or more sincere assurance can I offer than I am willing to wait for my fee until I effect a cure? Could I afford to make such an offer if I was not absolutely certain of curing every case I take?

Nerve Sick

If weak, worn-out, nervous, cannot sleep; have indigestion, headache, neuralgia or periodic pains, it is because your nerves are weak. It is the lack of nerve force that makes the stomach, heart, lungs, etc., work imperfectly—become sick. Dr. Miles' Nervine cures the sick when it restores nerve strength, and puts the power behind the organs to do their work.

"Almost three years I suffered from nervousness, indigestion, and palpitation of the heart. I could not eat or sleep with comfort, or walk or talk without suffering. Altogether I was in a bad condition. My doctor did not seem to do me any good. I had tried so many remedies that I did not have much hope of any of them doing me any good. Dr. Miles' Nervine was suggested by a friend. I got relief from the first, and after a few days I felt like a new person. It not only relieved my heart and nerves, but has invigorated my whole system. I am very grateful because since I have stopped using it, I have had absolutely no return of my old trouble."

THE WEATHER.

Yesterday's Forecast and Report.

U. S. WEATHER BUREAU, Los Angeles, April 23.—[Reported by A. R. Wollaber, Local Forecaster.] At 5 o'clock a.m. the barometer registered 29.96; at 5 p.m., 29.95. Thermometer for the corresponding hours showed 54 deg. and 62 deg. Relative humidity, 5 a.m., 97 per cent.; 5 p.m., 24 per cent. Wind, 5 a.m., east, velocity 3 miles; 5 p.m., southwest, velocity 10 miles. Maximum temperature, 68 deg.; minimum, 52 deg. Barometer reduced to sea level.

Weather Conditions.—The Gulf storm has moved northeastward, and together with the slight disturbance central over Manitoba yesterday, forms a well-defined storm area which is now central over the Ohio Valley. This storm has caused a return to rainy weather in the Northern States east of the Mississippi River, and a continuation of the rain throughout the South. West of the Mississippi, no precipitation of consequence has occurred. Fog is reported along the California coast this morning, and some cloudiness is noted in the intermountain districts of the Northwest. The conditions are favorable for fair weather in Los Angeles and vicinity tonight and Wednesday, probably with some cloudiness or fog tonight and Wednesday morning.

Forecasts.—Local forecast for Los Angeles and vicinity: Fair tonight and Wednesday, with some cloudiness or fog tonight and Wednesday morning; westerly winds.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—The pressure is rising rapidly over Washington and Northwest Idaho. There has been a marked fall in temperature at many of the northern stations. At Spokane, it is 30 deg. colder than at the same hour on the preceding night. Light showers have fallen from Salt Lake northward. There has been no rain in California. An extensive depression will probably form over Nevada and Utah, causing brisk west winds in California. Forecast:

San Francisco and vicinity: Cloudy Wednesday; brisk west winds.

Sacramento Valley: Cloudy, cooler, Wednesday; southerly winds, changing to northerly.

San Joaquin Valley: Fair Wednesday; fresh north winds.

Los Angeles and vicinity: Cloudy Wednesday; light south winds.

Arizona: Fair Wednesday and Thursday.

QUOTATIONS OF STOCK SHOW LITTLE CHANGE.

BUYING and selling during the early call on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange yesterday was more active than on the day before. Prices show little change, and quotations remain at almost the same levels.

Union Oil was the leader in the trading. Thirty shares being sold at 214 @214.50. The demand for the stock was strong. The close was at 213 bid, none offered. This shows a decline of one point as compared with Monday's close. Bidding for large blocks was heard; 211 being offered for 50 or 100 shares.

Reed Crude Oil came in for a slight amount of trade, 2000 shares changing hands at 17¼. The close was at 17¼ @20, both quotations showing loses. Olinda Land was handled to the extent of 1000 shares at 16¼. No demand was evident for the stock, which closed at 16¼@17¼. Globe Oil acted sluggishly, only 1000 shares changing hands, and that block selling at 16¼, a fraction off the last previous sale. The close was weaker at 16¼@17¾. Continental Oil was on nearly the same level, closing at 17¼@20. None selling.

Western Union again was in strong demand, the cash bid remaining at 370, while as high as 380 was offered for the stock, buyer thirty days. No offering for cash below 425 was heard. Mexican Petroleum was slightly stronger, being wanted at 1.33, and offered at 1.35. New Pennsylvania Oil was bid for at 1.27, while as high as 1.35 was offered for thirty day options. No stock was offered. Columbia Oil was bid for at 70, and offered at 80. Associated Oil was stagnant at 42.50 bid, none in the market. Brookshire Oil was wanted at 2.35 and offered at 2.85, with 3.00 bid for calls. The remainder of the oil list was inactive.

The remainder of the trading was carried on in the bank stocks. Merchants' Trust was the active security, thirty shares selling at par.

The bonds were neglected. The first offering in months on California Pacific Railroad bond was made, the bond being offered down from 103, the last previous quotation to 98¾. No bid was heard. Others were quiet.

Among the miscellaneous securities, Home preferred was the only one in demand, a bid of 62 being made for that stock, with an offering at 65.

Trading on the mining call was not extensive and was carried on in the stocks which have been on the tobogan for several months. No advance was made in the majority of quotations. Goldfield Consolidated sold to the extent of 2000 shares at 13@12¾, showing a slight rise from the lowest cash price of Monday. The feature of the call was a transaction in 200 shares of Goldfield Consolidated, the merger stock, which changed hands at 8.50. The close quoted the security at 8.37½ @8.87½. California Hills was the leader in point of trading, 10,000 shares changing hands, 5000 at 3½ cash, and the remainder at 3¾, buyer thirty days. The only other trader was Searchlight Western, of which, 2000 shares were handled at 5. Very few changes were made in the stocks not traded in.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

There was an exceptionally good demand for all lines of produce yesterday, notwithstanding the fact that orders were confined to present needs.

The market for butter continues steady at quoted prices. Few dealers report any surplus, and accumulations were not heard of. Whatever stock is left over goes immediately into cold storage. No changes are forecasted for butter this week.

Yesterday's butter receipts were 19,296 pounds. Fully two-thirds of the arrivals was coast butter for storing.

Eggs are steady at unchanged prices. While receipts of potatoes have been very large in the past ten days, the fancy article remains scarce, and prices on these are firm. There is plenty of inferior truck on the market, and these serve to depress values. In order to move these rapidly it is said that big days are hard on the potato market, as sorting is necessary to make any kind of a grade. Three carloads of Wisconsin Burbanks were sold on 'change yesterday at 1.20 a hundred. One carload of Colorado Rurals sold at the same price, but not before the lots sold were strictly fancy offerings. The potato jobbers say that strictly fancy goods cannot be bought here for less than 1.65@1.70 a hundred.

A few Silverskin onions are offered for sale at 5.00 a sack. Bermuda onions come in heavily from Texas. Stocks from the Coachella districts are arriving freely. Vegetables showed few changes.

Large fruits were plentiful.

Sales on 'change—Five crates of Bermuda onions; 3 carloads of Wisconsin Burbanks; 4 carloads of fancy Colorado Rurals; 25 cases of local ranch eggs.

The receipts of produce as reported for yesterday's exchange were as follows: Eggs, 540 cases; butter, 55,296 lbs.; cheese, 5664 lbs.; 940 sacks; onions, 1699 sacks; beans, none; sweet potatoes, none.

A SUDDEN SHAVE.

A Connecticut Negro Loses Mustache by a Locomotive's Bell.

An unwelcome shave was received by Jeremiah Mumford, colored, of 156 South Orange avenue, South Orange, yesterday afternoon, when the tongue of a locomotive bell broke off and struck him a glancing blow on the upper lip, taking off half his mustache, says the Newark (N. J.) News.

Mumford was standing near the gates, which were down, over the South Orange avenue crossing of the Lackawanna Railroad, and watching the oncoming locomotive, when he remarked to a friend by his side:

"Them big engine wheels kills a lot of people nowadays. I'm afraid of 'em since a person told me I was in danger of being struck by a train, I always wait for the gates to go up before crossing the track."

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

LONDON, April 6.—"Have nothing to say at present." Such is the highly significant text of a telegram just received from W. S. Gilbert, the most famous comic opera librettist of his time. It is in answer to a request addressed to Mr. Gilbert at his country residence, Grimsdyke, for his views on the action of that amazing person, the British stage censor in forbidding the revival at the London Savoy of the most famous of all the Gilbert and Sullivan operas, "The Mikado."

Possibly the fact that "The Mikado" has been thus forbidden may already have been telegraphed to the United States. True it is that the situation has not been put quite so bluntly as that. On the contrary, in the unctuous phraseology employed in journalistic and official circles over here, it merely has been announced that "owing to representations which have been made to Mrs. D'Oyley Carte as to the inadvisability of reviving "The Mikado," she has come to the decision not to produce that opera." The source of these precious "representations" has not been disclosed, but it can only have been the stage censor, George Redford, who in turn represents the Lord Chamberlain, the official whose word is law so far as productions on the British stage are concerned. No authorized explanation has been forthcoming, but it is generally assumed that the reason for this refusal to let Londoners hear "The Mikado" is political in its nature.

As Americans do not need to be told, England and Japan are allies at present, and presumably the "powers that be" imagine that offense might be given to the Oriental nation were "The Mikado" allowed to disport himself again on the stage of the Savoy as he did for some 400 nights in the glorious past of that theater. This decision has been reached, too, despite the fact that "The Mikado" represented i., the world-sung opera is not the present ruler of Japan, but only one of his remote ancestors, and that the opera itself has been played constantly in the British provinces during the three years that the Anglo-Japanese alliance has lasted without any international "incident" having resulted.

Probably the difference, to the mind of officialdom, lies in the fact that the Savoy—where, after many years of waiting, the famous operas which were originally played there are now being revived—is a "West End" house. Possibly the Japanese Ambassador might have chanced to visit one of the performances. Horrors! No doubt, however, the real reason for this act on the part of the Lord Chamberlain, is the approaching visit to London of Prince Fushimi, who is coming to return that of Prince Arthur of Connaught to Japan, but in the opinion of the London public—which badly wants to see "The Mikado" again, the possibility of this distinguished emissary's taking umbrage at the "innocent merriment" of Mr. Gilbert is not great enough to warrant the abandonment of the promised revival.

For this is what it means—the present Gilbert and Sullivan season at the place of their ancient triumphs being strictly limited in point of time. In parenthesis, by the way, let it be said that thus far the project of Mrs. D'Oyley Carte—who is, of course, the widow of the famous manager of the Savoy in the great days—has been the biggest of successes. It was something of a question, it may be remembered, whether this would prove the case—a good many folk believing that the famous operas would be found to have suffered with age, but in spite of the rival attraction of modern musical comedy the Savoy has been crammed nightly ever since the revivals began. The first one, by the way, was "The Yeomen of the Guard" which Gilbert declares to be his personal favorite; then came "The Gondoliers," and at present "Patience" is the attraction.

How attractive the famous operas are proving may, in fact, be gathered from a statement which has just been made by Mrs. D'Oyley Carte in connection with the blacklisting of "The Midako." It appears that both the dresses and the scenery for this revival were in an advanced state of preparation, and reckoning their cost and considering the special popularity of "The Mikado" the proprietress of the Savoy believes herself $25,000 out of pocket owing to the Lord Chamberlain's decree.

Meanwhile what does the veteran author of "The Mikado" think of this latest ineptitude on the part of Mr. Redford? "At present," you will observe, he has nothing to say, but it will not be surprising—in case the feeling on this subject among playgoers does not result in a reversal of this decree—if Mr. Gilbert has something very definite and very biting "to say" regarding the prohibition of his opera. It would astonish no one, in fact, if the official representative of the Lord Chamberlain came in for the severest "dressing down" he has received since George Bernard Shaw poured out the vials of his wrath against this "archaic official" in consequence of his refusal to license "Widowers' Houses."

Needless to say, Mr. Gilbert will be considerably out of pocket should "The Mikado" not be produced at the Savoy, but it is possible—though not probable—that the somewhat irascible librettist may refrain from commenting on the action of the Lord Chamberlain's office owing to the fact that he is himself in an official position. He is, of course, a magistrate and "sits" regularly in the Edgware Road Police Court.

Certain it is, however, that Gilbert would not lack for material did he decide to free his mind on the subject of Mr. Redford and all his works. Perhaps the censor will be abolished some day—as he has been abolished in France—but until then he will presumably go on prohibiting such works as "Monna Vanna" and "John the Baptist" (which Sothern will not be allowed to give here,) while allowing a freedom to music-hall performances such as would be tolerated in no American city.

If Gilbert ever makes another "little list" of persons "who never would be missed" from the scheme of existence, he is likely to give the British stage censor a leading position there in.
